GAME DAY AT THE ELAM CENTER IS THE PLACE TO BE!

Fans of the Ohio Valley Conference have come to know the Elam Center as one of the toughest places to play in the league.

While the fast-paced action on the court is the reason that fans fill the Elam Center each game, it's far from the only attraction.

Fans can take advantage of a number of activities before the action starts, such as "Courtside Dining" or waiting for an autograph from their favorite Skyhawk after the game.

ELAM CENTER
SKYHAWK ARENA

Skyhawk Arena has been the full time home of the UT Martin women's basketball team since the 1995-96 season.

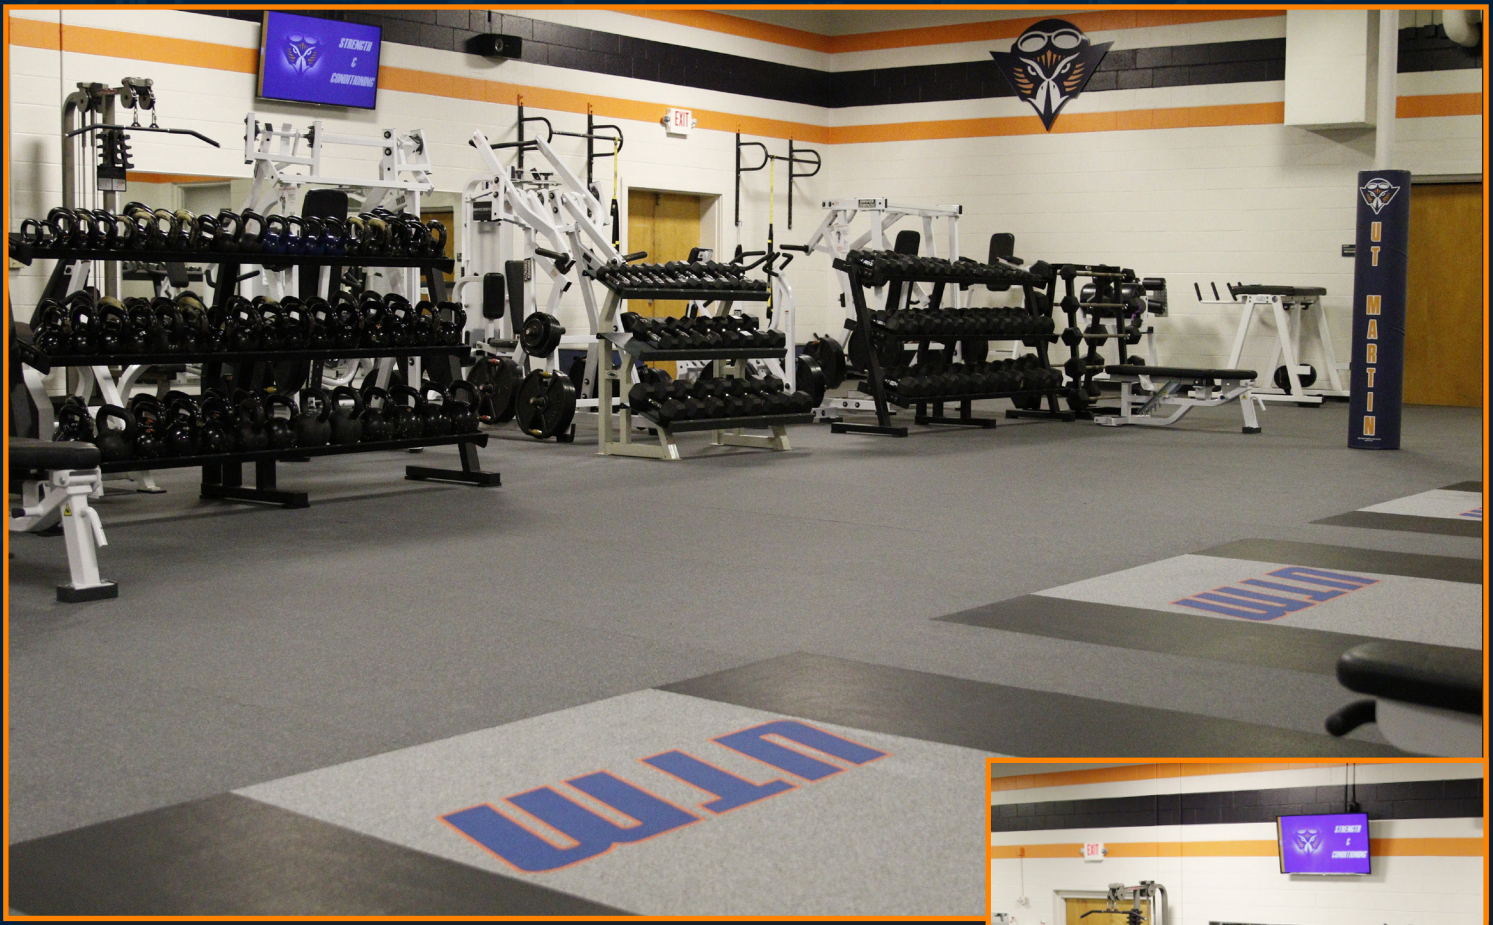
STRENGTH AND

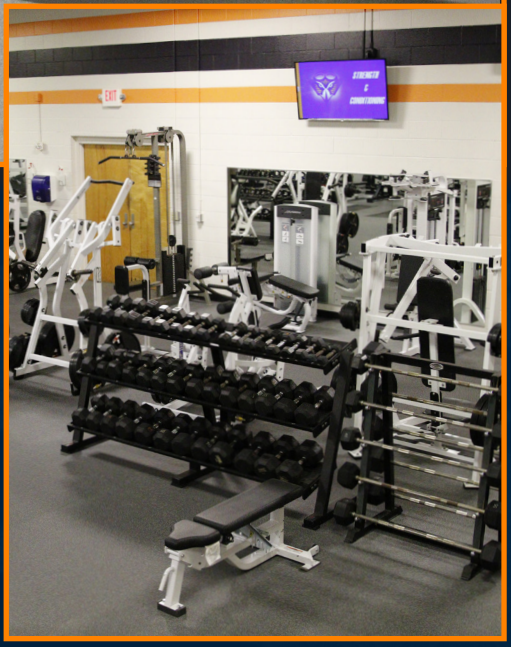
Mission Statement

The mission of the UTM Skyhawk Strength and Conditioning program is to maximize the potential of the Student-Athletes by teaching work ethic, team values, discipline, and leadership.

The number one goal is to create a safe environment for the Student-Athletes to excel at their sport though scientifically based strength and conditioning programs.

The Training programs are designed to increase the Athlete's strength, speed, agility, flexibility, conditioning, and explosiveness – all components in developing a complete collegiate athlete.





Olympic sport student-athletes train in the recently updated Fieldhouse weight room and adjacent multi-purpose room known as "the blue room" The 3,500 square foot weight room's renovation is highlighted by the Ecore Beast flooring that includes five inlay platforms highlighting UTM. In addition, updates included new Hammer Strength equipment, Eleiko barbells and a nutrition area to help support each Skyhawk athlete's development. Continued upgrades are ongoing to provide UT Martin student-athletes the best possible environment to compete for championships and develop positive habits to live a healthy active lifestyle.

The eighth head coach in UT Martin women's basketball history, Kevin McMillan enters his 11th year at the helm of the Skyhawk program as the school's all-time wins leader with 196 career victories.

Overall, the Skyhawks have won eight Ohio Valley Conference titles during his 10 seasons at UT Martin – including four regular season titles and four tournament crowns. The Skyhawks reached the postseason in six consecutive seasons and seven seasons overall while reaching the NCAA Tournament in 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014 while earning a bid to the Women's NIT in 2015, 2016 and 2018. Additionally, the program has recorded six 20-win seasons in the past nine years with the Skyhawks posting a 196-126 record under McMillan, including a 127-41 mark in conference play. His 196 victories rank as the third-highest win total in OVC history, as he accounts for three OVC Coach of the Year awards.

Off the court, McMillan's teams have exceeded the average NCAA Academic Progress Rate in each of his 10 seasons. He has produced two OVC Scholar-Athletes (the highest individual honor in the league) and has graduated 100 percent of his student-athletes who have completed their eligibility in his Skyhawk tenure.

Despite having one of the youngest teams in the country on a program which featured just one senior on the roster, the Skyhawks still managed to meet program expectations throughout the 2018-19 season. The Skyhawks would post a 23-9 overall mark while finishing tied for second in the league standings with a record of 13-5. The team's 23 wins tied for the most wins in program history while appearing in the OVC Basketball Championship title contest for the seventh time in the last nine seasons. Highlighting the season was the emergence of senior Emanye Robertson who put the finishing touches on her career with an All-OVC first team and OVC Defense Player of the Year selection. Meanwhile, sophomore Chelsey Perry earned All-OVC second team honors while freshman Brittni Moore was selected to the OVC All-Newcomer squad.

McMillan saw the Skyhawks return to the postseason for the seventh time in his tenure in 2017-18 with another appearance in the Women's NIT. The Skyhawks would ultimately post a 19-15 overall mark while notching a 13-5 mark in league play to earn the No. 2 seed in the OVC Basketball Championship – where the squad advanced to the tournament finals before falling to No. 22 ranked Belmont in overtime. With the league's automatic bid to the Women's NIT, the Skyhawks would travel to Indiana where they fell to the eventual tournament champions.

As a result of the strong play during the regular season, the Skyhawks saw three different players earn All-OVC honors. Sophomore Kendall Spray was named to the first team after setting a program single-season three-point benchmark while senior Ashton Feldhaus earned second team honors. Perry wrapped up the year's accolades with a spot on the All-Newcomer squad while joining senior Janekia Mason on the OVC All-Tournament team.

Faced with one of the youngest rosters in the nation – boasting just four returners and an abundance of key injuries – the Skyhawks' 2016-17 campaign was a year of highs and lows. UT Martin would post a 12-19 overall record while finishing 8-8 in league play – earning the No. 4 seed in the OVC Basketball Championship before ultimately falling in the tournament semifinals. While the season failed to meet expectations, the squad found growth as three Skyhawks earned All-OVC honors. Spray highlighted the season by becoming just the program's third OVC Freshman of the Year while joining Feldhaus and Mason on the All-OVC second team.

The Skyhawks found success once again during the 2015-16 season, notching the program's eighth 20-win season after finishing with a 22-10 overall record and a 14-2 league mark despite playing with just seven healthy scholarship players for much of the year. The Skyhawks notched their third consecutive regular season title, ranking as the third program in conference history and first since 1993. After winning the season championship, the Skyhawks clinched their sixth straight postseason berth, earning a berth in the Women's NIT where they advanced to the second round before falling to Western Kentucky after defeating Memphis – notching the program's first postseason victory since 1999.

With the squad's success, McMillan notched his second straight OVC Coach of the Year award – marking just the second time in league history that a coach has won the award in back-to-back seasons. Along with top coaching honors, the Skyhawks saw three players earn postseason honors. Haley Howard was an All-OVC first team selection after leading the team in scoring at 14.9 points per game and eclipsing the double-figure mark in 24 games. Jessy Ward was tabbed to the second team after averaging 13.0 points and ranking seventh nationally in both three-point field goals per game and three-point field goals made. Myah Taylor earned a spot on the All-Newcomer squad after averaging 8.7 points per game.

The 2014-15 season kept with the theme of several program firsts within McMillan's tenure while the squad's 22-11 overall record marked the program's seventh 20-win season. UT Martin notched yet another piece of OVC history after becoming just the sixth team in league history to finish the conference season with an unblemished record and just the second to finish 16-0. With the perfect conference record, the Skyhawks clinched their third OVC season title in the last four years while posting a league record of 46-2 during the stretch. The season also served as the fifth consecutive postseason appearance for the Skyhawks after earning an invitation to the Women's National Invitational Tournament against Ole Miss.

The Skyhawks were led by the play of sophomore Ashia Jones who became the program's second Associated Press All-American while also bringing home OVC Female Athlete of the Year, OVC Player of the Year, TSWA Women's Basketball Player of the Year and National Mid-Major Player of the Year honors after averaging 23.4 points, 5.7 rebounds and 2.8 assists per game. Jones ranked fourth in the nation is scoring while setting new single-season records in points (772), field goals made (287) and 30-plus point games (10). Newcomer Jessy Ward also earned All-Newcomer honors after averaging 11.7 points per game and leading the OVC in three-point field goals made (87), three-point field goals per game (2.64) and three-point field goal percentage (40.3 percent).

McMillan's 2013-14 squad recorded its sixth OVC championship during a four-year period with both a regular season and tournament championship. The McMillan led Skyhawks set new program records in victories with 24, while setting a new single season scoring record with 2,681 points en route to receiving the program's first votes in the USA TODAY Sports Top 25 Coaches' Poll and a near upset in the NCAA Tournament against No. 7 North Carolina.

The Skyhawks were led by the play of two premier senior guards in Heather Butler and Jasmine Newsome. Butler finished her career as UT Martin and the OVC's all-time leading scorer with 2,865 career points after being named the league's Player of the Year. Butler finished tied for 16th on the NCAA's all-time scoring list while scoring in double figures every game of her career, spanning 129 games and ranking fifth all-time. She also left the Skyhawks as the best three-point shooter in NCAA history after tying the career three-pointers record with 392.

Joining Butler with postseason accolades was the highly decorated Newsome. Newsome notched her third OVC Defensive Player of the Year honor while finishing her Skyhawk career as the school and league's second all-time leading scorer – second to Butler – with 2,566 career points. The two-time OVC Player of the Year was also named All-Mid Major Player of the Year and Mid Major All-American by College Sports Madness.

In his fourth year, the Skyhawks notched their third consecutive OVC Tournament championship during the 2012-13 season, downing No. 2 seed Tennessee Tech 87-80 in overtime on March 9, 2013. With the victory, UT Martin would advance to their third straight trip to the NCAA Tournament, to take on the Notre Dame Fighting Irish. The Skyhawks suffered a 97-64 setback to the eventual National Championship runner-up despite Butler scoring a tournament-best 37 points in the contest.

The squad was led by a pair of All-OVC first teamers in Newsome (22.6 points per game) and Butler (22.4) who both ranked in the top-10 in the nation in scoring, finishing fifth and sixth, respectively. Newsome captured her second straight OVC Player of the Year honor along with her second OVC Defensive Player of the Year trophy en route to the program's first All-American honorable mention accolade. Butler set an NCAA record by making a three-pointer in 80 consecutive games and with 34 consecutive games in a season.

In 2011-12, McMillan's Skyhawks captured their second OVC Tournament championship in program history, downing No. 3 seed Tennessee Tech 82-65 on March 5. With the victory, UT Martin advanced to make its second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, traveling to the Horizon Center in Rosemont, Ill., to take on the Tennessee Lady Vols. The Skyhawks suffered a 72-49 setback to the hands of alumnus Pat Head Summitt.

Consisting of a roster of mostly West Tennessee players, the Skyhawks went 23-9 with a 15-1 OVC mark despite having a relatively young roster which featured just one senior. The 23-win season was the second consecutive 20-win slate for the Skyhawks while also leading the nation is scoring with 80.1 points per game. The Skyhawks were also the nation's top team in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.43) and sixth in assists (17.7 apg).

The Skyhawks were led by the sophomore duo of Butler and Newsome after being named to the All-OVC first team for the second consecutive season, as well as the All-OVC Tournament squad. Butler was named OVC Tournament Most Valuable Player. Butler was the nation's fourth leading scorer (23.8 points per game) while Newsome was the 18th leading scorer (19.6 ppg). The trio of Butler, Newsome and Jaclissa Haislip combined to win eight adidas OVC Player of the Week awards.

The 2010-11 season laid the foundation for the future, as three different Skyhawks combined to win an OVC Record 13 Freshmen of the Week honors along with the OVC Team Sportsmanship Award. McMillan's guided the team to a second place finish during the regular season before winning the program's first OVC Tournament title. With the title, the Skyhawks earned its first berth in the NCAA Tournament and played at Cameron Indoor Arena against the Duke Blue Devils.

The Skyhawks went 21-11 with a 14-4 OVC mark in 2010-11 despite having a roster that was the youngest team in America (only two years of Division-I experience heading into the season). The 20-win season was the first since 1998-99 and fourth 20-win campaign in program history.

McMillan's first season at UT Martin was a transformation in every sense of the work as he took over a program that had just finished 2-27 and went winless in conference play. Under his direction the Skyhawks finished the 2010-11 season with an overall record 11-19 while making the program's first OVC Tournament appearance since 2006-07. McMillan took his team all the way to the semifinals of the tournament along with being named OVC Coach of the Year and TSWA Women's Co-Head Coach of the Year.

Prior to being named head coach of the Skyhawks on June 15, 2009, McMillan posted a decorated career as a high school coach within the state of Tennessee. Through his 17 years in the prep ranks, the accumulated a record of 435-126 while winning one state championships and sporting six state tournament appearances. He has had coaching stints at Gibson County High School in Dyer (2007-09), Westview High School in Martin (1997-2005) and Millington High School in Millington (1990-97). McMillan was twice named the Jackson Sun's West Tennessee Coach of the Year in 2003 and 2009, while being tabbed district Coach of the Year 10 times. He also spent two season as an assistant coach at Middle Tennessee State.

McMillan played basketball at Wake Forest for one season (1985) before transferring to Rhodes College to finish out his career from 1986-89. At Rhodes, he was a three-time all-conference selection and in 1988 was named the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference Player of the Year. In only three seasons, he scored 1,372 career points and still ranks ninth all-time at Rhodes for career points scored.

McMillan received his bachelor's degree in math and business in 1989 from Rhodes, then completed his master's in health and human performance at Middle Tennessee in 2007. He has two sons, Matt and Ben, along with one daughter, Alli.

DAVID RUSSELL

ASSISTANT COACH
TENTH YEAR

David Russell enters his 10th season as a part-time assistant with the UT Martin women's basketball team after being recognized as one of the best high school coaches in Tennessee history.

While an assistant at UT Martin, the Skyhawks have won four Ohio Valley Conference regular season championships, four OVC Women's Basketball Championships and appeared in a string of six postseasons appearances - including four NCAA Tournaments and three WNIT berths.

Known in the coaching community as a defensive guru, Russell put his defensive stamp on a record-setting Skyhawk squad which outscored its opponents by 12.3 points per game, including a remarkable +22.0 scoring margin against OVC opponents in 2013-14. The Skyhawks pressure defense forced their opponents into 643 turnovers while tallying 330 steals, nearly doubling the work of their opponents.

Primarily working with the Skyhawk forwards, Russell has been integral in the advancement of Skyhawks Chelsey Perry, Ashton Feldhaus, Haley Howard, Ashia Jones and Rickiesha Bryant which each earned All-OVC honors in their respective careers.

Russell, who built his legacy in the prep ranks at Bradford and Gibson County, captured six state championships and won more than 950 games during his illustrious 35-year prep career. He took his teams to the state tournament an astounding 17 times.

Russell, began his high school coaching career at Medina. He then spent 21 seasons at Bradford and 11 at Gibson County, winning the last of his state titles in his final game as the Lady Pioneers' skipper.

He joined McMillan on the UTM bench before the 2010-11 season. He also served as an assistant coach to McMillan in 2009 when McMillan led the Lady Pioneers to their first Class AA state title and an undefeated 37-0 record.

JASMINE NEWSOME

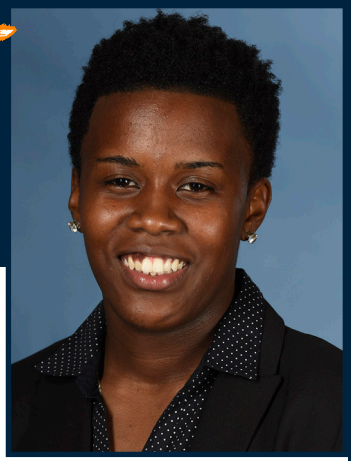
FIFTH YEAR



Jasmine Newsome transitions to a different role on the UT Martin women's basketball staff as an assistant coach for the fifth season after ranking as one of the program's all-time greats. During her tenure with the Skyhawks, Newsome helped lead the squad to the four OVC Tournament titles and four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

During her coaching stint with the Skyhawk, Newsome has seen the program win an OVC regular season title during the 2015-16 season along with the program's eighth and ninth 20-win seasons. The Skyhawks also clinched a berth in the 2016 and 2018 Women's NIT.

Newsome has worked with six All-OVC honorees in Ashton Feldhaus, Haley Howard, Chelsey Perry, Emanye Robertson, Kendall Spray and Myah Taylor. Howard, Robertson and Spray each earned first team accolades while the others earned second team honors.

Newsome rejoined the Skyhawks after a stellar career which saw the former guard rank as the program and Ohio Valley Conference's second all-time scorer with 2,566 career points. She was twice named OVC Player of the Year while notching three Defensive Player of the Year awards. A four-time All-OVC first team selection, Newsome became the program's first Associated Press All-American following her junior campaign. She was enshrined into the UT Martin Athletics Hall of Fame in 2019.

Additional accolades include being named Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame Amateur Athlete of the Year along being tabbed College Sports Madness All Mid-Major Player of the Year and a first team All-American selection by the publication. She started every game of her 131 game career, while setting program single game records in points and assists. She tallied 44 points in a victory over Quinnipiac before setting a new assist record on senior night with 14 assists against Austin Peay.

Newsome holds UT Martin records for: single game points (44, 2013); single game three-point field goals made (nine, 2011); single game three-point field goals attempted (16, 2011); single game free throws made (16, two occasions); single game free throws attempted (20, 2012); single game assists (14, 2014); single season points (770, 2013); single season free throws made (167, 2013); single season assists (193, 2012); career free throws made (611); career assists (681).

Newsome earned her bachelor's degree from UT Martin in 2014 with a degree in health and human performance.

DAVID HART

ASSISTANT COACH
NINTH YEAR

David Hart enters his ninth season as an assistant coach with the Skyhawk women's basketball program.

Hart initially joined the program during the 2010-11 season as a volunteer assistant, serving in that role for three years. Following a one year hiatus, Hart returned to the bench prior to the 2014-15 seasons as the program's top recruiter.

During his tenure with the program, the Skyhawks have notched seven postseason appearances including three NCAA Tournament berths in 2011, 2012 & 2013 while clinching bids to the Women's NIT in 2015, 2016 and 2018. The Skyhawks have also registered six 20-win seasons while posting five All-OVC first team performances and a pair of Associated Press All-Americans.

Hart has been involved in the women's basketball game for nearly 15 years at the AAU, high school and collegiate levels. As a coach, he led the Tennessee Wings to a pair of top-10 finishes nationally. Hart also served as a volunteer assistant basketball coach at Westview High School in Martin, teaming with Skyhawk head coach Kevin McMillan for two state tournament appearances in 2001 and 2003, where the Chargers placed runner-up. He also reached the state tournament as a member of the staff in 2006 and 2009.

Hart is a 1991 graduate of UT Martin with a degree in accounting. He is also a licensed Certified Public Accountant and a partner at Alexander Thompson Arnold CPAs. Hart resides with his wife Dana, and two sons Nick and Kyle in Martin.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
TENTH YEAR

Stacie Evans enters her 10th season with the women's basketball program, while entering her fourth year as the Director of Operations.

Evans transitions from her position as the Academic Support Services Coordinator in the UT Martin Department of Intercollegiate Athletics to move up a seat on the bench after serving as the team's academic coach while assisting with team travel operations for the previous five seasons.

During her tenure with the program, the Skyhawks have won four Ohio Valley Conference Tournament championships, appeared in four NCAA Tournaments, tallied four OVC regular season championships and earned three bids to the Women's NIT. The Skyhawks have also registered six 20-win seasons while posting five All-OVC first team performers and a pair of Associated Press All-Americans.

Evans is no stranger to head coach Kevin McMillan with their history dating back to her high school career. She spent her senior year as a student-athlete under McMillan in his first season at Westview High School.

Evans, a Martin native, graduated from UT Martin in 2004, earning a bachelor's degree in health and human performance with a concentration in sports management.

KELSEY JOHNSON

GRADUATE ASSISTANT
FIRST YEAR

Kelsey Johnson enters her first season as a graduate assistant with the Skyhawk women's basketball program.

Before UT Martin, Johnson spent two seasons at Northwestern Ohio where she was an assistant coach and junior varsity head coach during the 2018-19 season. She also served as a graduate assistant at UNOH during the 2017-18 campaign.

While on staff at UNOH, she contributed to the development of Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference standout Kierra Billingsley who earned first team all-defense along with second team all-conference honors while Emily Patton earned all-conference second team honors along with being named WHAC Newcomer of the Year. She also assisted in the maturation of forward Fataya Larry which went on to rank seventh nationally in rebounding en route to second team all-conference and all-defensive team honors.

Prior to her time at Northwestern Ohio, she was an assistant coach at her alma mater Dean College during the 2016-17 season following a brief stay as an assistant coach at Old Rochester Regional High School in 2015-16.

A native of East Freetown, Massachusetts, Johnson played collegiately at Dean College from 2011-13 before suffering a career-ending injury. Prior to her injury, she averaged 10.8 points, 3.0 rebounds, 2.6 assists and 2.5 steals per game as a freshman while increasing her totals to 11.8 points, 3.1 rebounds and 2.2 assists per game as a sophomore. She prepped at Old Rochester Regional High School where she was a prep standout, ranking as the top scorer in the area as a sophomore while garnering four conference and regional honors.

Johnson graduated with a bachelor's degree in psychology with Magna Cum Laude honors in 2016 from Bridgewater State University. She also received an associated degree at Dean College in 2013. She is currently pursuing a Master's degree at UT Martin.

STUDENT ASSISTANT
SECOND YEAR

Breanna Boggs enters her second season as a student assistant for the UT Martin women's basketball team. Boggs will assist the team with the "Ball Girls" program along with the program's social media accounts.

Boggs spent two seasons as a player for the Skyhawks, appearing in 58 games while notching four starts. She tallied scored 102 points, tallied 30 rebounds and notched 22 blocks in her two seasons.

KELLI POLIZZI

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER
SECOND YEAR

Kelli Polizzi joined the Skyhawk athletic training staff in June 2018, working directly with the UT Martin women's basketball program. She boasts over 15 years of experience in the areas of evaluation, assessment and rehabilitation.

Before coming to UT Martin, Polizzi served as head athletic trainer at Cumberland University in Lebanon, Tenn. She worked closely with the Phoenix women's basketball and tennis programs while also overseeing administration for the athletic training department since the summer of 2016.

Polizzi spent five years over two stints at Benedictine College in Atchison, Kan. before joining the Cumberland staff. While at BC, she oversaw the softball, men's soccer, women's soccer, volleyball, women's basketball and baseball programs for evaluation, assessment, rehabilitation and documentation of injuries. She also served as a part-time faculty member in the ATEP and Health, Wellness and Exercise Science department.

A Monroe City, Mo. native, Polizzi worked two stints at Progressive Rehabilitation Associates in Iowa City, Iowa. She covered local high school athletic events and made weekly school visits to assess and evaluate as well as document injuries. She ran training sessions for area businesses and factories, educating on employee triage for industrial settings while writing essential function profiles for statewide businesses.

Polizzi spent one year at Augustana College in Rock Island, Ill., where she covered men's and women's cross country and track and field as well as the men's and women's tennis programs. She also spent one year working with the women's basketball team at Utah Valley University in Orem, Utah.

Polizzi also worked at Unite Point Health in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. She covered the Cedar Rapids RoughRiders Junior Hockey tryouts, the Cedar Rapids Metro Youth Football Academy games and the Iowa Winter Games.

Polizzi received her bachelor's degree in athletic training from Culver-Stockton College in 2006 and earned her Master's degree in secondary education from Central Methodist University in 2008. She is married to Chris Polizzi, who is an assistant football coach at UT Martin.

ALEX BOGGIS

ASSISTANT SPORTS INFORMATION DIRECTOR
SEVENTH YEAR

Alex Boggis has worked in the UT Martin sports information office since 2012. At UT Martin, Boggis is the media contact for football, women's basketball, softball, cross country and track teams. Boggis also serves on the statistician crew at most Skyhawk home events, produces media guides, game day programs, press releases, and serves as a media host and coordinating event operations. His responsiblities also include serving as the department's lead graphic designer - responsible for social media content, marketing pieces, along with stadium and arena branding throughout the campus.

While at UT Martin, Boggis has taken part in several other sports information ventures. He also served as an official statistician for the 2014 NCAA Women's Basketball Final Four in Nashville, serving in that role for all three games - including the nationally championship between undefeated foes Notre Dame and Connecticut.

Since 2012, he has served on the official statistician crew at the Ohio Valley Conference men's and women's basketball tournament in Nashville, where he was part of the team responsible for all stats from the tournament. He also served in that same role for the 2012 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament Second/Third Rounds, also held in Nashville.

Boggis was also Tournament Director of the 2012 OVC Soccer Tournament, held in Martin, Tenn. after serving as the tournament's head statistician in 2011.

A native of Pinckneyville, Ill., Boggis graduated from UT Martin in 2011, earning a bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in marketing. He recently earned his Master's in business administration from UTM in the spring of 2013. He worked as a graduate assistant in the sports information office for one year and was the secondary contact for football, women's basketball and softball, and also the head researcher and designer for basketball and softball media guides. He spent his undergraduate years as the head manager for the UT Martin men's basketball team, serving that role during the 2008-09 OVC Championship season.

He is also a member of both the Tennessee Sportswriters Association and College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Boggis married Tiffany Carlton in June 2013. The couple resides in Martin and has one son, Liam.

2019-20 PREVIEW

Even though the University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team will officially open the season on Wednesday, Nov. 6, it will only begin a five-month story which is yet to been written. Will the Skyhawks accomplish another 20-win season? Will UT Martin return to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2014? While the season is filled with optimism, only time will reveal if the final chapters of the season will include a storybook ending.

The Skyhawks return the bulk of a squad which went 23-9 last season, posted the program's ninth 20-win season and finished as the Ohio Valley Conference runner-up once again. UT Martin features a roster which includes 12 returners off a squad which sports a loaded 17-player roster.

UT Martin opens its 11th season with head coach Kevin McMillan at the helm. Over the past 10 years the Skyhawks have won eight OVC titles – including four regular season and four tournament crowns. The Skyhawks have reached the postseason seven times during that span while tallying seven 20-win seasons. As a whole, UT Martin has posted a 196-126 record under McMillan while going 127-41 in OVC play.

After ranking as one of the youngest teams in the country last season, the Skyhawks have turned that inexperience into a strength with a roster which includes 12 returners from a season ago. With zero seniors on the roster, UT Martin will look to its junior class to lead the way. A decorated group which has won 42 games over the last two seasons will lean on the shoulders of juniors Chelsey Perry, Maddie Waldrop, Zaire Hicks and Demi Burdick which enter their third season of playing experience.

"The junior class has to be our senior class," McMillan said. "Their leadership and ability to lead from a junior class perspective will be key. I am anxious to see the ownership they take over themselves. A lot of times, how good you are as a team ultimately depends on how good you want to be as a player. I think Chelsey and Zaire are the two out there that have grown up and bring it every day in practice. Hopefully they will be able to sustain that while others jump on the bandwagon."

With the team's success over the years, it is easy to forget where the program was. Once becoming a Division I program, UT Martin posted just three seasons over .500 from 1992-2010 while winning just 37.1 percent of its games during the span. Since that time, the Skyhawks have posted a winning percentage of 62.4 since the 2010-11 campaign.

While success has been aplenty, fans and media pundits alike ask when the Skyhawks will get back "over the hump" after falling in the OVC championship game in back-to-back seasons.

"The statement that we get sometimes infers that we have underachieved," McMillan said. "That is a great problem to have when you are at UT Martin when someone thinks you underachieved because you had 23 wins, you've been to the conference championship game seven times in the last nine years and have been to the postseason seven times. If that's underachieving, then that's a high standard."

"There are certainly expectations that are at our place, the thing is, they have nothing to do with postseason play or winning a championship. Now we will refer to those things as something we can do, but we are more focused on what you do every day. What do you bring every day to practice? What do you bring every day to the classroom? What do you bring every day to your life? Those things will be more important in the long run. The good thing is that if you take care of those things, championships usually take care of themselves."

With a stable of returners along with five newcomers to the squad, UT Martin will look to build upon the foundation set by last year's team but will not rest on its laurels. "If you look at what you did last year, what have you lost and what you have gained, I understand the idea that we should just pick up where we left off. The problem is that every year – even if you have the exact same team back – you have to start over. Even with so much back, there are just so many unanswered questions at this point."

Hoping to answer some of those questions are the team's proven leaders. The Skyhawk pair of Perry and Waldrop were voted as Preseason All-OVC honorees while sophomore Brittni Moore returns after being named to the OVC All-Newcomer squad following a strong freshman campaign.

A native of Middleton, Tenn., Perry is a two-time Preseason All-OVC honoree after averaging 12.0 points and 5.5 rebounds per game last season en route to an All-OVC second team nod. Perry scored in double figures in 19 contests while tallying four games with at least 20 points. She scored a season-high 28 points against Tennessee Tech while ranking 24th nationally with 71 blocks and 30th with 2.22 blocks per game. The prolific shot blocker tallied a career-best six blocks against Mississippi Valley State and Morehead State while ranking second in the OVC.

Hailing from Murray, Ky., Waldrop took the next step in her progression in 2018-19, averaging 8.0 points and 7.3 rebounds per game. Waldrop scored in double figures 10 times while tallying a season-high 20 points against Southeast Missouri, Belmont and Tennessee State. Along with her three double-doubles, she posted her best game of the season against Tennessee State in the regular season finale with 20 points and 16 rebounds. She ranked sixth in the OVC in defensive rebounds (4.8), ninth in total rebounds (7.3) and 10th in offensive rebounds (2.5).

Representing Memphis, Tenn., Moore was a two-time OVC Freshman of the Week while securing her spot in the starting lineup in the final 15 games of the season last year. She averaged 8.5 points and 3.3 rebounds per game while shooting over 40 percent from the floor and beyond the arc. Scoring in double-figures 11 times, she posted her best game against Eastern Illinois where she tallied 22 points while knocking down five three-pointers. She finished the season ranked second in the OVC in three-point field goal percentage (44.7) and seventh in three-point field goals made (59).

Hicks returns to the fold as the team's fourth starter back from last season. Hicks started in 31 games last year while averaging 8.6 points and 2.4 assists per game. She scored in double figures 14 times while tallying season-highs against Alabama Huntsville and Murray State with 19 points.

UT Martin will look to other returners Demi Burdick, Emma Davis, Kyannah Grant, Kyarrah Grant, Damiah Griffin, Sade' Hudson and Tamiah Stanford to provide additional depth with position flexibility. The Skyhawks also welcome four newcomers to the fold in transfer Anna Pierce and freshmen Raegan Johnson, Macy Rippy and Dasia Young.

Meanwhile, the team's depth has already taken an early hit with redshirt-sophomore Paige Pipkin suffering the third season-ending injury of her Skyhawk career while freshman Hayley Harrison will spend her debut season redshirting an injury. While a pair of Skyhawks have already seen their season come to a close, others are hoping to nurse ailments suffered this preseason in hopes of contributing on the court.

"We have to stay healthy," McMillan said. "We have already taken some significant hits and our margin for error is getting smaller and smaller. Our kids will need to continue buying in and playing hard. Is this team willing to do the grunt work and will they enjoy it? Does it become a staple of who we are and morph into our identity? Are we going to be the team that takes charges, dives on the floor and has great teammates? Those are the questions that we will hope to have find the right answers to."

OVC Basketball Championship

Wednesday, March 4 - Saturday, March 7

Evansville, Ind.

2018-19
IN REVIEW

YOUTHFUL SKYHAWKS SHOW GROWTH ON THE WAY TO STRONG 2018-19 CAMPAIGN

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball ranked as one of the youngest teams in the country in 2018-19 but would not allow that to be an excuse en route to the program's ninth 20-win season and another trip to the Ohio Valley Conference Basketball Championship title game.

The Skyhawks boasted one of the youngest teams in the country in terms of Division I playing experience. As a whole, UT Martin had just eight years of playing experience spread over 15 eligible players on the roster while 10 players made their Division I debut.

Despite the team's inexperience, the Skyhawks posted a 23-9 season while going 13-5 in OVC play to finish tied for second. UT Martin would go 10-3 during the non-conference slate with the team's lone losses coming to IUPUI, Northwestern and nationally ranked Louisville. The Skyhawks used their home court advantage to their benefit, going 14-1 in the friendly confines of the Kathleen and Tom Elam Center.

Entering the OVC Basketball Championship as the No. 3 seed, the Skyhawks knocked off Murray State and Morehead State with double-digit victories to punch their ticket to the team's seven title game appearance in the last nine years. For the second straight year, UT Martin and Belmont would square off in the championship before ultimately falling 59-53 down the stretch.

A total of three Skyhawks were rewarded for their strong play by earning postseason honors by the league. Senior guard Emanye Robertson highlighted the list by picking up an All-OVC first team honor while also being named the OVC Defensive Player of the Year. Sophomore Chelsey Perry also notched her first All-OVC honor by being named to the second team. Freshman Brittni Moore capped off the team's postseason honors by being named to the OVC All-Newcomer squad.

Robertson became the 11th player in program history to earn All-OVC first team honors and just the second individual to be named the league's Defensive Player of the Year. She played and started in all 32 games for the Skyhawks, averaging 12.8 points, 3.7 rebounds, 4.9 assists and 2.6 steals per game. She ranked amongst OVC leaders in steals (first), assists (second), free throw percentage (fifth), assist/turnover ratio (sixth), minutes played (seventh), field goal percentage (10th) and points (12th) while scoring in double figures in 21 games.

Perry averaged 12.0 points, 5.5 rebounds and 2.2 blocks in just 24.6 minutes per game. She tallied 19 games in double figures along with four games with at least 20 points. She tallied three double-doubles while ranking 24th nationally with 71 blocks and 30th in blocks per game.

Moore burst onto the scene to start the final 15 games of the season in her debut campaign. She averaged 8.5 points and 3.3 rebounds per game while tallying 11 games in double figures. She ranked second in the OVC in three-point field goal percentage (44.7) and seventh in three-point field goals made (59).

EVANSVILLE, Ind. – The third seeded University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team used a big second quarter to gain a sizable lead and never looked back, cruising past sixth seeded Murray State 77-56 in the first round of the Ohio Valley Conference Basketball Championship. With the win, UT Martin advances to the semifinals for the ninth time in the last 10 seasons.

The Skyhawks (22-8) used a balanced scoring attack and solid defensive showing to notch the opening round victory. In a game with very few turnovers, UT Martin still forced Murray State into nine turnovers while dishing out 17 assists and winning the battle of the boards convincingly.

UT Martin shot 50 percent from the floor, 58.3 percent from beyond the arc and 88.9 percent from the line to cap off an efficient afternoon. All-OVC forward Chelsey Perry led the squad with 20 points while the guard tandem of All-OVC senior Emanye Robertson and sophomore Zaire Hicks chipped in 19 points each while combining for 14 assists and 10 rebounds. All-Newcomer honoree Brittni Moore just missed out on double figures with nine points.

Murray State (13-17) saw its season come to an end in the first round for the second consecutive season. Brianna Crane paced the Racers in scoring with 14 points while chipping in seven rebounds. Meanwhile, All-OVC selections Evelyn Adebayo and Macey Turley were held well below season average with 12 points and seven points, respectively.

EVANSVILLE, Ind. – A 14-point deficit proved to be no match for the No. 3 seed University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team on Friday afternoon as the Skyhawks fought back in the second half to post a 68-58 victory in the Ohio Valley Conference Basketball Championship semifinals over No. 2 seed Morehead State. With the win, the Skyhawks advance to the OVC Championship title game against top-seeded Belmont on Saturday.

The Skyhawks (23-8) fell behind early in the contest as the team was looking at a 14-point deficit with 8:21 to play in the second quarter. From there UT Martin began its comeback attempt by trimming the deficit to seven points at halftime before opening the second half on a 15-5 run to erase the deficit and put the squad on top. The game would remain a back-and-forth matchup until the midway point of the fourth quarter when the Skyhawks began to put the game away and ultimately pushed their margin out to 10 points in the final minute.

With the win, UT Martin advances to the OVC Championship title game for the seventh time in the past 10 years while improving the program's record in the field to 17-6 under the direction of head coach Kevin McMillan. Additionally, the team's 23rd win of the season ranks tied for the second-most wins in program history.

Senior Emanye Robertson steered the ship for the Skyhawks in the contest, as the All-OVC first team selection scored a game-high 26 points while tallying five rebounds and four assists. Fellow guard Zaire Hicks was strong once again with 13 points from the other guard spot while sophomore forward Maddie Waldrop tallied her third double-double of the season with 10 points and 12 rebounds. Rounding out the Skyhawks in double figures was sophomore Chelsey Perry with 10 points, nine rebounds and three blocks.

Morehead State (23-10) had its regular season come to a close despite a well-rounded effort. All-OVC guard Miranda Crockett paced the Eagles with 16 points while Mckenzie Calvert (15 points) and Darianne Seward (12 points) also scored in double figures.

EVANSVILLE, Ind. – While the University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team's path through the Ohio Valley Conference Basketball Championship had enough twists and turns to mimic a true Hollywood thriller, the Skyhawks would fall just short of their Cinderella moment at the hands of Belmont by a final score of 59-53 at the Ford Center.

Making their seventh OVC Championship final appearance in 10 years, the Skyhawks (23-9) showed their grit and toughness throughout the contest. Despite falling behind by 10 points midway through the second quarter, UT Martin would fight back down the stretch to trim the deficit to just three points heading into the half. From there the lead would change hands five times along with three stretches where the game was tied.

Sadly, the team's poor shooting output caught up to them in the third quarter (15.8 percent) to allow Belmont to push its margin back to seven points heading into the final quarter. UT Martin would respond down the stretch to trim the deficit to as close as three points on a pair of occasions but could never get over the hump before ultimately falling 59-53.

A total of three different Skyhawks scored in double figures in today's contest. Sophomore Chelsey Perry paced the team with 16 points while the pair of Emanye Robertson and Brittni Moore scored 13 points each. Postgame, Robertson was honored for her impressive play in the tournament, earning a spot on the five-member OVC All-Tournament team after averaging 19.3 points, 6.3 assists and 4.0 rebounds per game.

With the victory Belmont (26-6) notched its fourth straight OVC tournament title while earning the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament in two weeks. Junior Ellie Harmeyer ranked as the Bruins lone scorer in double figures with 16 points and nine rebounds. Meanwhile, the OVC Player of the Year Darby Maggard was held in control and well below her season average with just six points after going head-to-head with OVC Defensive Player of the Year Robertson for much of the contest.

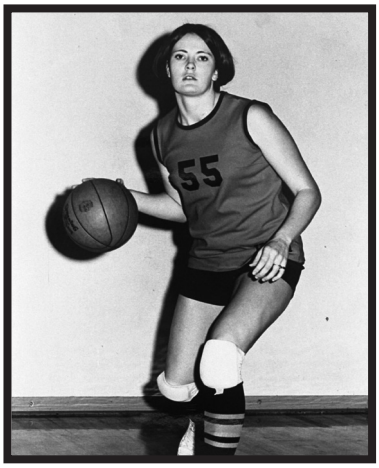
UT MARTIN HALL OF FAME

PAT HEAD SUMMITT, CLASS OF 1983 (INAUGURAL CLASS)



Summitt was a member of the Lady Pacers from 1970-74, during the program's first days as a varsity sport. To this day, Summitt remains among the career leaders in many statistical categories. At the time of her graduation, Summitt led the Lady Pacers with 35 points in a single game, became the program's first 1,000 point scorer with 1,405 career points and was a member of the 1972-73 squad that compiled a 22-3 record and advanced to the AIAW National Tournament. During Summitt's final season as a Lady Pacer, she became the first women's basketball player to have her jersey retired when her number 55 was raised to the rafters.

Summitt, of Ashland City, Tenn., continued in basketball after her time at UT Martin as a co-captain of the USA Women's Basketball team that won a silver medal in the 1976 Montreal Olympics. She later earned a two silver medals and five gold medals as a coach in international play, including gold at the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics.

Summitt is now best known for her 34 years at the helm of the Tennessee Lady Vols, where she has become the winningest basketball coach in history (men's or women's). She has amassed over 1,000 wins in her career, in addition to seven NCAA titles, 26 Southeastern Conference tournament and regular season championships, 25 consecutive appearances in the NCAA Sweet 16, produced 12 Olympians, 19 Kodak All-Americans and 68 All-SEC performers.

Summitt's was also honored by having the court in the Kathleen and Tom Elam Center named in her honor Nov. 23, 1997. Summitt's name also appears on the gymnasium at Cheatham County Central High School in Ashland City, Tenn., and on the floor at The University of Tennessee's Thompson-Boling Arena.

NADINE GEARIN, CLASS OF 1988

Gearin was the coach of the first UT Martin intercollegiate women's basketball team and played a major role in why the University of Tennessee at Martin is regarded as a pioneer in women's athletics. She coached the Lady Pacers' teams from 1969-78 and directed the team to the 1970-71 Tennessee College Women's Sports Federation championship and won three Western Division titles. Her 1971-72 team posted the most wins in Lady Pacer history and also became the only basketball team in school history to advance to the national championship tournament. Her overall basketball coaching record was 104-86.

Gearin also coached women's volleyball from 1969-73 and was coach of the UT Martin badminton club from 1968-70.

PAT HEAD SUMMITT

OLYMPIC APPEARANCES AS A PLAYER:
1976 Montreal Games, XXI Olympiad
Silver Medal, Team co-captain

OLYMPIC APPEARANCES AS A COACH:
1984 Los Angeles Games, XXIII Olympiad
Head Coach, Gold Medal

Success and accomplishment have always followed Pat Head Summitt. By the time Summitt graduated from The University of Tennessee at Martin in 1974, she symbolized the prototype player of the decades to come. She was described as a strong player that had great instincts and was awesome on defense. She denied the ball all over the court, rebounded with authority, took the ball to the hoop and then could shoot the lights out over a zone defense.

In her career as a Lady Pacer Summitt helped UT Martin to a record of 62-15, which included two AIAW District Tournament Championships, one AIAW Tennessee State Tournament Title, one AIAW Regional Championship and an appearance in the 1972 AIAW National Tournament.

Only four games into her final season as a Lady Pacer, Summitt suffered a near career-ending knee injury. After she went down with an injury, the UT Martin team won only two games the rest of the season to finish 6-15. Even with her final season cut short, Summitt ended her career with 1,405 points, which stood as the career record for points scored in a career until 1989.

In 1973, following her junior season, she made her first U.S. national team when she represented the United States at the World University Games in the Soviet Union. She returned to UT Martin for her senior season with loftier goals, such as making the 1976 Olympic team when she was hampered by the knee injury.

She was determined to get the knee back into shape and try out for the Olympic Games, but not many people gave her a chance. The University of Tennessee in Knoxville, though, showed its confidence in her abilities as a coach when the school offered her a graduate teaching assistantship and the reins to the women's intercollegiate basketball team as a 22-year-old. The position suited her needs to a "T" -- she could pursue her career and stay close to basketball as she rehabilitated her knee.

The late Helen B. Watson, the former chairperson of the University of Tennessee's Physical Education Department, can be credited for bringing a young Pat Head to Knoxville. Watson asked Head to coach the Tennessee women's team in a letter dated April 30, 1974, when Head was a 21-year old senior at UT Martin. In her letter, Watson wrote, "we have an excellent potential team, and I believe that they would be happy to have you as their coach."

At the time, Head was being courted as the assistant coach who would also serve as a graduate teaching assistant in the Physical Education Department at Tennessee while she pursued her master's degree. An enthusiastic Head accepted the position. Imagine her shock two weeks later when Watson called back and informed Head that the women's basketball coach, Margaret Hutson, had decided to take a sabbatical and Tennessee was offering her the job as head coach. Head, who had never run a practice or made out a practice plan or schedule, said she really contemplated her decision because as she put it, "I was absolutely overwhelmed and scared to death."

Patricia Sue Head arrived in Knoxville as the new head coach and was practically the same age as the seniors on her team. A little shy at the time, she never corrected Dr. Helen B. Watson or Dr. Nancy Lay, her mentors in the UT Physical Education Department, when they shortened Patricia to Pat, assuming that's the name she went by. Head never mentioned to them that she had gone by Tricia or Trish her whole life.

In her first year as a collegiate coach, she led her team to a 16-8 overall record, attended classes as a master's degree candidate, taught physical education classes and stayed in playing shape. As the summer of 1975 approached, she thought the knee was ready for a big test. The knee held and so did Summitt -- held, that is, a spot on the U.S. Women's World Championship team and the 1975 Pan American Games team.

After another summer of international experience, she returned home to coach her Lady Vols to a 16-11 record, a second-place finish in the state tournament and a spot for herself on the 1976 U.S. Olympic Team. Playing on the Olympic Team in Montreal at the Games of the XXI Olympiad was the high point of her competitive playing career, as she helped lead the United States to a silver medal finish while serving as the team's co-captain.

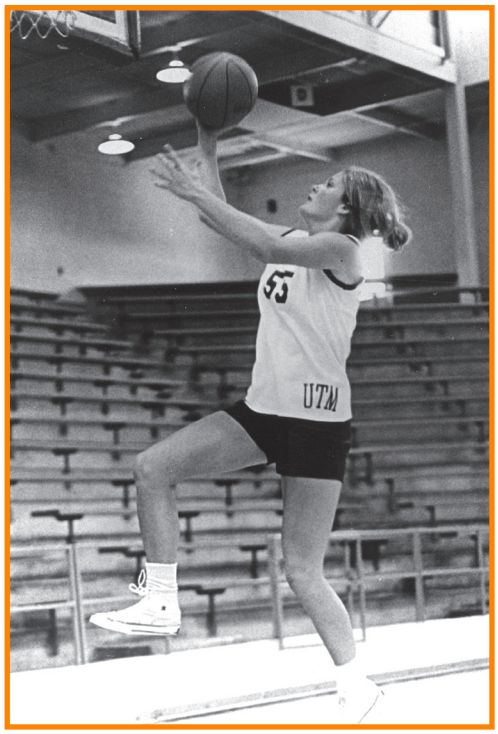
After her player career was done, Summitt continued to find Olympic and international success as a coach, to go along with her storied success at The University of Tennessee. In 1977, Summitt was given the first U.S. Junior National Team to coach, and she led it to two gold medals in international play. What makes it so remarkable is that one year earlier Summitt was a player on the U.S. Olympic Team.

Her next international challenge was taking the U.S. National Team to the 1979 William R. Jones Cup Games, the 1979 World Championships and the 1979 Pan American Games. Summitt and her team returned home with two gold medals and one silver medal.

When the Moscow Olympic Games rolled around in 1980, she was honored as the assistant coach to the late Sue Gunter. Although the United States boycotted the Games, the team still captured the pre-Olympic qualifying tournament title.

In August 1982, Summitt was named the 1984 U.S. Women's Olympic basketball coach, and the rush for the gold was on! She coached the 1983 World Championship team to a silver medal finish; but the silver was not indicative of the team's play.

The XXIII Olympiad in Los Angeles, Calif., found Summitt's U.S. squad tearing through the opposition by a bundle of points. When the gold medal was a reality, Summitt's team lifted her high and carried the "All-World" coach around the Los Angeles Forum for all to applaud.



Pat Head Summitt was a member of the UT Martin Lady Pacers women's basketball team from 1970-74, before going on to win a silver medal at the 1976 Olympic Games and eventually becoming the winningest coach in college basketball history.

Heather Butler (left) became the first UT Martin basketball player to score 2,000 points on March 2, 2013 at Austin Peay before Jasmine Newsome (right) reached the 2,000 point plateau on Nov. 11, 2013 against Quinnipiac.

Butler (2,865) became the Ohio Valley Conference's all-time leading scorer on Jan. 13, 2014 at Morehead State. Newsome (2,566) moved into second place on the list against Eastern Kentucky in the OVC Tournament semifinals on March 7, 2014. The duo is the first pair of teammates to ranks first and second on a conference's all-time scoring list in NCAA history.

Heather Butler holds every three-point record at UT Martin, along with three NCAA records after her time with the Skyhawks. Butler set a pair of NCAA records as a junior, making a three-pointer in 34 consecutive games in 2012-13 while setting another record with 80 straight games with a trifecta.

In 2013-14, Butler tied the NCAA record for career three-pointers made with 392, tying Kansas State's Laurie Koehn set in 2005. The NCAA career three-point record was later broken.

1999 WNIT FIRST ROUND

March 11, 1999 • Skyhawk Arena
UT Martin 77, Ole Miss 66

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team used a 20-7 second-half run to break open a close game and defeat Ole Miss, 77-66, Thursday night at Skyhawk Arena in the first round of the Postseason Women's National Invitational Tournament.

After taking a 33-22 lead into halftime, the Skyhawks still led by one, 40-39, with 15:00 to play. However, the 20-7 spurt over the next 8:28 gave UT Martin a 60-46 lead with 6:32 left in the game.

The Skyhawks extended the lead to 66-50 on a Nichole Lockridge jumper with 5:06 to play, and the Lady Rebels would get no closer that nine points the rest of the way.

"Ole Miss was the more aggressive team in the first half. Once we got the lead, we became tentative," said UT Martin co-head coach Gary Van Atta. "We did a better job on the defensive end in the second half and were able to nullify their quickness. We couldn't stop Boyd inside, but we did a good job on Bethley and Myatt."

Tessa Fields led four Skyhawks in double figures with 25 points, including 11-of-13 free throws. Zabrina Harris posted a double-double, finishing with 16 points and 13 rebounds. Tamika Brown and Lockridge each scored 10 points, while Tracy Webb pulled down a career-high 11 rebounds for UT Martin.

The Lady Rebels (15-13) were led by Frankie Boyd who finished with 24 points and 10 rebounds. Tarsha Bethley also posted a double-double, registering 17 points and 10 rebounds. Sinissia Wysinger pulled down a team-high 11 rebounds for Ole Miss.

The Skyhawks matched the school record for wins in a season while improving to 22-8, the best mark for a UT Martin women's team since the 1972-73 team finished 22-4. The victory was the ninth straight at home for the Skyhawks, setting a new school standard.

1999 WNIT SECOND ROUND

March 15, 1999 • Elma Roane Fieldhouse
Memphis 87, UT Martin 73

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team shot just 31 percent from the field while losing an 87-73 decision to Memphis in the second round of the Postseason Women's National Invitational Tournament Sunday at Elma Roane Fieldhouse.

Seniors Tesa Fields and Nichole Lockridge each had 13 points to pace the Skyhawks, while Zabrina Harris and Chastity Bohannan contributed 12 and 11 points, respectively. Tracy Webb pulled down a game-high nine rebounds.

Conference USA Player of the Year and All-America Tamika Whitmore led Memphis with a game-high 25 points in spite of playing only 23 minutes because of foul trouble. Kelly Herron added 18 points, while Malissa Bush finished with 13 points for the Lady Tigers.

In spite of a 29-18 rebounding edge at halftime, the Skyhawks trailed, 40-30, at intermission. Memphis opened the second half with an 8-2 run to take a 48-32 lead with 17:48 to play.

The Skyhawks battled back to pull within 52-46 with 12:53 left after a 14-4 UT Martin run. However, Herron scored seven straight points to put the Lady Tiger lead back at 12, 64-52, with 8:26 to go. UT Martin would get no closer than 10 the rest of the way.

The Skyhawks conclude a 22-9 season, while the Lady Tigers improve to 21-9 and advance to face Arkansas State in the quarterfinals.

For the first 20 minutes of this afternoon's matchup against Duke in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team traded blows with the No. 2 seeded Blue Devils on their own home floor. However, Duke opened the second half on a 9-0 run and never looked back. UT Martin suffered a 90-45 loss at Cameron Indoor Stadium.

Ohio Valley Conference Freshman of the Year Heather Butler capped off her spectacular debut season with a team-best 15 points tonight, while junior Taylor Hall added 10 points off the bench for UT Martin (21-11). Jasmine Newsome also chipped in nine points for the Skyhawks, who were making their first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

"In the first half we didn't play as well as we can play and we were down 10," UT Martin head coach Kevin McMillan said. "I felt pretty good about that, but I was worried about the gas that was left in the tank. You hope that your adrenaline will kick in and that you can find ways to fight in the second half and make a shot or two. The thing about this game is that once the snowball got rolling it was gone. We didn't have much of an answer."

Jasmine Thomas' 18 points led the Blue Devils, who will advance to play Marist in the second-round on Monday. Chelsea Gray and Haley Peters also scored 11 points for Duke, who improved to 30-3 on the season.

Duke scored the first five points of the game before Beth Hawn converted a wide-open layup 50 seconds into the game to put the Skyhawks on the scoreboard. The Blue Devils then scored five unanswered before a Jaclissa Haislip three-pointer from the right wing made the score 10-5.

The Skyhawks trailed by nine before UT Martin scored four straight points off a Hall jumper and backdoor layup by Butler to slice its deficit to five points at the 13:27 mark.

The Blue Devils then went ahead by 11 points thanks to six straight points in the paint, but Newsome took over. The lightning-quick guard scored five straight points in 55 seconds for the Skyhawks to help UT Martin stay within 10 points.

A Hall trey from the right corner at the 4:18 mark made the score 32-22, but the Skyhawks went scoreless for the next 2:14 while Duke opened up a 15-point lead. Another Hall three-pointer ended the drought, igniting a 9-4 run to close out the half and send the Skyhawks into the locker room trailing 41-31.

Newsome's nine points paced UT Martin at the break, while Butler and Hall poured in eight points apiece. Thomas tallied a game-high 10 points for the Blue Devils in the first half.

Duke's big run to begin the second half ended when Hall sank a pair of free throws at the 16:55 mark. However, the Blue Devils scored seven of the next nine points before Butler drilled a three-pointer from the right wing with just under 15 minutes to play.

That would be the last field goal the Skyhawks would make for the next 4:52, as a long jumper by Butler at the 10:05 mark broke the scoreless streak. Duke responded by hitting back-to-back three-pointers to push its lead out to 71-41 at the under-eight minute media timeout.

UT Martin would endure another lengthy span without a field goal, as a layup by Perica Glenn at the five-minute mark ended a 12-0 Blue Devil run and made the score 77-43. Duke then scored the next 12 points of the game before Butler leaner with 22 seconds left ended the scoring on both sides.

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team sold out to its plan Saturday afternoon in the first round of the NCAA Tournament against Tennessee at Allstate Arena Saturday afternoon.

However the team made a few mistakes that the coaching staff recognized and Tennessee used its size and depth to eliminated UT Martin from the NCAA Tournament, 72-49. The setback ends UT Martin's 14-game winning streak and sends Tennessee into Monday night's second round against the winner of the BYU-DePaul game.

"What we had planned on doing, we did the whole game," UT Martin head coach Kevin McMillan said. "We sold out on our plan, and that was to control who shot the ball and where they shot from and for the most part we did a good job. I think we only made three or four mistakes that we were upset about as a staff."

The Skyhawks fell behind 5-0 with 17:59 to play in the game, but went on a 7-0 run thanks to sophomore Jaclissa Haislip's 3-pointer with 16:39 to play in the first half.

"I think the few times in the first half when I was getting points I was slipping by a screen and catching them off guard," Haislip said. "So, I think their defensive plan they had worked all night. We got the shots we wanted we just had to put them in the hole."

Tennessee answered the UT Martin run with an 8-0 run of its own and took a 13-7 lead when senior Glory Johnson made a layup. Tennessee never trailed again in the game. Johnson was held to four points in the first half, but had seven of her game-high 12 rebounds in the first half.

Tennessee led at the half 35-26. UT Martin shot 28 percent from the field in the first half and 25 percent from behind the arc. Despite the poor shooting effort Haislip scored 10 points in the first half.

Tennessee opened the second half with an 8-0 run and led 43-29 when Briana Bass knocked down a 3-pointer. Tennessee made 10 3-pointers, while UT Martin who entered the game averaging 10.4 3-pointers per game only made four three balls.

McMillan said his team will take several things away from the loss to Tennessee.

"We were much better today than we were a year ago at Duke," he said. "We were out rebounded 52-39 and that was an acceptable margin. Taking things away from this game, Tennessee played two mid-majors all year, and they won both of them by 35 points, and here we are, shooting as poorly as we shoot, and we played them to 23.

"Where we fell short is we have to score more points.

Heather Butler led UT Martin with 14 points, while Haislip finished the game with 12 points and Jasmine Newsome added 10 points.

Meighan Simmons led Tennessee with 20 points, while Johnson added 14 points.

The Skyhawks finished the season with a 23-9 won-loss record and for the second consecutive season only lose one senior, Taylor Hall, to graduation.

"We have marked the novelty off (going to the NCAA Tournament), now we have to figure out how to win a game," McMillan said.

Junior guard Heather Butler put on a show this afternoon in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, pouring in a season-best 37 points against No. 1 seed Notre Dame, but the Skyhawks fell 97-64 to the Fighting Irish in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

UT Martin (19-15) matched the No. 2 team in the nation shot-for-shot for the majority of the first half, led by the prolific scoring of Butler. The 5-5 sparkplug out of Medina scored 20 straight points for the Skyhawks at one point, tallying her 10th career game of 30 or more points. She ended her day with a 13-for-30 shooting performance, adding five free throws in eight attempts. She also drained six of her 11 three-point attempts, extending her NCAA records of consecutive games with a three-pointer (80) and in a season (34 games).

Butler's 37 points are the most points scored in the 2013 NCAA Tournament first round with the results from four games still pending. Butler passed Central Michigan's Crystal Bradford in that category, as Bradford scored 36 points against Oklahoma in first round action on March 23.

Butler's 37 points are also one point shy of the all-time record for an opponent against Notre Dame, nearly passing Latasha Byears' 38 point performance for DePaul against the Fighting Irish on Jan. 16, 1995. It is the most points any player has ever scored against Notre Dame in an NCAA Tournament game, passing Connecticut great Maya Moore's 36 point outing against the Fighting Irish on April 3, 2011 in the Final Four.

"I thought Butler had probably the best individual game anybody's had against us all year long," Notre Dame head coach Muffet McGraw said. "She was phenomenal. I think we slowed her down for four minutes, but she played extremely well. What a great performance by her."

"What that young lady does is absolutely amazing," UT Martin head coach Kevin McMillan said. "She had an opportunity to play against All-Americans and I would think 37 points is a pretty good day against a No. 1 seed."

Two-time Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year Jasmine Newsome also added 15 points and five assists for UT Martin, who closes out its season with a 19-15 overall record after making its third straight NCAA Tournament appearance.

Notre Dame (32-1) was led by 27 points from Jewell Loyd and a double-double (22 points, 10 rebounds) by Kayla McBride. Natalie Achonwa (16 points) and Skylar Diggins (10 points) also led the Fighting Irish, who won their school-record 27th straight game.

Notre Dame scored the first four points of the game until a layup off an offensive rebound by Rickiesha Bryant got the Skyhawks on the scoreboard at the 18:38 mark. The Fighting Irish extended their lead out to 14-4 with 15:23 to play in the first half but Butler answered right back with an old-fashioned three-point play to get UT Martin within seven.

After Notre Dame went ahead by 11, the Skyhawk offense started clicking on all cylinders. A pull-up jumper by Butler sparked a 7-0 UT Martin run over a span of 1:17 to pull the Skyhawks within four points (20-16) with 12:19 to play.

Butler stayed hot, scoring 15 consecutive points for the Skyhawks – including a backdoor layup and free throw for another old-fashioned three-point play – to keep UT Martin within striking distance at 28-24 with just under nine minutes to go before the halftime break.

Butler's 23 points led all scorers at the break, as she made eight of her 17 field goal attempts including a trio of three-pointers. Loyd's 17 points paced the Fighting Irish, who shot just 14.3 percent from beyond the three-point arc in the first 20 minutes.

The fourth time was nearly the charm for the University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team against nationally ranked No. 12/13 and No. 4 seed North Carolina on Saturday afternoon, but the Skyhawks final attempt fell just short as the game ended 60-58 in heart-breaking fashion.

The Skyhawks (24-8) led for the majority of the game, changing their game plan which ranked them third in the nation in scoring going into the contest to a patient half-court offense and defensive pressure. Holding the Tar Heels, a team which averaged 80.7 points per game going into the tournament, to just 60 points the Skyhawks liked their chances.

The Skyhawks shot 45.8 percent from the floor in the second half, but came up dry in the second half, shooting just 30 percent from the field. The lead changed hands four times while seeing five ties. The Tar Heels finished the game on a 28-8 run over the game's final 10 minutes of play.

UT Martin was led by the play of senior Heather Butler who tallied a game-high 19 points on the night, including three three-pointers which tied the NCAA record for career three-point field goals made with 392 which ties Kansas State's Laurie Koehn from 2002-05. Butler finished with 2,865 career points which moved her into a tie for 16th place on the NCAA's all-time scoring list and with 129 straight games with 10 points or more. Ashia Jones joined in the action on the afternoon with 18 points and eight rebounds, including 11 points in the second half. Jasmine Newsome and Katie Schubert tallied eight points each.

"I thought that we did exactly what we planned on doing in the ball game," said UT Martin coach Kevin McMillan. "We wanted the game to stay at 60, in the 60s, and not get out of the 60s. I thought we executed and did everything we wanted to do. We tried to defensively make them get a little frustrated and take some time off the clock and we wanted to try to get to the foul line and keep the rebounding fairly close. Most of those things we did, I though these kids…it was an extremely, extremely large challenge for us because that's not how we play. We press and we run and we shoot it quick and I think we're 3rd in the country in scoring. For these kids, especially these two seniors, to buy into changing that for this basketball game was actually unbelievable."

The Tar Heels (25-9) were led by freshman sensation Diamond DeShields who tossed in 15 points, 13 coming in the second half, before fouling out with 1:34 to play. DeShields was joined in double figures by Xylina McDaniel who tallied 14 points and nine rebounds.

North Carolina knocked down the first two shots of the game, jumping out to an early 4-0 lead. The Skyhawks would begin to get stops from there as Butler knocked down a 15 foot jump shot before hitting a three-pointer to give the Skyhawks the 5-4 advantage. Schubert would pull up on a dribble drive to cap off the 7-0 run for the Skyhawks. UT Martin would lead 7-5 going into the first media break at the 15:37 mark.

The Skyhawks would use a 13-3 run over the final 4:42 of the first half to take a 35-22 advantage into the halftime break. Butler led all scorers with 13 points while Schubert tallied eight and Jones tossed in seven points. The Tar Heels were led by McDaniel with nine points.

Jones opened the second half with dominating performances, scoring 11 points in the opening minutes of the second half. The Skyhawks put together a 8-3 run over the four minute span, taking a 48-32 leading into the 10:52 media break.

With the Skyhawks trailing by two, Newsome drove into the paint before hitting an open Karisma Tyson for a three-point opportunity, but the historic upset would not be in the cards as the shot missed wide as they final horn sounded.

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team battled in the first round of the Women's National Invitational Tournament but could not overcome Ole Miss on Wednesday night, falling 80-70.

The Skyhawks saw their season come to a close with a 22-11 overall record after punching their ticket to the program's fifth consecutive postseason appearance. Three players scored in double figures for the Skyhawks led by the play of sophomore Ashia Jones' 17 points. On top of leading the team in scoring, Jones broke the program's single-season scoring record with 772 points, surpassing the previous record of 770 set by Jasmine Newsome during the 2012-13 season.

Providing depth for the Skyhawks was the play of Chelsea Roberts who tallied 13 points while completing numerous hustle plays to get the squad back in the contest in the second half. Monique Jackson posted an impressive return to Ole Miss where she played her first three years of her career – scoring 10 points while tallying six rebounds.

Ole Miss advances to the second round of the Women's NIT behind the play of Kelsey Briggs with 19 points and six rebounds off the bench. Erika Sisk tallied 16 points while All-SEC first teamer Tia Faleru tossed in 12 points and five rebounds for the Rebels.

UT Martin would come out of the game on a quick 4-0 run seeing jumpers from Jones and Roberts to give the Skyhawks an early advantage. Following a pair of jumpers by the Rebels, Jessy Ward would knock down a three-pointer of her own to take a 7-4 advantage into the opening media timeout.

Ole Miss would respond with a 7-0 run of its own during a two minute span, giving the home squad its first lead of the game at 13-11 at the 12:07 mark. The Rebels would score nine points during a stretch of over four minutes, finding baskets from Faleru, A'Queen Hayes, Kiara Golden and Shequila Joseph.

The two teams would go back and forth over the ensuing five minute stretch, seeing both teams score seven points while taking a 20-20 stalemate into the 7:33 mark of the first. Jones would tally four of the Skyhawks seven points during the span while Roberts would knock down a three-pointer from the right wing to momentarily take a two point lead with just over eight minutes to play.

The Rebels would take over from there, stringing together an 11-0 run over four minutes, seeing their lead reach as high as nine points. The Skyhawks would finally snap the run with a three-pointer from Ward at the 4:54 mark.

After seeing the Skyhawks cut the lead as slim as five off a jumper by Jones to give the sophomore her 10th point of the contest, the Rebels would turn up the heat. A pair of three-pointers from Joseph and Briggs to close out the half on a 7-0 run. With the strong finish, Ole Miss would take a 39-27 lead into the halftime break.

It would look like the Skyhawks would come out of the locker room looking to make strides as Roberts knocked down a three-pointer in the opening minute but the tale would tell a different story. Ole Miss would respond with a 13-0 run over the ensuing three minutes of play while holding the Skyhawks scoreless for nearly four minutes. During the run it was Sisk and Briggs who would do all the damage – including eight points from Briggs – while stretching the squad's out to 23.

The Skyhawks would not go quietly however, stringing together an 11-0 run of their own during a two minute stretch while pushing an overall run of 15-2, trimming the margin to as close as 10 with just under 12 minutes to play. The bench depth of Haley Howard, Karisma Tyson and Monique Jackson would combine to score 10 of the team's points during the run.

The bench depth would continue to shine as Tyson knocked down another trifecta to cut the margin to single digits, sitting at 56-49 at the 11:12 mark. The Rebels would finally snap the Skyhawks significant run with a three-pointer from Gracie Frizzell on the left wing.

The Skyhawks would trim the margin to as close as five in the final minutes, but a jumper by Jones at the 2:28 mark would be the squads final points of the night before seeing their season end with an 80-70 deficit.

CHAMPIONS

2016 WNIT FIRST ROUND

March 17, 2016 • Elma Roane Fieldhouse
UT Martin 79, Memphis 73

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team notched its first postseason victory since 1999 with a 79-73 road victory at regional foe Memphis in the first round of the Women's National Invitational Tournament on Thursday night.

The Skyhawks (22-8) led for nearly 39 minutes of the contest despite seeing the lead change hands four times in the fourth quarter. Seeing the team's margin jump out to as high as 20 points early in the second quarter, the Skyhawks stayed the course while the margin slowly diminished behind a strong third quarter run by the Tigers.

With the victory the Skyhawks notched the team's second postseason win in the program's 24-year Division-I history, matching a WNIT first round victory over Ole Miss on March 11, 1999. It also snapped a five-game postseason losing streak while notching the team's 22nd victory of the season, ranking as the third most wins in program history.

For a senior class which includes four-year starter Katie Schubert, the game summarized her career in a nutshell: clutch. Entering the game, Schubert was looking to notch her first postseason victory, tie the program record for individual victories and needed 19 points to move into the program's top-20 scoring leaderboard. Schubert would be up to the task in all three respects, scoring 19 points – including five points in the final 36 seconds to seal the team's victory while tying the 2014 trio of Heather Butler, Jasmine Newsome and Megan White with 87 career wins.

Schubert led a balanced scoring attack which featured five players in double figures. Along with her game-high 19 points, Schubert tallied seven rebounds, four assists and a steal while playing all 40 minutes. Fellow senior Haley Howard tossed in 16 points while Memphis native Emanye Robertson scored 14 points – tying a career-high. Shy Copney provided 12 points off the bench while Ward scored seven points in the fourth quarter to finish with 10 on the night.

2016 WNIT SECOND ROUND

March 21, 2016 • Diddle Arena
Western Kentucky 64, UT Martin 57

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team saw its impressive season come to a close in the second round of the Women's National Invitational Tournament on Monday night with a 64-57 setback at the hands of Conference USA power Western Kentucky.

The Skyhawks finish the season with a 22-10 overall record, capping off a season which saw the program notch its eighth 20-win season, first postseason victory since 1999 and third consecutive Ohio Valley Conference league title.

The game saw a see-saw affair in the contest after both teams came out flat in the first quarter, combining for just 22 points in the period. The Skyhawks would use a strong run in the opening minutes of the second quarter, using a 16-0 run to not only take the lead but hold a margin as large as 12 points. The Lady Toppers would respond with a considerable run in the third quarter to retake control of the contests.

UT Martin saw its three seniors go out with strong performances, placing the team's three scholarship seniors in double figures. Haley Howard paced the Skyhawks with 15 points on the day while the duo of Katie Schubert and Chelsea Roberts joined in the action with 10 points each.

Western Kentucky (26-6) shot just 38.3 percent from the floor but forced the Skyhawks into 18 turnovers and tallied 13 offensive rebounds en route to winning the coveted battle of the boards. Sophomore Tashia Brown tallied 32 points on the night to pace all scorers. Reigning Conference USA Player of the Year Kendall Noble flirted with a triple-double, tallying 15 points, 12 assists and eight rebounds in the victory.

OHIO VALLEY CONFERENCE

Now in its 72nd year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

In May 2011 the Conference expanded for the second time in four years, adding Belmont University which began competition in the 2012-13 academic year. The addition of Belmont gave the OVC 12 members, the most the league has had at one time in its illustrious history. The move added a second team in the city of Nashville and was the first addition to the league since Southern Illinois University Edwardsville joined in 2008. Subsequently, the league has shown its stability over the past decade, seeing only one member institution depart over the past 18 years.

The 2009-10 school year saw a change in leadership as Beth DeBauche was named the seventh full-time Commissioner in league history on July 28, 2009. The last three commissioners of the OVC have moved onto jobs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud history dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles "Turkey" Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged February 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958 Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961 Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

After Title IX legislation passed in 1972, women's athletics began a rebirth on the national scene as the NCAA began sponsoring and marketing women's sports. Recognizing the need to provide increased opportunities for female athletes, the OVC began formulating plans for women's athletics in 1975 and established women's championships in the sports of basketball, tennis and track in 1977, with cross country and volleyball added over the next four years. Those sports were initially governed by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW), but the overall strength of women's programs in the league was demonstrated by the automatic bids the OVC instantly received when the NCAA became the governing body in 1982. The conference added women's golf and softball in 1994 and women's soccer in 1998.

Through the past 70 years, 15 teams have won or shared the league's football title. The list is led by Eastern Kentucky, winner of 21 outright or shared football crowns, which is tied for the most in Football Championship Subdivision history (with Massachusetts). Among OVC teams, former member Middle Tennessee is next with 11 titles, followed by Tennessee Tech with 10, and Murray State and former member Western Kentucky with eight apiece. Eastern Illinois and Jacksonville State have claimed seven football crowns apiece, while Morehead State, Tennessee State and former members Evansville and East Tennessee State have captured two apiece. Austin Peay, Southeast Missouri, UT Martin and former member Youngstown State have one title apiece.

Tennessee Tech has won or shared 18 regular-season women's basketball championships in addition to nine OVC Tournament crowns; both are tops in OVC history. UT Martin added its name to the list of championship by capturing its first OVC Tournament title in 2011 and also winning championships in 2012, 2013 and 2014. The Skyhawks became just the fourth team in OVC history (and first since Austin Peay from 2000-03) to win four-straight tournament titles. In 2016 Belmont won its first-ever OVC Tournament Championship, a feat it repeated in 2017 and 2018.

Several coaches have made their mark in the history of OVC women's basketball. Former Tennessee Tech coach Marynell Meadors posted an amazing 363-139 (72.3%) record at Tech, becoming the first woman in NCAA or AIAW history to win 300 games at the same institution, while former Tennessee State skipper Teresa Phillips earned National Coach of the Year honors from USA Today in 1990 for turning around the Lady Tigers' program before going on to lead TSU to the NCAA Tournament in 1994 and 1995. Tennessee Tech coach Bill Worrell capped a stellar 20-year career in 2005-06 and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2007; he compiled a 408-190 record while leading the Golden Eagles to an unprecedented 16 OVC regular-season titles and eight NCAA Tournament appearances, including five straight from 1989-93. Larry Joe Inman, who retired at the conclusion of the 2007-08 season and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2009, won more than 100 games at both Middle Tennessee and Eastern Kentucky, and earned OVC Coach of the Year honors a record eight times - five times at EKU and three at MTSU. In 2012-13 Inman came out of retirement to take the Tennessee State job; in 2014-15 he led the Lady Tigers to its first OVC Tournament Championship since 1995. Inman once again retired following the 2016-17 season, with 545 career victories.

Many great players have graced the hardwood over the years, including former OVC Players of the Year Brooke Armistead and Gerlonda Hardin from Austin Peay, Pam Chambers, Jerilynn Harper, Cheryl Taylor, Angela Moorehead, Roschelle Vaughn, Diane Seng, Janet Holt and Emily Christian from Tennessee Tech; Morehead State's Donna Murphy, Priscilla Blackford and Chynna Bozeman; Eastern Kentucky's Kim Mays; Southeast Missouri's Gray C. Harris; Murray State's Ashley Hayes; and UT Martin's Heather Butler and Jasmine Newsome.

Morehead State center Brittany Pittman set new school, league and NCAA standards for blocked shots in 2008-09. Pittman swatted 164 shots during the season, setting a new NCAA single-season record (which has since been broken).

In 2012-13 the UT Martin duo of Jasmine Newsome and Heather Butler finished fifth and sixth nationally among NCAA scoring leaders. Newsome, the 2012 and 2013 OVC Player of the Year, averaged 22.6 points per game on the way to All-American honors while Butler averaged 22.4 points per contest. Butler set a NCAA record during the season by connecting on a 3-pointer in her 80th-straight game.

In 2013-14 Butler and Newsome capped their brilliant careers by ranking first and second in scoring in OVC history. Butler, the 2013-14 OVC Female Athlete of the Year, finished her career with 2,865 points, which ranked first in OVC and 16th in NCAA history. She also finished her career with 392 career 3-pointers (which was tied for the most in NCAA history following her career but now ranks second) and scored in double figures in all 129 career games, which ranks fifth in NCAA history. Following the season Butler was signed by the WNBA's San Antonio Stars where she became the first OVC player to make an active WNBA roster. Newsome capped her career with 2,566 points, second only to Butler in OVC history.

The league also had another historical moment in November 2008 when the NCAA awarded Nashville the 2014 NCAA Women's Division I Final Four. The OVC served as the host of the prestigious event, which is one of the biggest sporting events the city of Nashville can host. The event was held April 6 & 8 at Bridgestone Arena in downtown Nashville and was played in front of sold-out crowds for both the semifinals and championship as UConn topped Notre Dame in a battle of undefeated teams to win its ninth national title.

In 2017-18, Belmont completed its second-straight undefeated league season, increasing its winning streak in Conference games (both regular season and tournament) to 46 games. The Bruins were ranked in both the USA Today Coaches Poll and Associated Press Poll during the year, becoming the first OVC team to be nationally-ranked since 1992-93. The Bruins finished the year ranked No. 23 in the AP poll.

The playing field is not the only place where OVC athletes are working hard. The league also recognizes excellence in the classroom. Six Scholar-Athlete Awards are presented yearly to male and female athletes, while others are commended for their academic success by being Medal of Honor recipients or earning a spot on the Commissioner's Honor Roll. Additionally, the league annually presents one institutional Academic Achievement Award, as well as separate team awards in each Conference-sponsored sport. Since the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-America program began, the Ohio Valley Conference has had 275 student-athletes honored with the award, including 81 over the last eight years (2010-18).

Through the early years of the league, administrators wrestled with fan behavior due to the close proximity of the Conference members and the intense rivalries which developed. Just as it did decades ago, the OVC took the leadership role on what has become a national issue. In 1995, the OVC implemented a first-of-its-kind "Sportsmanship Statement," a policy which promotes principles of fair play, ethical conduct and respect for one's opponent. The statement has become a model for others to follow across the nation and has answered the challenge of the NCAA Presidents Commission to improve sportsmanship in collegiate athletics.

Additionally, the OVC annually presents the Steve Hamilton Sportsmanship Award, in honor of the former Morehead State student-athlete, coach and athletics director, to a junior or senior student-athlete with significant athletic contributions who best exemplifies the characteristics of sportsmanship and citizenship. Most recently, the Conference has also implemented the OVC Institutional and Team Sportsmanship Awards, which are presented to one institution and 18 sport-specific teams voted by their peers to have best exhibited the standards of sportsmanship and ethical conduct as outlined by the OVC and NCAA.

The vision of leadership demonstrated by the Founding Fathers in 1948 remains alive today as the Ohio Valley Conference prepares for the future. One example is in regard to the current trend in collegiate athletics administration for increased involvement of university presidents in setting policies and making rules. The presidents of OVC institutions, however, have always governed the Conference, long before presidential governance became a national theme.

The Ohio Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

Now in its seventh decade of competition, the Ohio Valley Conference has grown significantly from its humble beginnings while increasing the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students. Current league representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Belmont University, Eastern Illinois University, Jacksonville State University, Southeast Missouri State University, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Technological University and the University of Tennessee at Martin.

OVCSPORTS.COM

The official Website of the Ohio Valley Conference is OVCSports.com. The website is a direct partnership with SIDEARM Sports. The Website contains all the latest news on the conference including releases, statistics and standings.

ONLINE PRESS BOX

The OVC Basketball Online Press Box is a one-stop shop for gathering information about the OVC and its member schools. Media can access it at www.OVCSports.com/basketballpressbox or via links on the Men's or Women's Basketball pages at OVCSports.com. There you will find important related files and links for every OVC school in one place.

ESPN+

ESPN+ is the exclusive home for live web streamed athletic contests involving OVC schools. ESPN+ is a multi-sport, direct-to-consumer subscription streaming service from The Walt Disney Company Direct-to-Consumer & International segment and ESPN. It offers fans thousands of additional live events, on-demand content and original programming not available on ESPN's linear TV or digital networks. ESPN+ is an integrated part of the completely redesigned ESPN App and also available through ESPN.com. Fans can subscribe to ESPN+ through the ESPN App for just $4.99 a month (or $49.99 per year).

OVC BASKETBALL SPOTLIGHT

From January through March the OVC produces a three-minute OVC Basketball Spotlight segment that highlights the happenings of basketball around the Conference. The segment airs locally in Nashville and in select OVC markets (any stations interested in carrying the free segment can contact Kyle Schwartz). The segement is also available weekly on the OVC Soundcloud page at www.Soundcloud.com/OVCsports.

OVC AND SOCIAL MEDIA

Media and fans can get the latest updates on Ohio Valley Conference happenings by using the social media outlets including Twitter, Facebook, Instagram and Snapchat. Followers and fans of the OVC on each application will get breaking news first and have the chance to access special content and receive special deals. The OVC can be found on Twitter at http://www.twitter.com/ovcsports, Facebook at http://www.facebook.com/ovcsports and on Instagram and Snapchat with the handle "ovcsports." The OVC also has a YouTube channel (http://www.YouTube.com/ohiovalleyconference) for the latest videos and a blog located at http://www.OVCExtra.com.

OVC TOURNAMENT CREDENTIALS

The 2020 OVC Tournament will be held March 4-7 at the Ford Center in Evansville, Indiana. The deadline to request credentials for the event is MONDAY, MARCH 2 AT 3 P.M. CT. Once again ALL credentialling will be conducted online through Sport Systems. Complete information on the process will be available in January at OVCSports.com. NO credentials will be mailed; instead they can be picked up in-person at the Ford Center Media Entrance.

OVC CHAMPIONSHIP/PARKING INFO

There is no on-site media parking available at the Ford Center. We encourage meida to use the lot behind the Old National Events Plaza (nicknamed "Back 40") that contains 1,100 parking spaces which are free during Ford Center events. That lot is two blocks Northeast of the Ford Center and bounded by SE 9th Street and Walnut Street. There are also several city-owned garages in close proximity to the arena.

Harmeyer was an All-OVC First Team pick last season. The Kenosha, Wis., native is the league's top returning rebounder after bringing down 8.9 boards per game to rank third in the OVC last year. She was fifth in the OVC with 16.5 points per game and ninth with a 47.3 field goal percentage. Harmeyer made 80 percent of her free throw attempts to rank ninth in the league.

2019-20 OVC WOMEN'S NOTES/PREVIEW

Let the Season Begin: The 2019-20 regular-season begins on Nov. 5 with Conference play starting on Jan. 2. Ten different teams have won a regular-season title with Tennessee Tech leading the way with 18.

OVC Games on TV: The Ohio Valley Conference will have one game on TV this year. The match-up between Austin Peay and Tennessee Tech on Jan. 9 will be on ESPNU. Additionally, every home game for each of the 12 OVC members will available on ESPN+. The entire OVC Women's Basketball Championship will be broadcast on ESPN3 or ESPN+.

OVC on ESPN+: For the second year, the Ohio Valley Conference will have a minimum of 600 conference events on ESPN+. ESPN+ is an integrated part of the completely redesigned ESPN App. Already the leading sports app, the new ESPN App is the premier all-in-one digital sports platform for fans across mobile and tv-connected devices. ESPN+ is also available through ESPN.com. Fans can subscribe to ESPN+ through the ESPN App for just $4.99 a month (or $49.99 per year).

2018-19 in Review: Belmont won its third straight OVC regular-season title and it's fourth straight league tournament crown. The Bruins earned the top seed in the OVC tourney and defeated No. 3 UT Martin, 59-53, in the championship game. Belmont, Morehead State and Tennessee Tech earned post season bids. The Bruins were the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament and the Eagles earned the league's sport in the WNIT. The Golden Eagles participated in the WBI. Belmont fell to South Carolina, 74-52, in the first round of the NCAA tourney. Morehead State won its first round game of the WNIT, knocking off Ohio State, 71-61. The Eagles fell just short of beating Western Kentucky in the second round of the WNIT losing 68-65 to the Lady Toppers. Tennessee Tech defeated Akron, 73-59 in the first round of the WBI before falling to Campbell, 70-62, in the second round. Tech's Kim Rosamond was named the 2018-19 OVC Coach of the Year after leading the Golden Eagles to its first 20-win season since 2010-11. Belmont's Darby Maggard earned OVC Player of the Year honors after setting a new career mark for three-pointers made with 430. UT Martin's Emanye Roberston was selected as the Defensive Player of the Year as she led the league with 2.6 steals per game. Murray State's Macey Turley earned Freshman Year honors after she recorded 12.9 points per outing last season.

OVC Championship Returns to Evansville: The Ohio Valley Conference Board of Presidents voted to accept a three-year deal to continue to hold the OVC Men's and Women's Basketball Championship at the Ford Center in Evansville through 2023. The agree also includes an option for a fourth year (2024). The event was held for the first time in Evansville in 2018, marking the first time the Championship was held outside of Nashville since 2002. The 2020 OVC Basketball Championship is March 4-7. The dates for future OVC Basketball Championships include: March 3-6, 2021, March 2-5, 2022 and March 1-4, 2023.

Regular-Season Champions: With Belmont winning last year's regular-season crown, 10 different teams have won a regular-season crown. Jacksonville State, Morehead State and SIUE are the only current members that have not won a regular-season title.

Coaching Experience: UT Martin's Kevin McMillan is the longest tenured coach in the OVC as he enters her 11th season at the helm of the Skyhawks. He currently ranks third in OVC history with 196 wins and first among active coaches. He has had six 20 win seasons at UT Martin and has made the conference tournament in each of his 10 years.

New Faces: Eastern Kentucky will be under that new direction for the first time in 12 years as Samantha Williams takes over the reigns of the Colonels. She comes to EKU after spending the last eight season as an assistant at Louisville where she helped lead the Cardinals to eight straight NCAA Tournament appearances and two Final Four trips. Williams also had stints as an assistant at Duke (2007-2011), DePaul (2004-2007) and Auburn (2003-04). She began her coaching career as an assistant at Butler during the 1998-99 season.

KURT McGUFFIN

DIRECTOR OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

Kurt McGuffin was officially named the 15th University of Tennessee at Martin's director of intercollegiate athletics on May 22, 2017.

McGuffin brings more than 18 years of experience in the collegiate athletics forum, including nearly six years as athletics director at Missouri Western State University, an NCAA Division II school located in St. Joseph, Mo. Before leading the Griffon athletics department in 2011, he also spent time as an assistant athletics director for development at the University of Colorado (2010-11), as a senior associate athletic director for external operations at Kansas State University (2000-10) and as an assistant director of athletics for development at the University of Idaho-Moscow (1999-2000).

In his time at Missouri Western, McGuffin achieved the highest student-athlete grade point average in the history of the school while also setting an all-time high for graduation rate and community service hours. He significantly increased revenue generation to annual and endowment giving by 30 percent and he launched a capital campaign that produced five of the top 10 gifts in university history, finishing off $13 million in building enhancements in the spring of 2016. In addition, he successfully added six additional sports to bring the total to 16 while collaborating to initiate a Master's program in Sport Business Management – which added 20 graduate assistants to his staff.

McGuffin oversaw six Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association championship squads in his tenure at Missouri Western. That includes the Griffon football program winning its first ever outright MIAA championship in 2012, a year where they also made the deepest postseason run in school history into the Division II quarterfinals. The Missouri Western baseball team claimed its first-ever MIAA title in 2013, the women's basketball team won the MIAA regular season in 2015-16 while the Griffon softball program racked up three conference championships (2014 tournament, 2016 regular season, 2016 tournament) in McGuffin's tenure. Just this past season, the Missouri Western baseball team qualified for the NCAA Tournament in back-to-back seasons (2016-17) for the first time in program history while the Griffon softball program made it to their fourth straight NCAA Regional. The women's golf program also saw freshman Chong Yong advance to the NCAA Championships, becoming the first individual in school history to accomplish that feat.

McGuffin also sustained previous successful programs and experienced growth in resources across the board at Missouri Western. He hired head coaches to lead the Griffon volleyball program to its highest win total since the mid-1990's and earning the most MIAA victories in program history in 2014. The Missouri Western tennis squad also took a new direction under McGuffin, resulting in its first winning season in more than a decade in 2014-15. The Griffon soccer program has also shattered over 20 school records while making its first ever postseason appearance in 2014 while the women's golf program advanced to its first ever NCAA Championship berth in 2016. As a direct result, McGuffin led the Missouri Western charge into the top-100 in the Learfield Cup standings, elevating the program from its 287 ranking when he took over.

Facility improvements were also paramount in McGuffin's success at Missouri Western. He raised nearly $8 million for a total renovation of Spratt Memorial Stadium while also helping construct a state-of-the-art women's soccer locker room and the Zack and Mary Workman Academic Success Center in 2014.

The upgrades to Spratt Memorial Stadium were instrumental in Missouri Western remaining as the summer home of the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs since 2010. McGuffin led the charge in 2014 as the Chiefs and Missouri Western announced an extension for St. Joseph as the sole training location through the 2017 season.

At Colorado, McGuffin created and implemented a new annual giving program which increased total giving by 15 percent. He added over 600 new members in the first year by establishing fundraising goals, implementing a new donor database, revamping the process of daily donations and planning special events. He also assisted with fundraising and development of a brand new $12 million sport court practice facility while taking part in a $1.5 billion university capital campaign.

In addition to his title as senior associate athletic director for external operations at Kansas State, McGuffin also served as the associate athletic director for development, the assistant athletic director for annual giving and the assistant director of athletic development in his decade in Manhattan. He completed over $25 million in facility enhancements while also leading a $90 million "Changing Lives Campaign." He also increased annual giving by 50 percent and endowments by over 70 percent.

McGuffin was the sport administrator for the Wildcat men's basketball, men's and women's golf and the men's and women's cross country/track and field programs. He led the development and implementation of a department-wide strategic plan while overseeing all external units (including development, ticketing, marketing and communication) responsible for a revenue of over $28 million and budgets of $12 million.

McGuffin led marketing campaigns that resulted in the largest football season-opening crowd in Kansas State history while also heading a sales group that sold out men's basketball games in three out of four seasons. In his tenure, the Wildcat women's basketball and volleyball programs were each in the top-10 nationally in attendance.

Before his first full-time role in athletics administration at Idaho-Moscow, McGuffin also was a graduate assistant for fundraising at Wichita State University, the director of men's basketball operations at Eastern Washington University and the head men's basketball student assistant at Kansas State.

McGuffin is a proud member of the National Association of College Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and the National Association of Development Directors (NADD). He has also spent time on the NCAA Men's Golf Ranking Committee and the NCAA Men's Basketball Committee.

An Iola, Kan. native, McGuffin graduated from Kansas State with a bachelor of science degree in education in 1996. He obtained his Master of Science degree in education from Wichita State in 1999. He is married to the former Jessica Whisler of Goodland, Kan. and the couple has three children – Bryce, Brett and Brea.
