PLAYER TO WATCH

#5 • SEYGAN ROBINS
 5-8 • HARRODSBURG, KY. • So.

Sophomore Seygan Robins provided a big spark for the Skyhawks in her return to the starting lineup for the first time since suffering a foot injury on Nov. 20 when she set a new career-high with 19 points while also dishing out four assists against Eastern Illinois on Thursday night.

Robins scored in double figures seven times last season as one of the team's primary guards.

- The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team will go head-to-head with its biggest Ohio Valley Conference rival on Saturday afternoon in the Curb Event Center when traveling to Music City to take on Belmont.
- This contest pits two of the league's most dominant teams over the past decade. Between UT Martin and Belmont, the two programs have combined to win outright or share 10 regular season titles since 2011-12 while winning nine of the last 11 tournament championships. The Skyhawks are the owners of six regular season crowns and four tournament championships while the Bruins have claimed four season titles and five tournament trophies during their respective runs.
- The Skyhawks (5-12, 2-4 OVC) are looking to move past a hard-fought matchup on Thursday night in a contest against Eastern Illinois which featured 16 lead changes and saw the score become tied 14 times before the Panthers snuck away with an 81-77 victory. UT Martin produced its highest scoring output of the season while shooting over 48 percent from the field and knocking down 13 three-pointers along with placing four players in double figures.
- While the result was not in the cards for the Skyhawks, the team did get some good news in their most recent contest with the return of some valuable contributors to the lineup. After missing 10 games with a foot injury which has sidelined her since late November, sophomore guard Seygan Robins returned to the starting lineup and scored a career-high 19 points while dishing out four assists against the Panthers. The team also welcomed wing Hayley Harrison back to the squad after missing four of the last five games along with several other valuable contributors to provided much needed depth. Reinforcements are encouraging as UT Martin has been bitten by the injury bug all season with various starters combining to miss 36 starts through the first 17 games.
- Belmont (10-7, 6-2 OVC) sits in a three-way tie atop the OVC standings while leading the league in several statistical categories during conference play including scoring offense (75.1 ppg), scoring defense (55.8 ppg), scoring margin (+19.5), field goal percentage defense (36.7 percent) and assist/turnover ratio (1.4). The Bruins feature three players who have scoring averages in double figures led by the play of Preseason Player of the Year Destinee Wells who averages 15.5 ppg, 3.9 rpg and 4.5 apg. She is joined atop the scoring leaderboard by Madison Bartley (11.7 ppg, 4.4 ppg) and Tuti Jones (11.6 ppg, 2.8 spg).
- Saturday's game marks the 40th meeting between the two programs with Belmont holding a 25-14 advantage in the series. The Skyhawks are 4-9 against the Bruins all-time on the road with their last win coming in the Curb Event Center on Jan. 3, 2015.

It marked the first 30-point performance of her career and first for a Skyhawk this season.

The Skyhawks currently rank first in the OVC in scoring defense, allowing an average of 57.6 points per game.

STARTING OVC PLAY STRONG

With the win the Skyhawks improved to 9-4 in league openers under Kevin McMillan since the 2009-10 season.

LOOKING FORWARD TO THE NEW YEAR

• No team in the country is looking more forward to the calendar flipping over to the new year more than UT Martin. The Skyhawks hit a rough patch in the month of December by going 1-4 in the month. Historically the Skyhawks have done well once the new year hits posting a 172-57 record under the direction of head coach Kevin McMillan since 2010. SKYHAWKS MATCH UP AGAINST THE BEST

• UT Martin has never shyed away from playing some of the best teams in the country under head coach Kevin McMillan. Since taking over in 2009-10, McMillan and the Skyhawks have played 26 nationally ranked opponents. This season the Skyhawks are primed to matchup against two teams currently in the top-25 in No. 6 Louisville and No. 24 Virginia Tech.

• Additionally, Skyhawks will face seven teams which earned postseason berths last season including Belmont, Louisville, N.C. A&T and Virginia Tech which played in the NCAA Tournament while Bowling Green, Illinois State and Saint Louis appeared in the WNIT.

SKYHAWK ELIGIBILITY

• Due to the COVID pandemic, the NCAA did not count the 2020-21 season against a student-athlete's eligibility regardless how many games they played in. UT Martin decided to keep players at their previous athletic eligibility status rather than progress them into the future.

The eighth head coach in UT Martin women's basketball history, Kevin McMillan is in his 13th year at the helm of the Skyhawk program as the school's all-time wins leader with 240 career victories.

Overall, the Skyhawks have won 10 Ohio Valley Conference titles during his 12 seasons at UT Martin - including six regular season titles and four tournament crowns. The Skyhawks reached the postseason in six consecutive seasons and nine seasons overall while reaching the NCAA Tournament in 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014 while earning a bid to the Women's NIT in 2015, 2016, 2018, 2020 (canceled) and 2021. Additionally, the program has recorded eight 20-win seasons in the past 10 years with the Skyhawks posting a 240-142 record under McMillan, including a 160-45 mark in conference play. His 240 victories rank as the third-highest win total in OVC history, as he accounts for four OVC Coach of the Year awards.

Off the court, McMillan's teams have exceeded the average NCAA Academic Progress Rate in each of his 12 seasons. He has produced two OVC Scholar-Athletes (the highest individual honor in the league) and has graduated 100 percent of his student-athletes who have completed their eligibility in his Skyhawk tenure.

Despite the 2020-21 season facing numerous challenges related to COVID-19 the Skyhawks posted yet another banner year. UT Martin notched its 11th 20-win season in program history after going 22-6 overall while posting a 17-2 mark in league play for the team's seventh regular season championship. In addition to the team's championship run, the squad earned a berth to the WNIT where they posted a pair of wins over Louisiana and Illinois State to become the first team in OVC history to record multiple victories in the same postseason.

Highlighting the season individually was the play of All-OVC forwards Chelsey Perry and Dasia Young who both earned first team honors. Perry was named the OVC Player of the Year for the second straight season after leading the league in multiple statistical categories including scoring (22.9 ppg), field goal percentage (50.2 percent) and field goals made (164). Following the season, Perry made waves by becoming the highest selection in OVC history by being selected 26th overall in the WNBA Draft by the Indiana Fever.

The Skyhawks posted their sixth league title in program history in 2019-20 after posting a 22-10 overall record while going 16-2 in league action. UT Martin would receive a berth into the Women's NIT after falling in the OVC Basketball Championship finals but the postseason event would be canceled because of COVID-19. In a season in which injuries plagued the roster, the Skyhawks continually rose to the occasions with its 10th 20-win season in program history while featuring a pair of All-OVC first-team performers in Perry and Maddie Waldrop.

Perry dominated postseason honors by being named WBCA Coaches' All-American honorable mention, a finalist for the Becky Hammon Mid-Major Player of the Year and OVC Player of the Year selection after ranking first nationally in field goal made (286), second in total points (740) and third in both points per game (23.1) and field goal attempts (386). Meanwhile, Waldrop earned her first All-OVC honor after ranking amongst OVC leaders in defensive rebounds (5.9, fourth), field goal percentage (48.6, fifth), rebounding (7.8 rpg, seventh) and scoring (12.7 ppg, eighth).

Despite having one of the youngest teams in the country on a program which featured just one senior on the roster, the Skyhawks still managed to meet program expectations throughout the 2018-19 season. The Skyhawks would post a 23-9 overall mark while finishing tied for second in the league standings with a record of 13-5. The team's 23 wins tied for the most wins in program history while appearing in the OVC Basketball Championship title contest for the seventh time in the last nine seasons. Highlighting the season was the emergence of senior Emanye Robertson who put the finishing touches on her career with an All-OVC first team and OVC Defense Player of the Year selection. Meanwhile, sophomore Chelsey Perry earned All-OVC second team honors while freshman Brittini Moore was selected to the OVC All-Newcomer squad.

McMillan saw the Skyhawks return to the postseason for the seventh time in his tenure in 2017-18 with another appearance in the Women's NIT. The Skyhawks would ultimately post a 19-15 overall mark while notching a 13-5 mark in league play to earn the No. 2 seed in the OVC Basketball Championship – where the squad advanced to the tournament finals before falling to No. 22 ranked Belmont in overtime. With the league's automatic bid to the Women's NIT, the Skyhawks would travel to Indiana where they fell to the eventual tournament champions.

Faced with one of the youngest rosters in the nation – boasting just four returners and an abundance of key injuries – the Skyhawks' 2016-17 campaign was a year of highs and lows. UT Martin would post a 12-19 overall record while finishing 8-8 in league play – earning the No. 4 seed in the OVC Basketball Championship before ultimately falling in the tournament semifinals. While the season failed to meet expectations, the squad found growth as three Skyhawks earned All-OVC honors. Spray highlighted the season by becoming just the program's third OVC Freshman of the Year while joining Feldhaus and Mason on the All-OVC second team.

The Skyhawks found success once again during the 2015-16 season, notching the program's eighth 20-win season after finishing with a 22-10 overall record and a 14-2 league mark despite playing with just seven healthy scholarship players for much of the year. The Skyhawks notched their third consecutive regular season title, ranking as the third program in conference history and first since 1993. After winning the season championship, the Skyhawks clinched their sixth straight postseason berth, earning a berth in the Women's NIT where they advanced to the second round before falling to Western Kentucky after defeating Memphis – notching the program's first postseason victory since 1999. With the squad's success, McMillan notched his second straight OVC Coach of the Year award – marking just the second time in league history that a coach has won the award in back-to-back seasons.

The 2014-15 season kept with the theme of several program firsts within McMillan's tenure while the squad's 22-11 overall record marked the program's seventh 20-win season. UT Martin notched yet another piece of OVC history after becoming just the sixth team in league history to finish the conference season with an unblemished record and just the second to finish 16-0. With the perfect conference record, the Skyhawks clinched their third OVC season title in the last four years while posting a league record of 46-2 during the stretch. The season also served as the fifth consecutive postseason appearance for the Skyhawks after earning an invitation to the Women's National Invitational Tournament against Ole Miss.

McMillan's 2013-14 squad recorded its sixth OVC championship during a four-year period with both a regular season and tournament championship. The McMillan led Skyhawks set new program records in victories with 24, while setting a new single season scoring record with 2,681 points en route to receiving the program's first votes in the USA TODAY Sports Top 25 Coaches' Poll and a near upset in the NCAA Tournament against No. 7 North Carolina.

The Skyhawks were led by the play of two premier senior guards in Heather Butler and Jasmine Newsome. Butler finished her career as UT Martin and the OVC's all-time leading scorer with 2,865 career points after being named the league's Player of the Year. Butler finished tied for 16th on the NCAA's all-time scoring list while scoring in double figures every game of her career, spanning 129 games and ranking fifth all-time. She also left the Skyhawks as the best three-point shooter in NCAA history after tying the career three-pointers record with 392.

Joining Butler with postseason accolades was the highly decorated Newsome. Newsome notched her third OVC Defensive Player of the Year honor while finishing her Skyhawk career as the school and league's second all-time leading scorer – second to Butler – with 2,566 career points. The two-time OVC Player of the Year was also named All-Mid Major Player of the Year and Mid Major All-American by College Sports Madness.

In his fourth year, the Skyhawks notched their third consecutive OVC Tournament championship during the 2012-13 season, downing No. 2 seed Tennessee Tech 87-80 in overtime on March 9, 2013. With the victory, UT Martin would advance to their third straight trip to the NCAA Tournament, to take on the Notre Dame Fighting Irish. The Skyhawks suffered a 97-64 setback to the eventual National Championship runner-up despite Butler scoring a tournament-best 37 points in the contest.

In 2011-12, McMillan's Skyhawks captured their second OVC Tournament championship in program history, downing No. 3 seed Tennessee Tech 82-65 on March 5. With the victory, UT Martin advanced to make its second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, traveling to the Horizon Center in Rosemont, Ill., to take on the Tennessee Lady Vols. The Skyhawks suffered a 72-49 setback to the hands of alumnus Pat Head Summitt.

Consisting of a roster of mostly West Tennessee players, the Skyhawks went 23-9 with a 15-1 OVC mark despite having a relatively young roster which featured just one senior. The 23-win season was the second consecutive 20-win slate for the Skyhawks while also leading the nation in scoring with 80.1 points per game. The Skyhawks were also the nation's top team in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.43) and sixth in assists (17.7 apg).

The 2010-11 season laid the foundation for the future, as three different Skyhawks combined to win an OVC Record 13 Freshmen of the Week honors along with the OVC Team Sportsmanship Award. McMillan's guided the team to a second place finish during the regular season before winning the program's first OVC Tournament title. With the title, the Skyhawks earned its first berth in the NCAA Tournament and played at Cameron Indoor Arena against the Duke Blue Devils.

The Skyhawks went 21-11 with a 14-4 OVC mark in 2010-11 despite having a roster that was the youngest team in America (only two years of Division-I experience heading into the season). The 20-win season was the first since 1998-99 and fourth 20-win campaign in program history.

McMillan's first season at UT Martin was a transformation in every sense of the work as he took over a program that had just finished 2-27 and went winless in conference play. Under his direction the Skyhawks finished the 2010-11 season with an overall record 11-19 while making the program's first OVC Tournament appearance since 2006-07. McMillan took his team all the way to the semifinals of the tournament along with being named OVC Coach of the Year and TSWA Women's Co-Head Coach of the Year.

Prior to being named head coach of the Skyhawks on June 15, 2009, McMillan posted a decorated career as a high school coach within the state of Tennessee. Through his 17 years in the prep ranks, the accumulated a record of 435-126 while winning one state championships and sporting six state tournament appearances. He has had coaching stints at Gibson County High School in Dyer (2007-09), Westview High School in Martin (1997-2005) and Millington High School in Millington (1990-97). McMillan was twice named the Jackson Sun's West Tennessee Coach of the Year in 2003 and 2009, while being tabbed district Coach of the Year 10 times. He also spent two season as an assistant coach at Middle Tennessee State.

McMillan played basketball at Wake Forest for one season (1985) before transferring to Rhodes College to finish out his career from 1986-89. At Rhodes, he was a three-time all-conference selection and in 1988 was named the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference Player of the Year. In only three seasons, he scored 1,372 career points and still ranks ninth all-time at Rhodes for career points scored.

McMillan received his bachelor's degree in math and business in 1989 from Rhodes, then completed his master's in health and human performance at Middle Tennessee in 2007. He has two sons, Matt and Ben, along with one daughter, Alli.
