INTERVIEW POLICIES
Media interviews with players and coaches are encouraged, and every effort will be made to accommodate media requests. In light of the COVID-19 pandemic, phone or virtual interviews are preferred for the 2021-22 season while in-person interviews will be allowed on a case-by-case basis. Reach out through the sports information office to set up an interview with head coach Kevin McMillan and Skyhawk student-athletes.

POSTGAME AVAILABILITIES
Skyhawk head coach Kevin McMillan and select players will be made available upon request for a postgame interview at the conclusion of each game. Full stat packages will be available on UTMSpors.com following the game. Because of social distancing guidelines due to the COVID-19 pandemic, limited space is available following postgame interviews for filing stories.

CREDENTIALS
Media credentials are required for all Skyhawk home games and can be obtained through the sports information office. Please notify assistant sports information director Alex Boggis at least 24 hours in advance of home games and at least 72 hours in advance of road games. Passes may be picked up in advance at the Sports Information Office or on game day at the will call window at the Kathleen and Tom Elam Center. A designated media parking lot is located outside of the south entrance of the Elam Center. There is no charge for parking but a pass must be obtained through the sports information office.

PRESS ROW
Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Kathleen and Tom Elam Center press row will be available to members of the media on a case-by-case basis during the 2021-22 season. Live stats, offered by StatBroadcast.com, can be found at www.UTMSports.com. Further 2021-22 guidelines and recommendations for media protocols will be announced before the season starts.

ON THE WEB

SKYHAWKS IN PRINT
The name of our institution is The University of Tennessee at Martin and if abbreviated, should be referred to as UT Martin. The University of Tennessee at Martin should be used as the first reference in a news story. UT Martin should be used in subsequent references and UTM is acceptable in headlines. Tennessee-Martin, UT-Martin, UT or Martin should never be used. The description Skyhawks should be used to represent all UT Martin athletic teams. Lady-Skyhawks or Hawks should never be used.

ABOUT MARTIN

DIRECTIONS TO MARTIN

> From Paducah, Ky., take 45 South to Mayfield. At Mayfield, turn right on Purchase Parkway (Fulton, Ky. Exit 21). At Fulton, follow Hwy. 45E South By-pass to Martin.

> From Memphis, travel Interstate 40 east to Jackson, and exit the interstate at Highway 45 By-pass (Exit 80-B North). Follow Highway 45E (Milan exit) to Martin.

> From Nashville, travel Interstate 40 west. Exit the interstate at Highway 22 at Parkers Crossroads (Exit 108 North). Follow Highway 22 to Martin.

> From Clarksville, travel Highway 79 South on to Highway 356 (you do not turn), which connects to Highway 54 in Paris. Take a right on Highway 22 from Dresden to Martin.

Martin is perfectly located where you and your friends can take a break from studies and road trip to nearby Reelfoot Lake, Kentucky Lake or Land Between the Lakes recreational areas. Union City, only 12 miles west of Martin, offers additional shopping and restaurant choices.

Martin is centrally located between Memphis and Nashville and is just an hour's drive from Jackson and Paducah, Ky.

The city was founded in 1873 and named in honor of Captain William Martin, a prosperous landowner who settled in the area in 1838.

The City of Martin has been a pioneer in the establishment of higher education since 1900 when Hall-Moody Institute was founded. The school was renamed Hall-Moody Normal School in 1917, Hall-Moody Junior College in 1922 and University of Tennessee Junior College in 1927. In 1951, UT Junior College acquired four-year degree status and was designated the University of Tennessee Martin Branch, granting degrees in general agriculture and general home economics. In 1967, the Tennessee General Assembly named the institution the University of Tennessee at Martin.

Today, Martin features a revitalized historic downtown business district that includes a coffee shop, restaurants, shopping and nightlife. This traditional college-town setting and related amenities offer a perfect environment for students who attend the University of Tennessee at Martin.

GAMEDAY IN THE ELAM CENTER

IS THE PLACE TO BE!

Fans of the Ohio Valley Conference have come to know the Elam Center as one of the toughest places to play in the league.

While the fast-paced action on the court is the reason that fans fill the Elam Center each game, it's far from the only attraction.

Fans can take advantage of a number of activities before the action starts, such as "Courtside Dining" or waiting for an autograph from their favorite Skyhawk after the game.

ELAM CENTER
SKYHAWK ARENA

Skyhawk Arena has been the full time home of the UT Martin women's basketball team since the 1995-96 season.

The playing surface in Skyhawk Arena is named for The Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame honoree and UT Martin alum Pat Head Summitt, who played her collegiate basketball at UT Martin from 1970-74 before becoming the winningest basketball coach in the NCAA with the Tennessee Lady Vols.

STRENGTH AND

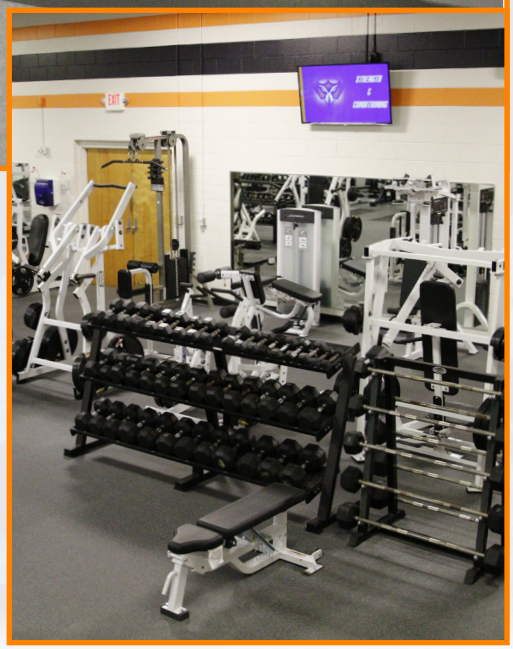

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the UTM Skyhawk Strength and Conditioning program is to maximize the potential of the Student-Athletes by teaching work ethic, team values, discipline, and leadership.

The number one goal is to create a safe environment for the Student-Athletes to excel at their sport though scientifically based strength and conditioning programs.

The Training programs are designed to increase the Athlete's strength, speed, agility, flexibility, conditioning, and explosiveness – all components in developing a complete collegiate athlete.

Olympic sport student-athletes train in the recently updated Fieldhouse weight room and adjacent multi-purpose room known as "the blue room" The 3,500 square foot weight room's renovation is highlighted by the Ecore Beast flooring that includes five inlay platforms highlighting UTM. In addition, updates included new Hammer Strength equipment, Eleiko barbells and a nutrition area to help support each Skyhawk athlete's development. Continued upgrades are ongoing to provide UT Martin student-athletes the best possible environment to compete for championships and develop positive habits to live a healthy active lifestyle.

Kurt McGuffin was officially named the 15th University of Tennessee at Martin's director of intercollegiate athletics on May 22, 2017.

McGuffin brings more than 18 years of experience in the collegiate athletics forum, including nearly six years as athletics director at Missouri Western State University, an NCAA Division II school located in St. Joseph, Mo. Before leading the Griffon athletics department in 2011, he also spent time as an assistant athletics director for development at the University of Colorado (2010-11), as a senior associate athletic director for external operations at Kansas State University (2000-10) and as an assistant director of athletics for development at the University of Idaho-Moscow (1999-2000).

In his time at Missouri Western, McGuffin achieved the highest student-athlete grade point average in the history of the school while also setting an all-time high for graduation rate and community service hours. He significantly increased revenue generation to annual and endowment giving by 30 percent and he launched a capital campaign that produced five of the top 10 gifts in university history, finishing off $13 million in building enhancements in the spring of 2016. In addition, he successfully added six additional sports to bring the total to 16 while collaborating to initiate a Master's program in Sport Business Management – which added 20 graduate assistants to his staff.

McGuffin oversaw six Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association championship squads in his tenure at Missouri Western. That includes the Griffon football program winning its first ever outright MIAA championship in 2012, a year where they also made the deepest postseason run in school history into the Division II quarterfinals. The Missouri Western baseball team claimed its first-ever MIAA title in 2013, the women's basketball team won the MIAA regular season in 2015-16 while the Griffon softball program racked up three conference championships (2014 tournament, 2016 regular season, 2016 tournament) in McGuffin's tenure. Just this past season, the Missouri Western baseball team qualified for the NCAA Tournament in back-to-back seasons (2016-17) for the first time in program history while the Griffon softball program made it to their fourth straight NCAA Regional. The women's golf program also saw freshman Chong Yong advance to the NCAA Championships, becoming the first individual in school history to accomplish that feat.

McGuffin also sustained previous successful programs and experienced growth in resources across the board at Missouri Western. He hired head coaches to lead the Griffon volleyball program to its highest win total since the mid-1990's and earning the most MIAA victories in program history in 2014. The Missouri Western tennis squad also took a new direction under McGuffin, resulting in its first winning season in more than a decade in 2014-15. The Griffon soccer program has also shattered over 20 school records while making its first ever postseason appearance in 2014 while the women's golf program advanced to its first ever NCAA Championship berth in 2016. As a direct result, McGuffin led the Missouri Western charge into the top-100 in the Learfield Cup standings, elevating the program from its 287 ranking when he took over.

Facility improvements were also paramount in McGuffin's success at Missouri Western. He raised nearly $8 million for a total renovation of Spratt Memorial Stadium while also helping construct a state-of-the-art women's soccer locker room and the Zack and Mary Workman Academic Success Center in 2014.

The upgrades to Spratt Memorial Stadium were instrumental in Missouri Western remaining as the summer home of the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs since 2010. McGuffin led the charge in 2014 as the Chiefs and Missouri Western announced an extension for St. Joseph as the sole training location through the 2017 season.

At Colorado, McGuffin created and implemented a new annual giving program which increased total giving by 15 percent. He added over 600 new members in the first year by establishing fundraising goals, implementing a new donor database, revamping the process of daily donations and planning special events. He also assisted with fundraising and development of a brand new $12 million sport court practice facility while taking part in a $1.5 billion university capital campaign.

In addition to his title as senior associate athletic director for external operations at Kansas State, McGuffin also served as the associate athletic director for development, the assistant athletic director for annual giving and the assistant director of athletic development in his decade in Manhattan. He completed over $25 million in facility enhancements while also leading a $90 million "Changing Lives Campaign." He also increased annual giving by 50 percent and endowments by over 70 percent.

McGuffin was the sport administrator for the Wildcat men's basketball, men's and women's golf and the men's and women's cross country/track and field programs. He led the development and implementation of a department-wide strategic plan while overseeing all external units (including development, ticketing, marketing and communication) responsible for a revenue of over $28 million and budgets of $12 million.

McGuffin led marketing campaigns that resulted in the largest football season-opening crowd in Kansas State history while also heading a sales group that sold out men's basketball games in three out of four seasons. In his tenure, the Wildcat women's basketball and volleyball programs were each in the top-10 nationally in attendance.

Before his first full-time role in athletics administration at Idaho-Moscow, McGuffin also was a graduate assistant for fundraising at Wichita State University, the director of men's basketball operations at Eastern Washington University and the head men's basketball student assistant at Kansas State.

McGuffin is a proud member of the National Association of College Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and the National Association of Development Directors (NADD). He has also spent time on the NCAA Men's Golf Ranking Committee and the NCAA Men's Basketball Committee.

An Iola, Kan. native, McGuffin graduated from Kansas State with a bachelor of science degree in education in 1996. He obtained his Master of Science degree in education from Wichita State in 1999. He is married to the former Jessica Whisler of Goodland, Kan. and the couple has three children – Bryce, Brett and Brea.

OHIO VALLEY CONFERENCE

Now in its 74th year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

Beth DeBauche was named the seventh full-time Commissioner in league history on July 28, 2009. The last three commissioners of the OVC have moved onto jobs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud history dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles "Turkey" Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged February 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958 Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961 Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

After Title IX legislation passed in 1972, women's athletics began a rebirth on the national scene as the NCAA began sponsoring and marketing women's sports. Recognizing the need to provide increased opportunities for female athletes, the OVC began formulating plans for women's athletics in 1975 and established women's championships in the sports of basketball, tennis and track in 1977, with cross country and volleyball added over the next four years. Those sports were initially governed by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW), but the overall strength of women's programs in the league was demonstrated by the automatic bids the OVC instantly received when the NCAA became the governing body in 1982. The conference added women's golf and softball in 1994 and women's soccer in 1998.

Tennessee Tech has won or shared 18 regular-season women's basketball championships in addition to nine OVC Tournament crowns; both are tops in OVC history. UT Martin added its name to the list of championship by capturing its first OVC Tournament title in 2011 and also winning championships in 2012, 2013 and 2014. The Skyhawks became just the fourth team in OVC history (and first since Austin Peay from 2000-03) to win four-straight tournament titles, while Belmont joined that club after winning its fourth-straight title in 2019 (2016-19).

Several coaches have made their mark in the history of OVC women's basketball. Former Tennessee Tech coach Marynell Meadors posted an amazing 363-139 (72.3%) record at Tech, becoming the first woman in NCAA or AIAW history to win 300 games at the same institution, while former Tennessee State skipper Teresa Phillips earned National Coach of the Year honors from USA Today in 1990 for turning around the Lady Tigers' program before going on to lead TSU to the NCAA Tournament in 1994 and 1995. Phillips was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2021 after completing a career in administration that saw her serve as TSU's Director of Athletics from 2002 through 2019. Tennessee Tech coach Bill Worrell capped a stellar 20-year career in 2005-06 and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2007; he compiled a 408-190 record while leading the Golden Eagles to an unprecedented 16 OVC regular-season titles and eight NCAA Tournament appearances, including five straight from 1989-93. Larry Joe Inman, who retired at the conclusion of the 2007-08 season and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2009, won more than 100 games at both Middle Tennessee and Eastern Kentucky, and earned OVC Coach of the Year honors a record eight times - five times at EKU and three at MTSU. In 2012-13 Inman came out of retirement to take the Tennessee State job; in 2014-15 he led the Lady Tigers to its first OVC Tournament Championship since 1995. Inman once again retired following the 2016-17 season, with 545 career victories.

Many great players have graced the hardwood over the years, including former OVC Players of the Year Brooke Armistead and Gerlonda Hardin from Austin Peay, Pam Chambers, Jerilynn Harper, Cheryl Taylor, Angela Moorehead, Roschelle Vaughn, Diane Seng, Janet Holt and Emily Christian from Tennessee Tech; Morehead State's Donna Murphy, Priscilla Blackford and Chynna Bozeman; Eastern Kentucky's Kim Mays; Southeast Missouri's Gray C. Harris; Murray State's Ashley Hayes; UT Martin's Heather Butler, Jasmine Newsome and Chelsey Perry; and Belmont's Darby Maggard.

Morehead State center Brittany Pittman set new school, league and NCAA standards for blocked shots in 2008-09. Pittman swatted 164 shots during the season, setting a new NCAA single-season record (which has since been broken).

In 2012-13 the UT Martin duo of Jasmine Newsome and Heather Butler finished fifth and sixth nationally among NCAA scoring leaders. Newsome, the 2012 and 2013 OVC Player of the Year, averaged 22.6 points per game on the way to All-American honors while Butler averaged 22.4 points per contest. Butler set a NCAA record during the season by connecting on a 3-pointer in her 80th-straight game.

In 2013-14 Butler and Newsome capped their brilliant careers by ranking first and second in scoring in OVC history. Butler, the 2013-14 OVC Female Athlete of the Year, finished her career with 2,865 points, which ranked first in OVC and 16th in NCAA history. She also finished her career with 392 career 3-pointers (which was tied for the most in NCAA history following her career but now ranks second) and scored in double figures in all 129 career games, which ranks fifth in NCAA history. Following the season Butler was signed by the WNBA's San Antonio Stars where she became the first OVC player to make an active WNBA roster. Newsome capped her career with 2,566 points, second only to Butler in OVC history.

The league also had another historical moment in November 2008 when the NCAA awarded Nashville the 2014 NCAA Women's Division I Final Four. The OVC served as the host of the prestigious event, which is one of the biggest sporting events the city of Nashville can host. The event was held April 6 and 8 at Bridgestone Arena in downtown Nashville and was played in front of sold-out crowds for both the semifinals and championship as UConn topped Notre Dame in a battle of undefeated teams to win its ninth national title.

In 2017-18, Belmont completed its second-straight undefeated league season, increasing its winning streak in Conference games (both regular season and tournament) to 46 games. The Bruins were ranked in both the USA Today Coaches Poll and Associated Press Poll during the year, becoming the first OVC team to be nationally-ranked since 1992-93. The Bruins finished the year ranked No. 23 in the AP poll.

Belmont guard Darby Maggard capped her career in 2018-19 by earning her fourth-straight first-team All-OVC honor in addition to earning her fourth-straight OVC All-Tournament honors. She became the first player in NCAA history to make at least 400 3-pointers and dish out at least 650 assists in a career while her 92.4 percent career free throw percentage ranks first in NCAA history, her 2.77 assist-to-turnover ratio is third and her 430 made 3-pointers is fourth. She was one of just 19 players in OVC history to reach 2,000 career points (2,031) and she finished her career third in OVC history for assists (683). After the season Maggard finished as the national runner-up at the College 3-Point Championship.

In 2020-21, Belmont would became the first OVC women's basketball team to win a NCAA Tournament game since 1990 (Tennessee Tech), topping Gonzaga 64-59 in the first round in San Marcos, Texas.

UT Martin's Chelsey Perry, a two-time OVC Player of the Year, was selected 26th overall by the Indiana Fever in the third round of the 2021 WNBA Draft. It marked the highest-ever selection for an OVC player and the first UTM player selected in the Draft. Perry would end up making the Fever's roster and appear in regular season games.

The playing field is not the only place where OVC athletes are working hard. The league also recognizes excellence in the classroom. Six Scholar-Athlete Awards are presented yearly to male and female athletes, while others are commended for their academic success by being Medal of Honor recipients or earning a spot on the Commissioner's Honor Roll. Additionally, the league annually presents one institutional Academic Achievement Award, as well as separate team awards in each Conference-sponsored sport. Since the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-America program began, the Ohio Valley Conference has had 299 student-athletes honored with the award.

Through the early years of the league, administrators wrestled with fan behavior due to the close proximity of the Conference members and the intense rivalries which developed. Just as it did decades ago, the OVC took the leadership role on what has become a national issue. In 1995, the OVC implemented a first-of-its-kind "Sportsmanship Statement," a policy which promotes principles of fair play, ethical conduct and respect for one's opponent. The statement has become a model for others to follow across the nation and has answered the challenge of the NCAA Presidents Commission to improve sportsmanship in collegiate athletics.

Additionally, the OVC annually presents the Steve Hamilton Sportsmanship Award, in honor of the former Morehead State student-athlete, coach and athletics director, to a junior or senior student-athlete with significant athletic contributions who best exemplifies the characteristics of sportsmanship and citizenship. Most recently, the Conference has also implemented the OVC Institutional and Team Sportsmanship Awards, which are presented to one institution and 18 sport-specific teams voted by their peers to have best exhibited the standards of sportsmanship and ethical conduct as outlined by the OVC and NCAA.

The vision of leadership demonstrated by the Founding Fathers in 1948 remains alive today as the Ohio Valley Conference prepares for the future. One example is in regard to the current trend in collegiate athletics administration for increased involvement of university presidents in setting policies and making rules. The presidents of OVC institutions, however, have always governed the Conference, long before presidential governance became a national theme.

The Ohio Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track, volleyball and beach volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

Now in its seventh decade of competition, the Ohio Valley Conference has grown significantly from its humble beginnings while increasing the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students. Current league representatives include charter members Morehead State and Murray State, along with Austin Peay, Belmont, Eastern Illinois, Southeast Missouri, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Tennessee State, Tennessee Tech and the University of Tennessee at Martin.

Earning Preseason All-Conference team honors this year after being named to the All-OVC First Team last season are: Murray State guard Macey Turley (17.6 ppg, 92.3 FT%) and forward Katelyn Young (14.1 ppg, 9.3 rpg); Austin Peay Yamia Johnson (14.9 ppg, 39.4 3PT FG%); Belmont forward Conley Chinn (12.1 ppg, 4.8 rpg); and Eastern Illinois forward/center Abby Wahl (14.5 ppg, 7.4 rpg). Tennessee Tech guard/forward Anna Jones (11.2 ppg, 6.2 rpg), guard Jordan Brock (11.8 ppg, 84.9 FT%) and guard Kesha Brady (11.7 ppg, 5.0 rpg); and Eastern Illinois guard Lariah Washington (14.0 ppg, 4.7 rpg) were all named to the Preseason All-OVC team after earning All-Conference Second team honors a year ago. Belmont guard Tuti Jones (9.4 ppg, 4.6 rpg) and Tennessee Tech forward Mackenzie Coleman (10.3 ppg, 5.6 rpg) round out the preseason squad.

Wells was named the OVC Freshman of the Year and earned All-OVC First Team and All-Newcomer honors last season. The Lakeland, Tenn. natives is the league's top returning scorer after she finished second in the OVC with 17.8 points per game last year. She also led the league with 4.6 assists per outing while also recording a 46.6 field goal percentage last season.

2021-22 OVC WOMEN'S NOTES / PREVIEW

Let the Season Begin: The 2021-22 regular-season begins on Nov. 9 with Conference play beginning on Dec. 29. The OVC Championship will take place March 2-5 in Evansville, Ind.

OVC on ESPN+: For the fourth year, the Ohio Valley Conference will have a minimum of 600 conference events on ESPN+. ESPN+ is an integrated part of the completely redesigned ESPN App. Already the leading sports app, the new ESPN App is the premier all-in-one digital sports platform for fans across mobile and tv-connected devices. ESPN+ is also available through ESPN.com. Fans can subscribe to ESPN+ through the ESPN App for just $5.99 a month (or $49.99 per year).

2020-21 in Review: UT Martin earned the 2020-21 OVC regular season title while Belmont win its fifth OVC Tournament title last season. The Bruins were the two seed in the OVC Tourney and defeated No. 1 UT Martin, 83-75, in the Championship.

Belmont earned the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament while UT Martin the WNIT automatic bid. The Bruins defeated Gonzaga in the NCAA First Round becoming the first OVC team since 1991 to win an NCAA Tournament Game. Belmont would fall to Indiana in the second round.

UT Martin became the first team in program history to record two wins in a single postseason. The Skyhawks made it to the consolation regional finals of the WNIT, defeating Illinois State.

UT Martin's Kevin McMillan was named the OVC Coach of the Year after leading his team to the OVC regular season championship. The Skyhawks Chelsey Perry was named the OVC Player of the Year for the second straight year. Belmont's Destinee Wells earned Freshman of the Year honors.

OVC Championship Returns to Evansville: The Ohio Valley Conference Board of Presidents voted to accept a three-year deal to continue to hold the OVC Men's and Women's Basketball Championship at the Ford Center in Evansville through 2023. The agreement also includes an option for a fourth year (2024). The event was held for the first time in Evansville in 2018, marking the first time the Championship was held outside of Nashville since 2002. The 2022 OVC Basketball Championship is March 2-5. The dates for future OVC Basketball Championships include: March 1-4, 2023.

Regular-Season Champions: With UT Martin earning the regular-season crow last year, 10 different teams have won a regular-season crown. Morehead State and SIUE are the only current members that have not won a regular-season title.

Coaching Experience: UT Martin's Kevin McMillan is the longest tenured coach in the OVC as he enters his 13th season at the helm of the Skyhawks. He currently ranks third in OVC history with 218 wins and first among active coaches. He has had eight 20-win seasons at UT Martin and has made the conference tournament in each of his 12 years.

OVC on ESPNU: The SIUE at Tennessee Tech match up on January 20 will be on ESPNU at 4 p.m. CT.

New Faces: Three OVC teams will have new head coaches this year. Austin Peay will be under the new direction of Brittany Young who spent a season as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Mississippi State. Cayla Petree joins the Morehead State program after spending last season at Gulf Coast State College. Samantha Quigley Smith became the sixth head coach in program history at SIUE after spending the last four seasons as the head coach at Lewis University.

OVC Tournament Championship Tiebreaker System

Tiebreaker Rules:

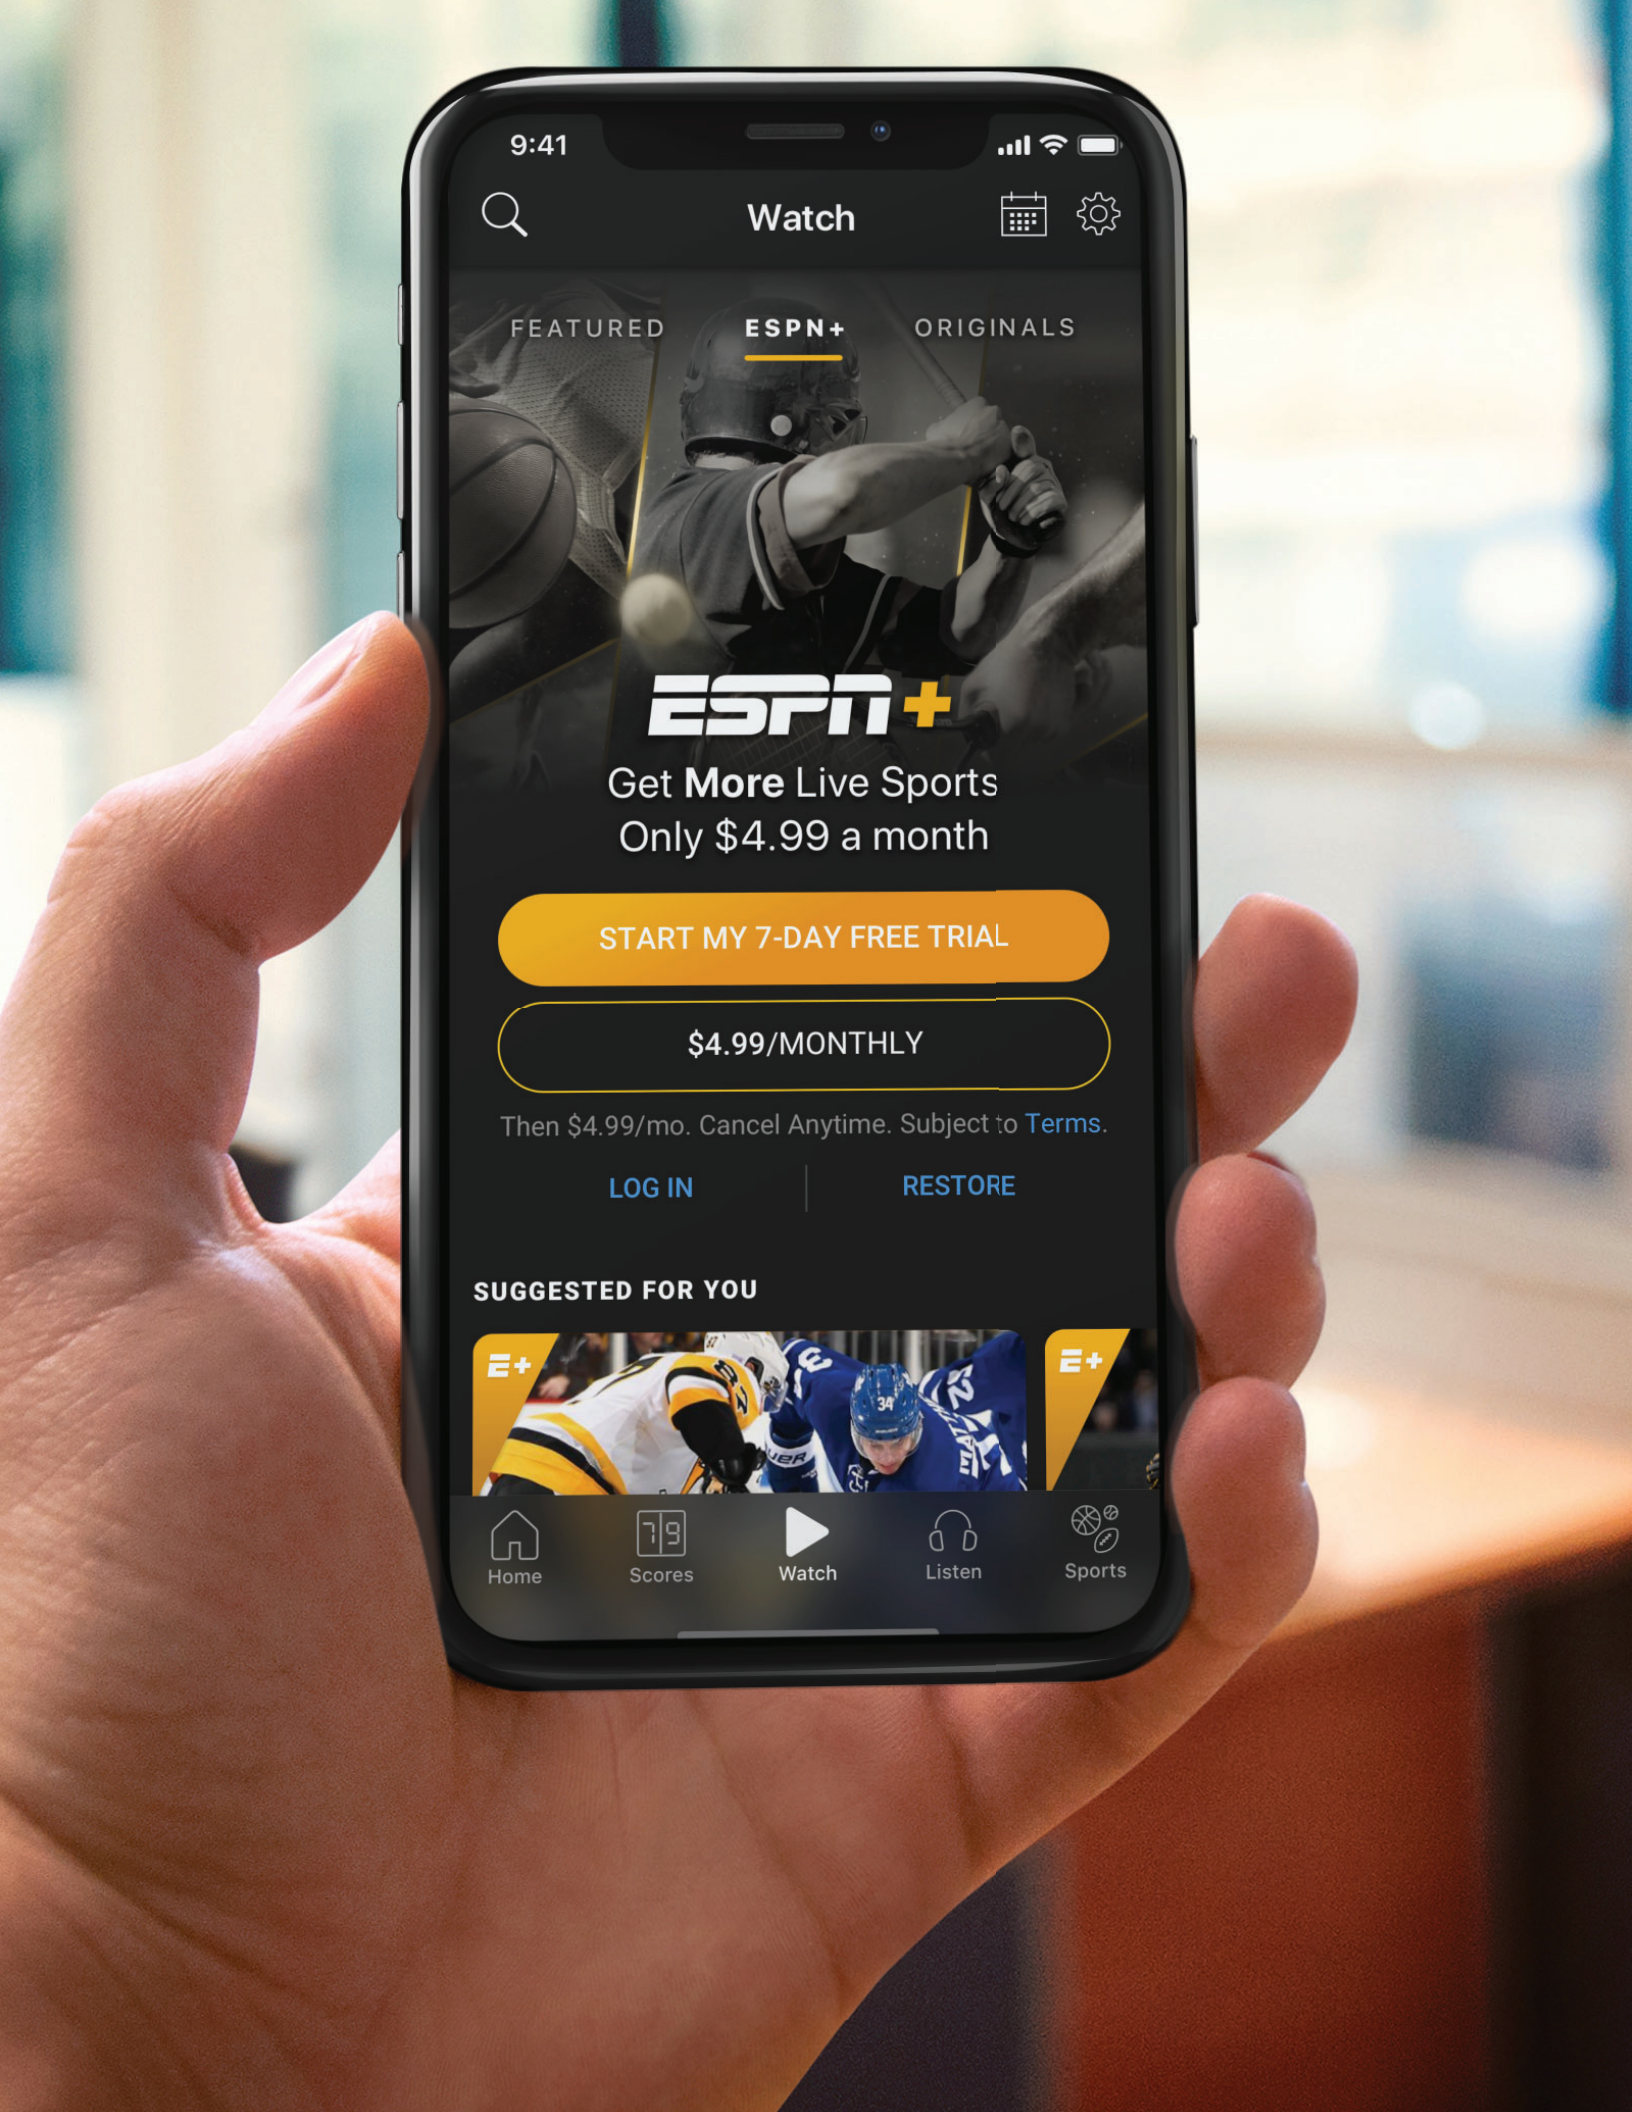

- Ties involving teams higher in the standings are always broken before ties involving teams lower in the standings.
- If a tie between three or more teams in the standings is reduced to a tie between two teams, the two-team tiebreaker formula will then be utilized.
- Higher winning percentages shall prevail in tiebreaker situations, even if the number of games played against a team or group is unequal (i.e., 2-0 is better than 3-1; 1-0 is the same as 2-0; 2-1 is the same as 4-2; 1-0 is better than 1-1; 0-1 is the same as 0-3). If the winning percentage of the tied teams is the same against a team, or a group of tied teams, the process shall continue down through the standings until one team gains an advantage.

If two teams are tied in the standings:

1. Records in head-to-head competition are compared with the higher seed going to the team that has the higher winning percentage against the other;
2. In the event step 1 does not resolve the tie (i.e., if the two teams split during the regular season), then the records for the tying teams against the highest seeded common opponent shall be compared. The team with the higher winning percentage against that seed shall gain the higher seed. The process continues through the No. 10 team, if necessary.
3. When arriving at tied teams, each team's winning percentage against the collective tied teams as a group (prior to their own tie-breaking procedures) shall be used rather than the performance against the individual tied teams.
4. In the event this process does not resolve the ties, a coin toss will be the final alternative.

If three or more teams are tied in the standings:

1. Composite records between tying teams will be evaluated to determine if one team has higher winning percentage against the other tying institutions (in which case that team would receive the higher seed) and/or one team has the lowest winning percentage among the tied teams (in which case that team will receive the lowest seed), and /or two teams have the same composite record (in which case the two-team tiebreaker scenario shall be utilized);
2. In the event this process does not resolve the multiple ties or reduce the multiple ties to one tie, then a comparison of records of the tying institutions against the highest seeded common opponent will occur. The team among the tying institutions with the higher winning percentage against that seed will receive the higher seed. The process continues through the No. 10 team, if necessary.
3. When arriving at tied teams, each team's winning percentage against the collective tied teams as a group (prior to their own tie-breaking procedures) shall be used, rather than the performance against the individual tied teams.
4. In the event this process does not resolve the ties, a coin toss will be the final alternative.

The eighth head coach in UT Martin women's basketball history, Kevin McMillan is in his 13th year at the helm of the Skyhawk program as the school's all-time wins leader with 240 career victories.

Overall, the Skyhawks have won 10 Ohio Valley Conference titles during his 12 seasons at UT Martin – including six regular season titles and four tournament crowns. The Skyhawks reached the postseason in six consecutive seasons and nine seasons overall while reaching the NCAA Tournament in 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014 while earning a bid to the Women's NIT in 2015, 2016, 2018, 2020 (canceled) and 2021. Additionally, the program has recorded eight 20-win seasons in the past 10 years with the Skyhawks posting a 240-142 record under McMillan, including a 160-45 mark in conference play. His 240 victories rank as the third-highest win total in OVC history, as he accounts for four OVC Coach of the Year awards.

Off the court, McMillan's teams have exceeded the average NCAA Academic Progress Rate in each of his 12 seasons. He has produced two OVC Scholar-Athletes (the highest individual honor in the league) and has graduated 100 percent of his student-athletes who have completed their eligibility in his Skyhawk tenure.

Despite the 2020-21 season facing numerous challenges related to COVID-19 the Skyhawks posted yet another banner year. UT Martin notched its 11th 20-win season in program history after going 22-6 overall while posting a 17-2 mark in league play for the team's seventh regular season championship. In addition to the team's championship run, the squad earned a berth to the WNIT where they posted a pair of wins over Louisiana and Illinois State to become the first team in OVC history to record multiple victories in the same postseason.

Highlighting the season individually was the play of All-OVC forwards Chelsey Perry and Dasia Young who both earned first team honors. Perry was named the OVC Player of the Year for the second straight season after leading the league in multiple statistical categories including scoring (22.9 ppg), field goal percentage (50.2 percent) and field goals made (164). Following the season, Perry made waves by becoming the highest selection in OVC history by being selected 26th overall in the WNBA Draft by the Indiana Fever.

The Skyhawks posted their sixth league title in program history in 2019-20 after posting a 22-10 overall record while going 16-2 in league action. UT Martin would receive a berth into the Women's NIT after falling in the OVC Basketball Championship finals but the postseason event would be canceled because of COVID-19. In a season in which injuries plagued the roster, the Skyhawks continually rose to the occasions with its 10th 20-win season in program history while featuring a pair of All-OVC first-team performers in Perry and Maddie Waldrop.

Perry dominated postseason honors by being named WBCA Coaches' All-American honorable mention, a finalist for the Becky Hammon Mid-Major Player of the Year and OVC Player of the Year selection after ranking first nationally in field goal made (286), second in total points (740) and third in both points per game (23.1) and field goal attempts (386). Meanwhile, Waldrop earned her first All-OVC honor after ranking amongst OVC leaders in defensive rebounds (5.9, fourth), field goal percentage (48.6, fifth), rebounding (7.8 rpg, seventh) and scoring (12.7 ppg, eighth).

Despite having one of the youngest teams in the country on a program which featured just one senior on the roster, the Skyhawks still managed to meet program expectations throughout the 2018-19 season. The Skyhawks would post a 23-9 overall mark while finishing tied for second in the league standings with a record of 13-5. The team's 23 wins tied for the most wins in program history while appearing in the OVC Basketball Championship title contest for the seventh time in the last nine seasons. Highlighting the season was the emergence of senior Emanye Robertson who put the finishing touches on her career with an All-OVC first team and OVC Defense Player of the Year selection. Meanwhile, sophomore Chelsey Perry earned All-OVC second team honors while freshman Brittni Moore was selected to the OVC All-Newcomer squad.

McMillan saw the Skyhawks return to the postseason for the seventh time in his tenure in 2017-18 with another appearance in the Women's NIT. The Skyhawks would ultimately post a 19-15 overall mark while notching a 13-5 mark in league play to earn the No. 2 seed in the OVC Basketball Championship – where the squad advanced to the tournament finals before falling to No. 22 ranked Belmont in overtime. With the league's automatic bid to the Women's NIT, the Skyhawks would travel to Indiana where they fell to the eventual tournament champions.

As a result of the strong play during the regular season, the Skyhawks saw three different players earn All-OVC honors. Sophomore Kendall Spray was named to the first team after setting a program single-season three-point benchmark while senior Ashton Feldhaus earned second team honors. Perry wrapped up the year's accolades with a spot on the All-Newcomer squad while joining senior Janekia Mason on the OVC All-Tournament team.

Faced with one of the youngest rosters in the nation – boasting just four returners and an abundance of key injuries – the Skyhawks' 2016-17 campaign was a year of highs and lows. UT Martin would post a 12-19 overall record while finishing 8-8 in league play – earning the No. 4 seed in the OVC Basketball Championship before ultimately falling in the tournament semifinals. While the season failed to meet expectations, the squad found growth as three Skyhawks earned All-OVC honors. Spray highlighted the season by becoming just the program's third OVC Freshman of the Year while joining Feldhaus and Mason on the All-OVC second team.

The Skyhawks found success once again during the 2015-16 season, notching the program's eighth 20-win season after finishing with a 22-10 overall record and a 14-2 league mark despite playing with just seven healthy scholarship players for much of the year. The Skyhawks notched their third consecutive regular season title, ranking as the third program in conference history and first since 1993. After winning the season championship, the Skyhawks clinched their sixth straight postseason berth, earning a berth in the Women's NIT where they advanced to the second round before falling to Western Kentucky after defeating Memphis – notching the program's first postseason victory since 1999.

With the squad's success, McMillan notched his second straight OVC Coach of the Year award – marking just the second time in league history that a coach has won the award in back-to-back seasons. Along with top coaching honors, the Skyhawks saw three players earn postseason honors. Haley Howard was an All-OVC first team selection after leading the team in scoring at 14.9 points per game and eclipsing the double-figure mark in 24 games. Jessy Ward was tabbed to the second team after averaging 13.0 points and ranking seventh nationally in both three-point field goals per game and three-point field goals made. Myah Taylor earned a spot on the All-Newcomer squad after averaging 8.7 points per game.

The 2014-15 season kept with the theme of several program firsts within McMillan's tenure while the squad's 22-11 overall record marked the program's seventh 20-win season. UT Martin notched yet another piece of OVC history after becoming just the sixth team in league history to finish the conference season with an unblemished record and just the second to finish 16-0. With the perfect conference record, the Skyhawks clinched their third OVC season title in the last four years while posting a league record of 46-2 during the stretch. The season also served as the fifth consecutive postseason appearance for the Skyhawks after earning an invitation to the Women's National Invitational Tournament against Ole Miss.

The Skyhawks were led by the play of sophomore Ashia Jones who became the program's second Associated Press All-American while also bringing home OVC Female Athlete of the Year, OVC Player of the Year, TSWA Women's Basketball Player of the Year and National Mid-Major Player of the Year honors after averaging 23.4 points, 5.7 rebounds and 2.8 assists per game. Jones ranked fourth in the nation is scoring while setting new single-season records in points (772), field goals made (287) and 30-plus point games (10). Newcomer Jessy Ward also earned All-Newcomer honors after averaging 11.7 points per game and leading the OVC in three-point field goals made (87), three-point field goals per game (2.64) and three-point field goal percentage (40.3 percent).

McMillan's 2013-14 squad recorded its sixth OVC championship during a four-year period with both a regular season and tournament championship. The McMillan led Skyhawks set new program records in victories with 24, while setting a new single season scoring record with 2,681 points en route to receiving the program's first votes in the USA TODAY Sports Top 25 Coaches' Poll and a near upset in the NCAA Tournament against No. 7 North Carolina.

The Skyhawks were led by the play of two premier senior guards in Heather Butler and Jasmine Newsome. Butler finished her career as UT Martin and the OVC's all-time leading scorer with 2,865 career points after being named the league's Player of the Year. Butler finished tied for 16th on the NCAA's all-time scoring list while scoring in double figures every game of her career, spanning 129 games and ranking fifth all-time. She also left the Skyhawks as the best three-point shooter in NCAA history after tying the career three-pointers record with 392.

Joining Butler with postseason accolades was the highly decorated Newsome. Newsome notched her third OVC Defensive Player of the Year honor while finishing her Skyhawk career as the school and league's second all-time leading scorer – second to Butler – with 2,566 career points. The two-time OVC Player of the Year was also named All-Mid Major Player of the Year and Mid Major All-American by College Sports Madness.

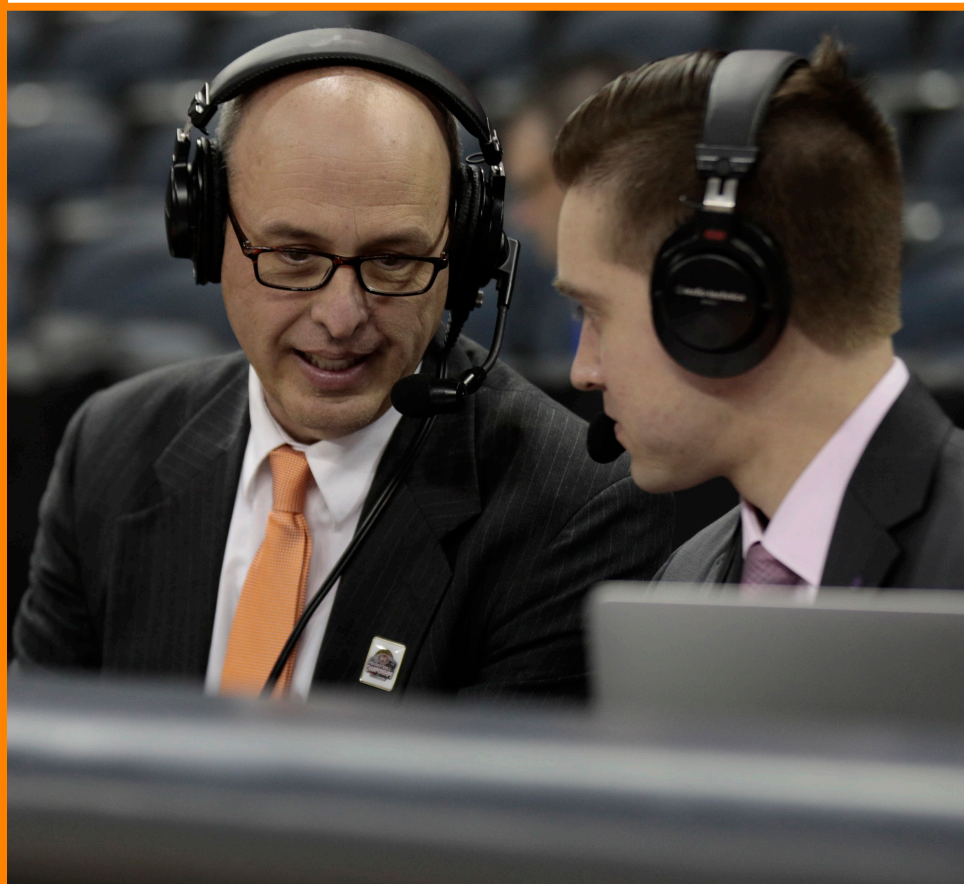

In his fourth year, the Skyhawks notched their third consecutive OVC Tournament championship during the 2012-13 season, downing No. 2 seed Tennessee Tech 87-80 in overtime on March 9, 2013. With the victory, UT Martin would advance to their third straight trip to the NCAA Tournament, to take on the Notre Dame Fighting Irish. The Skyhawks suffered a 97-64 setback to the eventual National Championship runner-up despite Butler scoring a tournament-best 37 points in the contest.

The squad was led by a pair of All-OVC first teamers in Newsome (22.6 points per game) and Butler (22.4) who both ranked in the top-10 in the nation in scoring, finishing fifth and sixth, respectively. Newsome captured her second straight OVC Player of the Year honor along with her second OVC Defensive Player of the Year trophy en route to the program's first All-American honorable mention accolade. Butler set an NCAA record by making a three-pointer in 80 consecutive games and with 34 consecutive games in a season.

In 2011-12, McMillan's Skyhawks captured their second OVC Tournament championship in program history, downing No. 3 seed Tennessee Tech 82-65 on March 5. With the victory, UT Martin advanced to make its second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, traveling to the Horizon Center in Rosemont, Ill., to take on the Tennessee Lady Vols. The Skyhawks suffered a 72-49 setback to the hands of alumnus Pat Head Summitt.

Consisting of a roster of mostly West Tennessee players, the Skyhawks went 23-9 with a 15-1 OVC mark despite having a relatively young roster which featured just one senior. The 23-win season was the second consecutive 20-win slate for the Skyhawks while also leading the nation is scoring with 80.1 points per game. The Skyhawks were also the nation's top team in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.43) and sixth in assists (17.7 apg).

The Skyhawks were led by the sophomore duo of Butler and Newsome after being named to the All-OVC first team for the second consecutive season, as well as the All-OVC Tournament squad. Butler was named OVC Tournament Most Valuable Player. Butler was the nation's fourth leading scorer (23.8 points per game) while Newsome was the 18th leading scorer (19.6 ppg). The trio of Butler, Newsome and Jaclissa Haislip combined to win eight adidas OVC Player of the Week awards.

The 2010-11 season laid the foundation for the future, as three different Skyhawks combined to win an OVC Record 13 Freshmen of the Week honors along with the OVC Team Sportsmanship Award. McMillan's guided the team to a second place finish during the regular season before winning the program's first OVC Tournament title. With the title, the Skyhawks earned its first berth in the NCAA Tournament and played at Cameron Indoor Arena against the Duke Blue Devils.

The Skyhawks went 21-11 with a 14-4 OVC mark in 2010-11 despite having a roster that was the youngest team in America (only two years of Division-I experience heading into the season). The 20-win season was the first since 1998-99 and fourth 20-win campaign in program history.

McMillan's first season at UT Martin was a transformation in every sense of the work as he took over a program that had just finished 2-27 and went winless in conference play. Under his direction the Skyhawks finished the 2010-11 season with an overall record 11-19 while making the program's first OVC Tournament appearance since 2006-07. McMillan took his team all the way to the semifinals of the tournament along with being named OVC Coach of the Year and TSWA Women's Co-Head Coach of the Year.

Prior to being named head coach of the Skyhawks on June 15, 2009, McMillan posted a decorated career as a high school coach within the state of Tennessee. Through his 17 years in the prep ranks, the accumulated a record of 435-126 while winning one state championships and sporting six state tournament appearances. He has had coaching stints at Gibson County High School in Dyer (2007-09), Westview High School in Martin (1997-2005) and Millington High School in Millington (1990-97). McMillan was twice named the Jackson Sun's West Tennessee Coach of the Year in 2003 and 2009, while being tabbed district Coach of the Year 10 times. He also spent two season as an assistant coach at Middle Tennessee State.

McMillan played basketball at Wake Forest for one season (1985) before transferring to Rhodes College to finish out his career from 1986-89. At Rhodes, he was a three-time all-conference selection and in 1988 was named the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference Player of the Year. In only three seasons, he scored 1,372 career points and still ranks ninth all-time at Rhodes for career points scored.

McMillan received his bachelor's degree in math and business in 1989 from Rhodes, then completed his master's in health and human performance at Middle Tennessee in 2007. He has two sons, Matt and Ben, along with one daughter, Alli.

WILLIE TREVATHAN

ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND YEAR

Willie Trevathan is in his second season as an assistant coach at UT Martin.

In his tenure at UT Martin, the Skyhawks have won one Ohio Valley Conference regular season title and appeared in 2021 Women's NIT.

He coached two All-OVC first team selections in Chelsey Perry and Dasia Young. Perry was named the 2021 OVC Player of the Year while becoming the program's first WNBA Draft selection after being taken 26th overall by the Indiana Fever in 2021.

In his first season with the Skyhawks he oversaw a Skyhawk defense which led the league in scoring defense with 56.4 points per game and field goal percentage defense (35.4 percent). The team held three opponents to fewer than 40 points on the season – something which has been done just eight times in the program's Division I history.

Trevathan joined the Skyhawks after a decorated coaching career at Greenfield High School where he served as head coach since 2003. While leading the Lady Yellowjackets, Trevathan lifted the team to new heights beginning with its first district championship in nearly 40 years before later winning the school's first girls state title in 2018. His teams made three consecutive state tournament appearances from 2018-2020 while boasting five appearances overall – including four as a girls basketball coach (2006, 2018, 2019, 2020) and one time as a boys basketball coach (2004).

The 2018 State of Tennessee Girls Basketball Coach of the Year and All-West Tennessee Coach of the Year, Trevathan spent 19 years as a coach, teacher and administrator at Greenfield High School. While at the helm he posted a 383-160 record (70.5 percent) while winning seven district coach of the year honors. Most recently the Lady Yellowjackets were a perfect 34-0 before seeing their season abruptly end prior to the Class A state semifinals due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Trevathan received his bachelor's degree in history in 2000 from Union University where he was also a member of the golf program from 1996-2000. He is married to the former Leah Waddell and has three children, Halle, Lila and Lane.

DARBY MAGGARD

ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST YEAR

Darby Maggard enters her first season as an assistant women's basketball coach at UT Martin after serving as a graduate assistant for one season.

In her tenure at UT Martin, the Skyhawks have won one Ohio Valley Conference regular season title and appeared in 2021 Women's NIT.

She coached two All-OVC first team selections in Chelsey Perry and Dasia Young. Perry was named the 2021 OVC Player of the Year while becoming the program's first WNBA Draft selection after being taken 26th overall by the Indiana Fever in 2021.

Prior to UT Martin, Maggard was a decorated champion within the Ohio Valley Conference at member school Belmont. While with the Bruins, Maggard led the program to four consecutive OVC Tournament titles, four NCAA Tournament appearances and three regular season championships. She was named the 2019 OVC Player of the Year, Tennessee Sports Writers Association Player of the Year and OVC Female Athlete of the Year while tallying four straight All-OVC first team and OVC All-Tournament team honors for her career.

The All-American and winner of the 2019 State Farm College 3-Point Championship left Belmont as the program's all-time leader in three-point field goals (430), three-point field goal percentage (43.1 percent) and free throw percentage (92.4 percent). She also became just the fourth player in Bruin history and first in the team's Division I era to eclipse 2,000 career points (2,031). Additionally, she is the only player in NCAA history to dish out at least 650 career assists while also making more than 400 three-pointers. Her record-breaking career includes league marks for career three-point field goals (430) and consecutive free throws made (45).

Following her standout collegiate career, Maggard spent one season as a professional, inking a contract to play for the Liffey Celtics of the Irish Super League in Ireland.

A prep standout performer at Fort Wayne Canterbury High School, Maggard was the 2015 Indiana Miss Basketball runner-up. She was also named to the Indiana All-Star Team and was a McDonald's All-America nominee. Other honors included being named the 21 Alive Fort Wayne Girls Basketball Player of the Year, News Sentinel Player of the Year along with four all-area and all-state honors. She set two FWC records with the most points (47) and most assists (17) in a single game while averaging 28.1 points and 7.7 assists per game as a senior. The ESPNW ranked No. 94 prospect led her squad to back-to-back state titles in 2012 and 2013.

Maggard earned her bachelor's degree from Belmont in 2019 with a degree in psychology.

STACIE EVANS

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

12TH YEAR

Stacie Evans enters her 12th season with the women's basketball program and sixth year as the Director of Operations.

Evans transitions from her position as the Academic Support Services Coordinator in the UT Martin Department of Intercollegiate Athletics to move up a seat on the bench after serving as the team's academic coach while assisting with team travel operations for the previous five seasons.

During her tenure with the program, the Skyhawks have won four Ohio Valley Conference Tournament championships, appeared in four NCAA Tournaments, tallied six OVC regular season championships and earned four bids to the Women's NIT. The Skyhawks have also registered nine 20-win seasons while featuring 16 All-OVC first team performers and a pair of Associated Press All-Americans.

Evans is no stranger to head coach Kevin McMillan with their history dating back to her high school career. She spent her senior year as a student-athlete under McMillan in his first season at Westview High School.

Evans, a Martin native, graduated from UT Martin in 2004, earning a bachelor's degree in health and human performance with a concentration in sports management.

KELLI POLIZZI

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER
FOURTH YEAR

Kelli Polizzi was named Skyhawk head athletic trainer in October 2018 after joining UT Martin's athletic training staff in June 2018. Boasting over 15 years of experience in the areas of evaluation, assessment and rehabilitation, Polizzi works directly with the Skyhawk women's basketball program while supervising the main UT Martin athletic training room located in the Skyhawk Fieldhouse.

Before coming to UT Martin, Polizzi served as head athletic trainer at Cumberland University in Lebanon, Tenn. She worked closely with the Phoenix women's basketball and tennis programs while also overseeing administration for the athletic training department since the summer of 2016.

Polizzi spent five years over two stints at Benedictine College in Atchison, Kan. before joining the Cumberland staff. While at BC, she oversaw the softball, men's soccer, women's soccer, volleyball, women's basketball and baseball programs for evaluation, assessment, rehabilitation and documentation of injuries. She also served as a part-time faculty member in the ATEP and Health, Wellness and Exercise Science department.

A Monroe City, Mo. native, Polizzi worked two stints at Progressive Rehabilitation Associates in Iowa City, Iowa. She covered local high school athletic events and made weekly school visits to assess and evaluate as well as document injuries. She ran training sessions for area businesses and factories, educating on employee triage for industrial settings while writing essential function profiles for statewide businesses.

Polizzi spent one year at Augustana College in Rock Island, Ill., where she covered men's and women's cross country and track and field as well as the men's and women's tennis programs. She also spent one year working with the women's basketball team at Utah Valley University in Orem, Utah. Polizzi also worked at Unite Point Health in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. She covered the Cedar Rapids RoughRiders Junior Hockey tryouts, the Cedar Rapids Metro Youth Football Academy games and the Iowa Winter Games.

Polizzi received her bachelor's degree in athletic training from Culver-Stockton College in 2006 and earned her Master's degree in secondary education from Central Methodist University in 2008. She is married to Chris Polizzi, who is an assistant football coach at UT Martin.

ALEX BOGGIS

SPORTS INFORMATION
10TH YEAR

Alex Boggis has worked in the UT Martin sports information office since 2012. At UT Martin, Boggis is the media contact for football, women's basketball, soccer and softball along with both cross country and track teams. Boggis also serves on the statistician crew at most Skyhawk home events, produces media guides, game day programs, press releases, and serves as a media host and coordinating event operations. His responsibilities include serving as the department's lead graphic designer - responsible for social media content, marketing pieces, along with stadium and arena branding throughout the campus.

While at UT Martin, Boggis has taken part in several other sports information ventures. He has served as an official statistician for the 2014 NCAA Women's Basketball Final Four in Nashville, serving in that role for all three games - including the nationally championship between undefeated foes Notre Dame and Connecticut.

Since 2012, he has served on the official statistician crew at the Ohio Valley Conference men's and women's basketball tournament in Nashville, where he was part of the team responsible for all stats from the tournament. He also served in that same role for the 2012 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament Second/Third Rounds, also held in Nashville. Boggis was also Tournament Director of the 2012 and 2018 OVC Soccer Tournament, held in Martin, Tenn. after serving as the tournament's head statistician in 2011. He also accepted the role of the official scorer for the OVC Softball Championship - held in Oxford, Ala. - since 2016.

A native of Pinckneyville, Ill., Boggis graduated from UT Martin in 2011, earning a bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in marketing. He later earned his Master's in business administration from UTM in the spring of 2013. He worked as a graduate assistant in the sports information office for one year and was the secondary contact for football, women's basketball and softball, and also the head researcher and designer for basketball and softball media guides. He spent his undergraduate years (2007-11) as the head manager for the UT Martin men's basketball team, serving that role during the 2008-09 OVC Championship season.

He is a member of both the Tennessee Sportswriters Association and College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). His UT Martin football schedule poster placed second nationally in the Fall Posters Division of the CoSIDA 2017-18 Publications & Digital Design Contest.

Boggis married Tiffany Carlton in June 2013. The couple resides in Martin and has one son, Liam.

UT MARTIN WOMEN'S BASKETBALL LOOKS TO LEAN ON EACH OTHER WHILE SEEKING NEW IDENTITY IN 2021-22

While teams all over the country had the benefit of returning veteran players to their roster who otherwise would have exhausted their eligibility due to COVID extensions – making for squads stacked with super seniors and vast experience – the University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team will unfortunately not fit that description when the 2021-22 season tips off on Friday, Nov. 12. Instead, the Skyhawks will be looking to replace over 70 percent of the team's scoring output off a team which won its second straight Ohio Valley Conference regular season championship along with setting a conference and school record with a pair of postseason victories in the Postseason Women's National Invitation Tournament.

Any team at the mid-major level would have a difficult time replacing the production lost that a two-time OVC Player of the Year and WNBA draft pick like Chelsey Perry contributed, averaging around 23 points per game over the past two seasons along with a veteran leader like Maddie Waldrop who provided intangible qualities and quantitative statistics as a top-line player in the league. While the Skyhawks may not have that next program-great to step into the spotlight at first glance, veteran head coach Kevin McMillan believes the team will have to rely on each other to fill the open gap.

"We do not feel like we have that one person that we can just throw the ball to and just get out of the way," McMillan said. "My prediction is that this group will have to depend more on each other than any team since our first team we had here. We are going to have to figure out how to score and how to slow people down. It is such a different team than we have been in recent year. I like the core of the team with Kyannah, Paige and Seygan. They are so solid, but how are we going to build, figure it out and tweak is going to be difficult. Then when you add in the schedule, it will make it really hard for the girls."

The schedule won't waste any time getting ramped up as the Skyhawks open the season in the Preseason Women's NIT with three games in four days against Kansas State, North Carolina A&T and Western Kentucky beginning on Nov. 12 before traveling to nationally ranked Louisville just a few days later. That won't be all as the Skyhawks square off against Illinois State, George Washington, Virginia Tech, Saint Louis, Mississippi State, Southern Illinois, Akron and Bowling Green before opening OVC play just prior to the new year.

"The schedule when you look at it is daunting in itself, but for me it is not, because we are going to learn a lot about our kids," McMillan said. "You can't really figure much out about your team unless you play really good teams that can show you your weaknesses. We will learn a lot from these early games to hopefully get an idea of our identity."

With McMillan entering his 13th season at the helm of UT Martin and fresh off winning his fourth OVC Coach of the Year honor, he is looking to the trio of Kyannah Grant, Paige Pipkin and Seygan Robins to take over leadership of an inexperienced team. Grant brings the most on-court experience for the Skyhawks – playing in 80 games over three seasons – while Pipkins has been in the program for five seasons despite playing her first full season last year due several injuries.

Robins, a two-time OVC Newcomer of the Week last year, ranks as the team's top returning scorer averaging 7.7 points with 2.2 rebounds and 3.3 assists per game in her debut season. Pipkin was close behind, averaging 7.3 points, 2.9 rebounds and 2.7 assists per game. Meanwhile, Grant chipped in 3.4 points and 2.0 assists.

While those three are projected to fill three spots in the starting lineup, the Skyhawks will turn to a mixture of the team's other four returners and its seven newcomers to round out their other needs. After seeing limited action last season coming off an injury in 2019-20, Hayley Harrison is primed to take the next step in her development after chipping in 2.4 points per game and shooting 38.1 percent from beyond the arc while Emma Davis is working back from a knee injury which cost her the entire 2020-21 campaign. Martin native Raegan Johnson will also vie for minutes in the post rotation.

Several newcomers will have their name called early for contributions, especially from graduate transfer Holly Forbes who spent the past two seasons at Robert Morris. After playing and starting in 46 games the past two seasons for the Colonials averaging 5.3 points and 5.0 rebounds per game, Forbes will likely slot into a starting role in the post. Meanwhile, freshmen Ella Thompson, Shanice Simpson-Whiteley and Gabi Melby will be looked to for significant roles early in their careers.

"We are going to count on some players early," McMillan said. "Holly is a graduate transfer that we are going to ask to hold down the fort inside. Ella, Shanice and Gabi will also have to step up and give us some big minutes. The thing is, Holly knows what she is getting herself into, but the others don't have a clue yet. How quickly those others figure out the world so to speak will make it easier, we just don't have a lot of depth."

Despite the team's inexperience and expected growing pains, McMillan has seen the team's fight to get better through the preseason and live up to the program's lofty standards. "I have seen hard work in practice, kids that are pushing and leadership on the court. We are seeing the things you need to see. We do not ask our kids to do things that they are not capable of, but we do ask them to play to the best of their ability and hold them to a high standard. You try to get individuals to be the best they can be, then figure out how to fit that into what that team can mold into. Each team has its own identity."

The Skyhawks will get their first test at building their identity on Friday, Nov. 12 night when opening the season against Kansas State in the Preseason NIT to start a 30-game regular season slate.

Guards: Emma Davis, Kyannah Grant, Hayley Harrison, Mia Hurst, Shae Littleford, Gabi Melby, Paige Pipkin, Seygan Robins

Forwards: Taylor Dupree, Holly Forbes, Hayley Harrison, Raegan Johnson, Haley Nichols, Shanice Simpson-Whiteley, Ella Thompson

SKYHAWKS OVERCOME PANDEMIC ON THE WAY TO HISTORIC SEASON

Faced with the uncertainty of a global pandemic, postponements, cancelations and scheduling manipulations, the 2020-21 basketball season had enough challenges in itself before a single ball was dribbled or shot. Despite those issues, it did not hamper the University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team from elevating above tribulations to record one of the team's most decorated seasons in program history.

After seeing the season delayed for nearly a month, UT Martin finally tipped off its slate on Dec. 6 with a road matchup at No. 5 Louisville to start out the year with six straight road contests before the team made its home debut on Jan. 14 against Austin Peay. With just three non-conference games on the docket – including two against national power Louisville – UT Martin had little time to adjust before entering Ohio Valley Conference play to begin its title defense.

Once in league play, the Skyhawks quickly lived up to their preseason projection as the OVC's top threat. After dropping the team's second conference game of the season following a 12-day layoff due to cancelations, the Skyhawks rattled off 10-consecutive victories – including nine straight wins in the month of January.

The team's winning streak ended abruptly with a home loss to Tennessee Tech on Feb. 6 by a score of 77-73 to also snap a 19-game conference home winning streak which dated back to 2019. The Skyhawks quickly rallied, starting a new winning streak, closing the regular season with six straight victories to earn the squads second consecutive OVC league title and the top seed in the conference tournament.

Before the Skyhawks traveled to Evansville for the OVC Basketball Championship, the postseason honors were handed out as senior Chelsey Perry was named OVC Player of the Year for the second time in as many years while claiming All-OVC first team honors. Joining her on the All-OVC first team was sophomore forward Dasia Young who averaged 12.7 points and 6.3 rebounds per game while head coach Kevin McMillan garnered his fourth OVC Coach of the Year selection.

Once in the tournament field, UT Martin faced off against #8 seed Eastern Illinois for the second time in five days and picked up the three-game season sweep to advance to the semifinals where it knocked off #5 seed Tennessee Tech to advance to the title game for the fourth straight year. In the championship, the Skyhawks met second-seeded Belmont who used a strong second quarter to lift the Bruins to an 83-75 victory and the NCAA berth.

Beaten but not broken, the Skyhawks season was still alive after earning a berth to the Postseason Women's National Invitation Tournament field and being assigned to the Memphis Regional in Collierville. A first round matchup saw a depleted roster face off against Big Ten foe Nebraska which proved to overmatch UT Martin on the way to a 72-46 victory. Dropped into the consolation bracket, the Skyhawks did damage, not only picking up a win against Louisiana (58-48) the next day but coming back to claim the consolation championship with a 64-59 victory over Illinois State two days later. The two victories not only set a new program record for postseason victories but also marked a new OVC benchmark.

UT Martin would finish the campaign with a 22-6 overall record while going 17-2 in OVC play. It marked the team's 11th 20-win season and eight under the direction of McMillan.

As the final buzzer sounded and the season was officially brought to a close, it also concluded the careers of two decorated individuals in both Perry and fellow senior Maddie Waldrop. Both players not only finished as 1,000-point scorers but speckled throughout the program's various career top-10 leaderboards. Perry left UT Martin ranked third in points (1,951), fourth in rebounds (765) and first in blocks (225) while Waldrop tallied 1,081 points, 820 rebounds (third in history) and 89 blocks (sixth).

The honors and accolades kept coming for Perry as well. Along with being named the Bettye Giles Female Athlete of the Year and the OVC Female Athlete of the Year, her biggest accomplishment came on Apr. 9, 2021 when she made UT Martin history by becoming the first player in program history to be drafted in the WNBA by the Indiana Fever with the 26th overall pick.

UT MARTIN HALL OF FAME

PAT HEAD SUMMITT | CLASS OF 1983 (INAUGURAL CLASS)

Summitt was a member of the Lady Pacers from 1970-74, during the program's first days as a varsity sport. To this day, Summitt remains among the career leaders in many statistical categories. At the time of her graduation, Summitt led the Lady Pacers with 35 points in a single game, became the program's first 1,000 point scorer with 1,405 career points and was a member of the 1972-73 squad that compiled a 22-3 record and advanced to the AIAW National Tournament. During Summitt's final season as a Lady Pacer, she became the first women's basketball player to have her jersey retired when her number 55 was raised to the rafters.

Summitt, of Ashland City, Tenn., continued in basketball after her time at UT Martin as a co-captain of the USA Women's Basketball team that won a silver medal in the 1976 Montreal Olympics. She later earned a two silver medals and five gold medals as a coach in international play, including gold at the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics.

Summitt is now best known for her 34 years at the helm of the Tennessee Lady Vols, where she has become the winningest basketball coach in history (men's or women's). She has amassed over 1,000 wins in her career, in addition to seven NCAA titles, 26 Southeastern Conference tournament and regular season championships, 25 consecutive appearances in the NCAA Sweet 16, produced 12 Olympians, 19 Kodak All-Americans and 68 All-SEC performers.

Summitt's was also honored by having the court in the Kathleen and Tom Elam Center named in her honor Nov. 23, 1997. Summitt's name also appears on the gymnasium at Cheatham County Central High School in Ashland City, Tenn., and on the floor at The University of Tennessee's Thompson-Boling Arena.

NADINE GEARIN | CLASS OF 1988

Gearin was the coach of the first UT Martin intercollegiate women's basketball team and played a major role in why the University of Tennessee at Martin is regarded as a pioneer in women's athletics. She coached the Lady Pacers' teams from 1969-78 and directed the team to the 1970-71 Tennessee College Women's Sports Federation championship and won three Western Division titles. Her 1971-72 team posted the most wins in Lady Pacer history and also became the only basketball team in school history to advance to the national championship tournament. Her overall basketball coaching record was 104-86.

Gearin also coached women's volleyball from 1969-73 and was coach of the UT Martin badminton club from 1968-70.

MARY ANN ARCHIE CHILDERS | CLASS OF 1989

Childers was a member of the first UT Martin women's basketball team in 1969-70. She was the team's leading scorer, averaging 22.9 points-per-game, which remains a record for best scoring average in a season by a Lady Pacer/Skyhawk player. She played a major role in UT Martin's first Tennessee Collegiate Women's State Championship. Her 18.5 career scoring average at the time of her graduation was a Lady Pacer record. Childers was also a member of the Lady Pacers volleyball team.

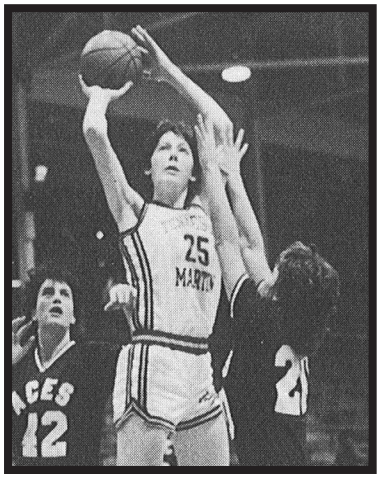

AMY UNDERWOOD POTEETE | CLASS OF 1991

Poteete was a four-year standout with the Lady Pacer basketball program from 1976-80. She was the first female recipient of an athletic grant-in-aid to the university, coming to UT Martin from Henry County High School in Paris, Tenn.

Poteete was named the Lady Pacers' Most Valuable Player following her freshman season. She earned a pair of All-Christmas Tournament honors the following two years and was most outstanding player in the Lady Pacers' 1978 tournament. Poteete received the Bettye L. Giles Award in 1980, which is awarded the university's top female athlete.

MARY KATE LONG AREND | CLASS OF 1995

Arend established herself as one of the top student-athletes in UT Martin history, from 1985-89, for her outstanding performances, both on the basketball court and in the classroom. Arend worked to become UT Martin's all-time leading career scorer (1,754 points), rebounder (1,318), blocked shots leader (203), along with field goals made (747) and attempted (1,404). Arend also still hold individual game records for points in a game with 40 points against Troy in 1989 and pulling down 27 rebounds against West Georgia in 1987. She was a three-time All-Gulf South Conference selection and was twice the GSC Commissioner's Award winner for athletics and academics in her junior and senior years. She also was awarded the Bettye L. Giles Award her sophomore and senior year's for being UT Martin's top female athlete.

Arend became the second women's basketball player to have her jersey retired when the No. 25 was lifted to the rafters. She also represented UT Martin as a member of the United States Olympic Sports Festival team in 1987 and was twice a member of the South team in the Illinois Prairie State Games.

Arend also accumulated numerous other honors for her academic work. She was twice named to the GTE Academic All-America Team and was the GTE Academic All-American of the year in 1989. She maintained a perfect 4.0 grade point average during her four years as a University Scholar. Arend later received her master's degree in English and Ph.D from the University of Illinois.

TARA TANSIL GENTRY | CLASS OF 2000

Tansil established herself as one of the premier players in UT Martin history from 1991-95. She is still third on the all-time points scored list with 1,702 career points. She remains atop three career categories including 3-point field goals attempted (415), free throws made (564) and free throws attempted (759). She is also second in career 3-point field goals made (152) and steals (256).

She was a member of the program when it moved from Division II to Division I and was twice an All-Ohio Valley Conference second team performer. She led her team in scoring all four years. A Dean's List student, Tansil was an OVC Academic Honor Roll member.

After her playing days came to an end, Tansil's No. 24 jersey became only the third to ever be retired when it was lifted to the rafters in January 1996. Tansil returned as an assistant women's basketball coach in 1996 and was named head coach in 2004. In her five years as head coach Tansil guided the program to a pair of OVC Tournament appearances, and came within one point of a berth in the conference's championship game in an overtime loss in 2007.

GINA WARREN MCCLURE | CLASS OF 2000

McClure is considered one of the most versatile athletes to ever compete at the University of Tennessee at Martin. She started 104 of 106 basketball games in her career from 1990-94 and is still ninth all-time in points scored with 1,130. McClure also remains in the career top-10 for 3-point field goals made, career steals and assists.

McClure was also a member of the Skyhawks' tennis team, helping lead the team to its first-ever Ohio Valley Conference championship. She captured both the No. 5 singles title and the No. 3 doubles title, earning double All-OVC honors. Warren was the recipient of numerous honors, including the Bettye L. Giles award, which annually goes to the university's top female athlete. McClure remains at the University of Tennessee at Martin, serving as the director of campus recreation since 2000.

PAT HEAD SUMMITT

1976 Montreal Games, XXI Olympiad
Silver Medal, Team co-captain

1984 Los Angeles Games, XXIII Olympiad
Head Coach, Gold Medal

Success and accomplishment have always followed Pat Head Summitt. By the time Summitt graduated from The University of Tennessee at Martin in 1974, she symbolized the prototype player of the decades to come. She was described as a strong player that had great instincts and was awesome on defense. She denied the ball all over the court, rebounded with authority, took the ball to the hoop and then could shoot the lights out over a zone defense.

In her career as a Lady Pacer Summitt helped UT Martin to a record of 62-15, which included two AIAW District Tournament Championships, one AIAW Tennessee State Tournament Title, one AIAW Regional Championship and an appearance in the 1972 AIAW National Tournament.

Only four games into her final season as a Lady Pacer, Summitt suffered a near career-ending knee injury. After she went down with an injury, the UT Martin team won only two games the rest of the season to finish 6-15. Even with her final season cut short, Summitt ended her career with 1,405 points, which stood as the career record for points scored in a career until 1989.

In 1973, following her junior season, she made her first U.S. national team when she represented the United States at the World University Games in the Soviet Union. She returned to UT Martin for her senior season with loftier goals, such as making the 1976 Olympic team when she was hampered by the knee injury.

She was determined to get the knee back into shape and try out for the Olympic Games, but not many people gave her a chance. The University of Tennessee in Knoxville, though, showed its confidence in her abilities as a coach when the school offered her a graduate teaching assistantship and the reins to the women's intercollegiate basketball team as a 22-year-old. The position suited her needs to a "T" -- she could pursue her career and stay close to basketball as she rehabilitated her knee.

The late Helen B. Watson, the former chairperson of the University of Tennessee's Physical Education Department, can be credited for bringing a young Pat Head to Knoxville. Watson asked Head to coach the Tennessee women's team in a letter dated April 30, 1974, when Head was a 21-year old senior at UT Martin. In her letter, Watson wrote, "we have an excellent potential team, and I believe that they would be happy to have you as their coach."

At the time, Head was being courted as the assistant coach who would also serve as a graduate teaching assistant in the Physical Education Department at Tennessee while she pursued her master's degree. An enthusiastic Head accepted the position. Imagine her shock two weeks later when Watson called back and informed Head that the women's basketball coach, Margaret Hutson, had decided to take a sabbatical and Tennessee was offering her the job as head coach. Head, who had never run a practice or made out a practice plan or schedule, said she really contemplated her decision because as she put it, "I was absolutely overwhelmed and scared to death."

Patricia Sue Head arrived in Knoxville as the new head coach and was practically the same age as the seniors on her team. A little shy at the time, she never corrected Dr. Helen B. Watson or Dr. Nancy Lay, her mentors in the UT Physical Education Department, when they shortened Patricia to Pat, assuming that's the name she went by. Head never mentioned to them that she had gone by Tricia or Trish her whole life.

In her first year as a collegiate coach, she led her team to a 16-8 overall record, attended classes as a master's degree candidate, taught physical education classes and stayed in playing shape. As the summer of 1975 approached, she thought the knee was ready for a big test. The knee held and so did Summitt -- held, that is, a spot on the U.S. Women's World Championship team and the 1975 Pan American Games team.

After another summer of international experience, she returned home to coach her Lady Vols to a 16-11 record, a second-place finish in the state tournament and a spot for herself on the 1976 U.S. Olympic Team. Playing on the Olympic Team in Montreal at the Games of the XXI Olympiad was the high point of her competitive playing career, as she helped lead the United States to a silver medal finish while serving as the team's co-captain.

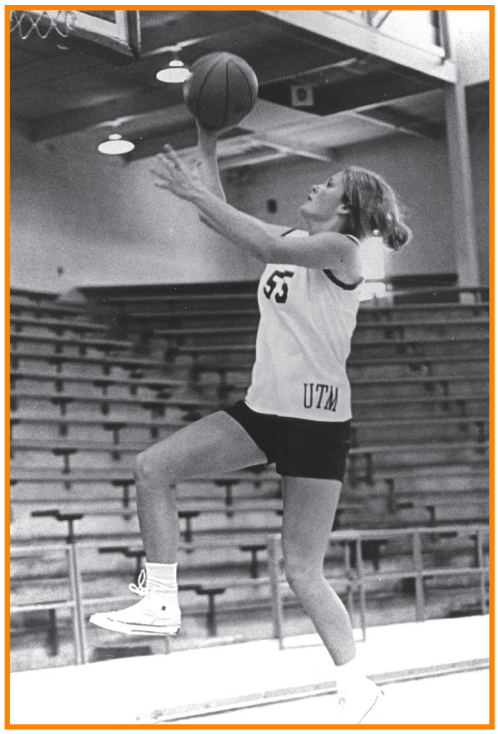

After her player career was done, Summitt continued to find Olympic and international success as a coach, to go along with her storied success at The University of Tennessee. In 1977, Summitt was given the first U.S. Junior National Team to coach, and she led it to two gold medals in international play. What makes it so remarkable is that one year earlier Summitt was a player on the U.S. Olympic Team.

Her next international challenge was taking the U.S. National Team to the 1979 William R. Jones Cup Games, the 1979 World Championships and the 1979 Pan American Games. Summitt and her team returned home with two gold medals and one silver medal.

When the Moscow Olympic Games rolled around in 1980, she was honored as the assistant coach to the late Sue Gunter. Although the United States boycotted the Games, the team still captured the pre-Olympic qualifying tournament title.

In August 1982, Summitt was named the 1984 U.S. Women's Olympic basketball coach, and the rush for the gold was on! She coached the 1983 World Championship team to a silver medal finish; but the silver was not indicative of the team's play.

The XXIII Olympiad in Los Angeles, Calif., found Summitt's U.S. squad tearing through the opposition by a bundle of points. When the gold medal was a reality, Summitt's team lifted her high and carried the "All-World" coach around the Los Angeles Forum for all to applaud.

Pat Head Summitt was a member of the UT Martin Lady Pacers women's basketball team from 1970-74, before going on to win a silver medal at the 1976 Olympic Games and eventually becoming the winningest coach in college basketball history.

Heather Butler (left) became the first UT Martin basketball player to score 2,000 points on March 2, 2013 at Austin Peay before Jasmine Newsome (right) reached the 2,000 point plateau on Nov. 11, 2013 against Quinnipiac.

Butler (2,865) became the Ohio Valley Conference's all-time leading scorer on Jan. 13, 2014 at Morehead State. Newsome (2,566) moved into second place on the list against Eastern Kentucky in the OVC Tournament semifinals on March 7, 2014. The duo is the first pair of teammates to ranks first and second on a conference's all-time scoring list in NCAA history.

Heather Butler holds every three-point record at UT Martin, along with three NCAA records after her time with the Skyhawks. Butler set a pair of NCAA records as a junior, making a three-pointer in 34 consecutive games in 2012-13 while setting another record with 80 straight games with a trifecta.

In 2013-14, Butler tied the NCAA record for career three-pointers made with 392, tying Kansas State's Laurie Koehn set in 2005. The NCAA career three-point record was later broken.

TENNESSEE COLLEGE WOMEN'S SPORTS FEDERATION ERA

Six Seasons: 1970-81
Overall Record: 131-137
Championships: One (1971)

The Lady Pacers were one of the charter members of the Tennessee College Women's Sports Federation (TCWSF) to promote intercollegiate competition and provide state championships in a variety of sports for women. The TCWSF was part of the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics (AIAW). UT Martin went 131-137 during its time in the TCWSF - including the sport's first state championship in 1971.

OHIO VALLEY CONFERENCE ERA

28 Seasons: 1992-Present
Overall Record: 395-422
Conference Record: 256-224
Championships: Five
(2011-12, 2013-14, 2014-15, 2015-16, 2019-20)

The Skyhawks joined the Ohio Valley Conference prior to the 1992-93 season following a season as an independent while transitioning to Division I. After a bumpy start to the OVC, the Skyhawks recorded their first league title in 1998-99 before a string of championships in the 2010s - including four consecutive OVC Tournament championships and NCAA Tournament berths from 2011-14.

1999 WNIT FIRST ROUND

March 11, 1999 • Skyhawk Arena
UT Martin 77, Ole Miss 66

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team used a 20-7 second-half run to break open a close game and defeat Ole Miss, 77-66, Thursday night at Skyhawk Arena in the first round of the Postseason Women's National Invitational Tournament.

After taking a 33-22 lead into halftime, the Skyhawks still led by one, 40-39, with 15:00 to play. However, the 20-7 spurt over the next 8:28 gave UT Martin a 60-46 lead with 6:32 left in the game.

The Skyhawks extended the lead to 66-50 on a Nichole Lockridge jumper with 5:06 to play, and the Lady Rebels would get no closer that nine points the rest of the way.

"Ole Miss was the more aggressive team in the first half. Once we got the lead, we became tentative," said UT Martin co-head coach Gary Van Atta. "We did a better job on the defensive end in the second half and were able to nullify their quickness. We couldn't stop Boyd inside, but we did a good job on Bethley and Myatt."

Tessa Fields led four Skyhawks in double figures with 25 points, including 11-of-13 free throws. Zabrina Harris posted a double-double, finishing with 16 points and 13 rebounds. Tamika Brown and Lockridge each scored 10 points, while Tracy Webb pulled down a career-high 11 rebounds for UT Martin.

The Lady Rebels (15-13) were led by Frankie Boyd who finished with 24 points and 10 rebounds. Tarsha Bethley also posted a double-double, registering 17 points and 10 rebounds. Sinissia Wysinger pulled down a team-high 11 rebounds for Ole Miss.

The Skyhawks matched the school record for wins in a season while improving to 22-8, the best mark for a UT Martin women's team since the 1972-73 team finished 22-4. The victory was the ninth straight at home for the Skyhawks, setting a new school standard.

1999 WNIT SECOND ROUND

March 15, 1999 • Elma Roane Fieldhouse
Memphis 87, UT Martin 73

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team shot just 31 percent from the field while losing an 87-73 decision to Memphis in the second round of the Postseason Women's National Invitational Tournament Sunday at Elma Roane Fieldhouse.

Seniors Tesa Fields and Nichole Lockridge each had 13 points to pace the Skyhawks, while Zabrina Harris and Chastity Bohannan contributed 12 and 11 points, respectively. Tracy Webb pulled down a game-high nine rebounds.

Conference USA Player of the Year and All-America Tamika Whitmore led Memphis with a game-high 25 points in spite of playing only 23 minutes because of foul trouble. Kelly Herron added 18 points, while Malissa Bush finished with 13 points for the Lady Tigers.

In spite of a 29-18 rebounding edge at halftime, the Skyhawks trailed, 40-30, at intermission. Memphis opened the second half with an 8-2 run to take a 48-32 lead with 17:48 to play.

The Skyhawks battled back to pull within 52-46 with 12:53 left after a 14-4 UT Martin run. However, Herron scored seven straight points to put the Lady Tiger lead back at 12, 64-52, with 8:26 to go. UT Martin would get no closer than 10 the rest of the way.

The Skyhawks conclude a 22-9 season, while the Lady Tigers improve to 21-9 and advance to face Arkansas State in the quarterfinals.

For the first 20 minutes of this afternoon's matchup against Duke in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team traded blows with the No. 2 seeded Blue Devils on their own home floor. However, Duke opened the second half on a 9-0 run and never looked back. UT Martin suffered a 90-45 loss at Cameron Indoor Stadium.

Ohio Valley Conference Freshman of the Year Heather Butler capped off her spectacular debut season with a team-best 15 points tonight, while junior Taylor Hall added 10 points off the bench for UT Martin (21-11). Jasmine Newsome also chipped in nine points for the Skyhawks, who were making their first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

"In the first half we didn't play as well as we can play and we were down 10," UT Martin head coach Kevin McMillan said. "I felt pretty good about that, but I was worried about the gas that was left in the tank. You hope that your adrenaline will kick in and that you can find ways to fight in the second half and make a shot or two. The thing about this game is that once the snowball got rolling it was gone. We didn't have much of an answer."

Jasmine Thomas' 18 points led the Blue Devils, who will advance to play Marist in the second-round on Monday. Chelsea Gray and Haley Peters also scored 11 points for Duke, who improved to 30-3 on the season.

Duke scored the first five points of the game before Beth Hawn converted a wide-open layup 50 seconds into the game to put the Skyhawks on the scoreboard. The Blue Devils then scored five unanswered before a Jaclissa Haislip three-pointer from the right wing made the score 10-5.

The Skyhawks trailed by nine before UT Martin scored four straight points off a Hall jumper and backdoor layup by Butler to slice its deficit to five points at the 13:27 mark.

The Blue Devils then went ahead by 11 points thanks to six straight points in the paint, but Newsome took over. The lightning-quick guard scored five straight points in 55 seconds for the Skyhawks to help UT Martin stay within 10 points.

A Hall trey from the right corner at the 4:18 mark made the score 32-22, but the Skyhawks went scoreless for the next 2:14 while Duke opened up a 15-point lead. Another Hall three-pointer ended the drought, igniting a 9-4 run to close out the half and send the Skyhawks into the locker room trailing 41-31.

Newsome's nine points paced UT Martin at the break, while Butler and Hall poured in eight points apiece. Thomas tallied a game-high 10 points for the Blue Devils in the first half.

Duke's big run to begin the second half ended when Hall sank a pair of free throws at the 16:55 mark. However, the Blue Devils scored seven of the next nine points before Butler drilled a three-pointer from the right wing with just under 15 minutes to play.

That would be the last field goal the Skyhawks would make for the next 4:52, as a long jumper by Butler at the 10:05 mark broke the scoreless streak. Duke responded by hitting back-to-back three-pointers to push its lead out to 71-41 at the under-eight minute media timeout.

UT Martin would endure another lengthy span without a field goal, as a layup by Perica Glenn at the five-minute mark ended a 12-0 Blue Devil run and made the score 77-43. Duke then scored the next 12 points of the game before Butler leaner with 22 seconds left ended the scoring on both sides.

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team sold out to its plan Saturday afternoon in the first round of the NCAA Tournament against Tennessee at Allstate Arena Saturday afternoon.

However the team made a few mistakes that the coaching staff recognized and Tennessee used its size and depth to eliminated UT Martin from the NCAA Tournament, 72-49. The setback ends UT Martin's 14-game winning streak and sends Tennessee into Monday night's second round against the winner of the BYU-DePaul game.

"What we had planned on doing, we did the whole game," UT Martin head coach Kevin McMillan said. "We sold out on our plan, and that was to control who shot the ball and where they shot from and for the most part we did a good job. I think we only made three or four mistakes that we were upset about as a staff."

The Skyhawks fell behind 5-0 with 17:59 to play in the game, but went on a 7-0 run thanks to sophomore Jaclissa Haislip's 3-pointer with 16:39 to play in the first half.

"I think the few times in the first half when I was getting points I was slipping by a screen and catching them off guard," Haislip said. "So, I think their defensive plan they had worked all night. We got the shots we wanted we just had to put them in the hole."

Tennessee answered the UT Martin run with an 8-0 run of its own and took a 13-7 lead when senior Glory Johnson made a layup. Tennessee never trailed again in the game. Johnson was held to four points in the first half, but had seven of her game-high 12 rebounds in the first half.

Tennessee led at the half 35-26. UT Martin shot 28 percent from the field in the first half and 25 percent from behind the arc. Despite the poor shooting effort Haislip scored 10 points in the first half.

Tennessee opened the second half with an 8-0 run and led 43-29 when Briana Bass knocked down a 3-pointer. Tennessee made 10 3-pointers, while UT Martin who entered the game averaging 10.4 3-pointers per game only made four three balls.

McMillan said his team will take several things away from the loss to Tennessee.

"We were much better today than we were a year ago at Duke," he said. "We were out rebounded 52-39 and that was an acceptable margin. Taking things away from this game, Tennessee played two mid-majors all year, and they won both of them by 35 points, and here we are, shooting as poorly as we shoot, and we played them to 23.

"Where we fell short is we have to score more points.

Heather Butler led UT Martin with 14 points, while Haislip finished the game with 12 points and Jasmine Newsome added 10 points.

Meighan Simmons led Tennessee with 20 points, while Johnson added 14 points.

The Skyhawks finished the season with a 23-9 won-loss record and for the second consecutive season only lose one senior, Taylor Hall, to graduation.

"We have marked the novelty off (going to the NCAA Tournament), now we have to figure out how to win a game," McMillan said.

Junior guard Heather Butler put on a show this afternoon in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, pouring in a season-best 37 points against No. 1 seed Notre Dame, but the Skyhawks fell 97-64 to the Fighting Irish in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

UT Martin (19-15) matched the No. 2 team in the nation shot-for-shot for the majority of the first half, led by the prolific scoring of Butler. The 5-5 sparkplug out of Medina scored 20 straight points for the Skyhawks at one point, tallying her 10th career game of 30 or more points. She ended her day with a 13-for-30 shooting performance, adding five free throws in eight attempts. She also drained six of her 11 three-point attempts, extending her NCAA records of consecutive games with a three-pointer (80) and in a season (34 games).

Butler's 37 points are the most points scored in the 2013 NCAA Tournament first round with the results from four games still pending. Butler passed Central Michigan's Crystal Bradford in that category, as Bradford scored 36 points against Oklahoma in first round action on March 23.

Butler's 37 points are also one point shy of the all-time record for an opponent against Notre Dame, nearly passing Latasha Byears' 38 point performance for DePaul against the Fighting Irish on Jan. 16, 1995. It is the most points any player has ever scored against Notre Dame in an NCAA Tournament game, passing Connecticut great Maya Moore's 36 point outing against the Fighting Irish on April 3, 2011 in the Final Four.

"I thought Butler had probably the best individual game anybody's had against us all year long," Notre Dame head coach Muffet McGraw said. "She was phenomenal. I think we slowed her down for four minutes, but she played extremely well. What a great performance by her."

"What that young lady does is absolutely amazing," UT Martin head coach Kevin McMillan said. "She had an opportunity to play against All-Americans and I would think 37 points is a pretty good day against a No. 1 seed."

Two-time Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year Jasmine Newsome also added 15 points and five assists for UT Martin, who closes out its season with a 19-15 overall record after making its third straight NCAA Tournament appearance.

Notre Dame (32-1) was led by 27 points from Jewell Loyd and a double-double (22 points, 10 rebounds) by Kayla McBride. Natalie Achonwa (16 points) and Skylar Diggins (10 points) also led the Fighting Irish, who won their school-record 27th straight game.

Notre Dame scored the first four points of the game until a layup off an offensive rebound by Rickiesha Bryant got the Skyhawks on the scoreboard at the 18:38 mark. The Fighting Irish extended their lead out to 14-4 with 15:23 to play in the first half but Butler answered right back with an old-fashioned three-point play to get UT Martin within seven.

After Notre Dame went ahead by 11, the Skyhawk offense started clicking on all cylinders. A pull-up jumper by Butler sparked a 7-0 UT Martin run over a span of 1:17 to pull the Skyhawks within four points (20-16) with 12:19 to play.

Butler stayed hot, scoring 15 consecutive points for the Skyhawks – including a backdoor layup and free throw for another old-fashioned three-point play – to keep UT Martin within striking distance at 28-24 with just under nine minutes to go before the halftime break.

Butler's 23 points led all scorers at the break, as she made eight of her 17 field goal attempts including a trio of three-pointers. Loyd's 17 points paced the Fighting Irish, who shot just 14.3 percent from beyond the three-point arc in the first 20 minutes.

The fourth time was nearly the charm for the University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team against nationally ranked No. 12/13 and No. 4 seed North Carolina on Saturday afternoon, but the Skyhawks final attempt fell just short as the game ended 60-58 in heart-breaking fashion.

The Skyhawks (24-8) led for the majority of the game, changing their game plan which ranked them third in the nation in scoring going into the contest to a patient half-court offense and defensive pressure. Holding the Tar Heels, a team which averaged 80.7 points per game going into the tournament, to just 60 points the Skyhawks liked their chances.

The Skyhawks shot 45.8 percent from the floor in the second half, but came up dry in the second half, shooting just 30 percent from the field. The lead changed hands four times while seeing five ties. The Tar Heels finished the game on a 28-8 run over the game's final 10 minutes of play.

UT Martin was led by the play of senior Heather Butler who tallied a game-high 19 points on the night, including three three-pointers which tied the NCAA record for career three-point field goals made with 392 which ties Kansas State's Laurie Koehn from 2002-05. Butler finished with 2,865 career points which moved her into a tie for 16th place on the NCAA's all-time scoring list and with 129 straight games with 10 points or more. Ashia Jones joined in the action on the afternoon with 18 points and eight rebounds, including 11 points in the second half. Jasmine Newsome and Katie Schubert tallied eight points each.

"I thought that we did exactly what we planned on doing in the ball game," said UT Martin coach Kevin McMillan. "We wanted the game to stay at 60, in the 60s, and not get out of the 60s. I thought we executed and did everything we wanted to do. We tried to defensively make them get a little frustrated and take some time off the clock and we wanted to try to get to the foul line and keep the rebounding fairly close. Most of those things we did, I though these kids…it was an extremely, extremely large challenge for us because that's not how we play. We press and we run and we shoot it quick and I think we're 3rd in the country in scoring. For these kids, especially these two seniors, to buy into changing that for this basketball game was actually unbelievable."

The Tar Heels (25-9) were led by freshman sensation Diamond DeShields who tossed in 15 points, 13 coming in the second half, before fouling out with 1:34 to play. DeShields was joined in double figures by Xylina McDaniel who tallied 14 points and nine rebounds.

North Carolina knocked down the first two shots of the game, jumping out to an early 4-0 lead. The Skyhawks would begin to get stops from there as Butler knocked down a 15 foot jump shot before hitting a three-pointer to give the Skyhawks the 5-4 advantage. Schubert would pull up on a dribble drive to cap off the 7-0 run for the Skyhawks. UT Martin would lead 7-5 going into the first media break at the 15:37 mark.

The Skyhawks would use a 13-3 run over the final 4:42 of the first half to take a 35-22 advantage into the halftime break. Butler led all scorers with 13 points while Schubert tallied eight and Jones tossed in seven points. The Tar Heels were led by McDaniel with nine points.

Jones opened the second half with dominating performances, scoring 11 points in the opening minutes of the second half. The Skyhawks put together a 8-3 run over the four minute span, taking a 48-32 leading into the 10:52 media break.

With the Skyhawks trailing by two, Newsome drove into the paint before hitting an open Karisma Tyson for a three-point opportunity, but the historic upset would not be in the cards as the shot missed wide as they final horn sounded.

2014-15 OVC SEASON CHAMPIONS

WOMEN'S NIT – UT MARTIN AT OLE MISS (AT OXFORD, MISS.)

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team battled in the first round of the Women's National Invitational Tournament but could not overcome Ole Miss on Wednesday night, falling 80-70.

The Skyhawks saw their season come to a close with a 22-11 overall record after punching their ticket to the program's fifth consecutive postseason appearance. Three players scored in double figures for the Skyhawks led by the play of sophomore Ashia Jones' 17 points. On top of leading the team in scoring, Jones broke the program's single-season scoring record with 772 points, surpassing the previous record of 770 set by Jasmine Newsome during the 2012-13 season.

Providing depth for the Skyhawks was the play of Chelsea Roberts who tallied 13 points while completing numerous hustle plays to get the squad back in the contest in the second half. Monique Jackson posted an impressive return to Ole Miss where she played her first three years of her career – scoring 10 points while tallying six rebounds.

Ole Miss advances to the second round of the Women's NIT behind the play of Kelsey Briggs with 19 points and six rebounds off the bench. Erika Sisk tallied 16 points while All-SEC first teamer Tia Faleru tossed in 12 points and five rebounds for the Rebels.

UT Martin would come out of the game on a quick 4-0 run seeing jumpers from Jones and Roberts to give the Skyhawks an early advantage. Following a pair of jumpers by the Rebels, Jessy Ward would knock down a three-pointer of her own to take a 7-4 advantage into the opening media timeout.

Ole Miss would respond with a 7-0 run of its own during a two minute span, giving the home squad its first lead of the game at 13-11 at the 12:07 mark. The Rebels would score nine points during a stretch of over four minutes, finding baskets from Faleru, A'Queen Hayes, Kiara Golden and Shequila Joseph.

The two teams would go back and forth over the ensuing five minute stretch, seeing both teams score seven points while taking a 20-20 stalemate into the 7:33 mark of the first. Jones would tally four of the Skyhawks seven points during the span while Roberts would knock down a three-pointer from the right wing to momentarily take a two point lead with just over eight minutes to play.

The Rebels would take over from there, stringing together an 11-0 run over four minutes, seeing their lead reach as high as nine points. The Skyhawks would finally snap the run with a three-pointer from Ward at the 4:54 mark.

After seeing the Skyhawks cut the lead as slim as five off a jumper by Jones to give the sophomore her 10th point of the contest, the Rebels would turn up the heat. A pair of three-pointers from Joseph and Briggs to close out the half on a 7-0 run. With the strong finish, Ole Miss would take a 39-27 lead into the halftime break.

It would look like the Skyhawks would come out of the locker room looking to make strides as Roberts knocked down a three-pointer in the opening minute but the tale would tell a different story. Ole Miss would respond with a 13-0 run over the ensuing three minutes of play while holding the Skyhawks scoreless for nearly four minutes. During the run it was Sisk and Briggs who would do all the damage – including eight points from Briggs – while stretching the squad's out to 23.

The Skyhawks would not go quietly however, stringing together an 11-0 run of their own during a two minute stretch while pushing an overall run of 15-2, trimming the margin to as close as 10 with just under 12 minutes to play. The bench depth of Haley Howard, Karisma Tyson and Monique Jackson would combine to score 10 of the team's points during the run.

The bench depth would continue to shine as Tyson knocked down another trifecta to cut the margin to single digits, sitting at 56-49 at the 11:12 mark. The Rebels would finally snap the Skyhawks significant run with a three-pointer from Gracie Frizzell on the left wing.

The Skyhawks would trim the margin to as close as five in the final minutes, but a jumper by Jones at the 2:28 mark would be the squads final points of the night before seeing their season end with an 80-70 deficit.

2015-16 OVC SEASON

CHAMPIONS

2016 WNIT FIRST ROUND

March 17, 2016 • Elma Roane Fieldhouse
UT Martin 79, Memphis 73

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team notched its first postseason victory since 1999 with a 79-73 road victory at regional foe Memphis in the first round of the Women's National Invitational Tournament on Thursday night.

The Skyhawks (22-8) led for nearly 39 minutes of the contest despite seeing the lead change hands four times in the fourth quarter. Seeing the team's margin jump out to as high as 20 points early in the second quarter, the Skyhawks stayed the course while the margin slowly diminished behind a strong third quarter run by the Tigers.

With the victory the Skyhawks notched the team's second postseason win in the program's 24-year Division-I history, matching a WNIT first round victory over Ole Miss on March 11, 1999. It also snapped a five-game postseason losing streak while notching the team's 22nd victory of the season, ranking as the third most wins in program history.

For a senior class which includes four-year starter Katie Schubert, the game summarized her career in a nutshell: clutch. Entering the game, Schubert was looking to notch her first postseason victory, tie the program record for individual victories and needed 19 points to move into the program's top-20 scoring leaderboard. Schubert would be up to the task in all three respects, scoring 19 points – including five points in the final 36 seconds to seal the team's victory while tying the 2014 trio of Heather Butler, Jasmine Newsome and Megan White with 87 career wins.

Schubert led a balanced scoring attack which featured five players in double figures. Along with her game-high 19 points, Schubert tallied seven rebounds, four assists and a steal while playing all 40 minutes. Fellow senior Haley Howard tossed in 16 points while Memphis native Emanye Robertson scored 14 points – tying a career-high. Shy Copney provided 12 points off the bench while Ward scored seven points in the fourth quarter to finish with 10 on the night.

2016 WNIT SECOND ROUND

March 21, 2016 • Diddle Arena
Western Kentucky 64, UT Martin 57

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team saw its impressive season come to a close in the second round of the Women's National Invitational Tournament on Monday night with a 64-57 setback at the hands of Conference USA power Western Kentucky.

The Skyhawks finish the season with a 22-10 overall record, capping off a season which saw the program notch its eighth 20-win season, first postseason victory since 1999 and third consecutive Ohio Valley Conference league title.

The game saw a see-saw affair in the contest after both teams came out flat in the first quarter, combining for just 22 points in the period. The Skyhawks would use a strong run in the opening minutes of the second quarter, using a 16-0 run to not only take the lead but hold a margin as large as 12 points. The Lady Toppers would respond with a considerable run in the third quarter to retake control of the contests.

UT Martin saw its three seniors go out with strong performances, placing the team's three scholarship seniors in double figures. Haley Howard paced the Skyhawks with 15 points on the day while the duo of Katie Schubert and Chelsea Roberts joined in the action with 10 points each.

Western Kentucky (26-6) shot just 38.3 percent from the floor but forced the Skyhawks into 18 turnovers and tallied 13 offensive rebounds en route to winning the coveted battle of the boards. Sophomore Tashia Brown tallied 32 points on the night to pace all scorers. Reigning Conference USA Player of the Year Kendall Noble flirted with a triple-double, tallying 15 points, 12 assists and eight rebounds in the victory.

The University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball team could not overcome its offensive shortcomings on Saturday afternoon, falling in the Ohio Valley Conference Basketball Championship to Southeast Missouri by a score of 67-47.

Despite the loss, UT Martin has clinched the program's ninth postseason appearance with an automatic berth into the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT). The team's selection and opponent will be officially released on Monday, March 16th.

The Skyhawks (22-10) struggled to get much going in its eighth trip to the championship game in the past 10 years. UT Martin shot just 33.3 percent from the field while failing to record a three-point field goal for the first time since Feb. 3, 2009. Meanwhile, the team shot just 50 percent (11-of-12) from the free throw stripe in a game which got away late.

OVC Player of the Year Chelsey Perry added to her postseason honors by earning her second spot on the OVC All-Tournament team after leading the team with 15 points while tallying six rebounds. Fellow junior forward Maddie Waldrop also scored in double figures with 12 points and seven rebounds in the setback.

Southeast Missouri (25-7) proved to be the hottest team in the field. After setting the OVC tournament scoring mark on Friday afternoon, the Redhawks continued their hot play by punching their first ticket to the NCAA Tournament since 2007. The Redhawks were led by All-Tournament MVP Tesia Thompson who tallied 25 points and 14 rebounds in the contest while fellow All-Tournament honorees Carrie Shephard (13 points) and Taelour Pruitt (four points) were also recognized.

After winning the OVC regular season title, the Skyhawks earned the automatic berth to the Women's NIT. The selection was never made official however as the WNIT was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

2021 WNIT GAME 1

March 19, 2021 • My Town Movers Fieldhouse
Nebraska 72, UT Martin 46

After heading into the half trailing by three points, UT Martin could not get its shots to fall to offset a second half run by Nebraska, ultimately falling 72-46 in the first round of the Women's NIT at My Town Movers Fieldhouse.

With the loss, the Skyhawks (20-6) will move into the consolation bracket of the Memphis Regional.

UT Martin jumped out to a quick start in the contest, growing a lead as large as six points in the first quarter while holding the advantage for nearly 12 minutes of the first half. Both teams would go back and forth in the opening half in a game which featured 10 lead changes before Nebraska scored a pair of field goals on its final two possession of the half to take an advantage it would not relinquish down the stretch.

Coming out of the intermission, the Huskers would outscore the Skyhawks by 13 in the third quarter behind a 67 percent clip from the field and eight free throws. The four quarter would feature much of the same as the Skyhawks could not find their shooting stroke while the Huskers pushed their lead out to as much as 29 to put the game away.

Outside of the first quarter, the Skyhawks struggled offensively throughout the contest in a game in which they shot just 30.9 percent for the game and 23.8 percent from beyond the arc. UT Martin senior Chelsey Perry returned to the starting lineup and recorded her 17th career double-double with 20 points and 10 rebounds. The game marked the 85th double-figure contest of Perry's career and 40th 20-point outing while bringing her career scoring total to 1908 points. Just missing out on double figures was Paige Pipkin with nine points.

2021 WNIT GAME 2

March 20, 2021 • My Town Movers Fieldhouse
UT Martin 58, Louisiana 48

Senior Chelsey Perry poured in a season-high 37 points to lift UT Martin to the program's third postseason win in a 58-48 victory over Louisiana in the consolation round of the 2021 Women's NIT at the Memphis Regional.

The Skyhawks improved to 21-6 on the season after earning their own little piece of history. The win marked only the third time in the program's 29-year Division I history that UT Martin has won a postseason game, joining postseason victories in the 1999 (Ole Miss) and 2016 (Memphis) WNIT fields. The Skyhawks advance to the consolation championship of the Memphis Regional to play Illinois State.

UT Martin controlled the tempo for the majority of the contest against the Sun Belt regular season champion Louisiana. The Skyhawks shot 43.2 percent for the day and 37.5 percent from beyond the arc. The higher percentage was critical for success as the slower tempo resulted in just 44 field goal attempts as the squad capitalized by leading for 85 percent of the game.

After posting a double-double in the opener, Perry - the reigning two-time OVC Player of the Year - took her game up another notch by scoring a season-high 37 points on 13-of-17 field goal attempts while knocking down 6-of-7 three-pointers and 5-of-6 free throw tries. She filled out her impressive stat line with seven rebounds and four blocks. It marked the 13th 30-point outing of Perry's career while bringing her career scoring total to 1,945 points.

Playing short-handed once again, all five Skyhawk starters played over 30 minutes in the contest. Seygan Robins ranked second on the team in scoring with six points while Kyannah Grant led the team with six assists.

2021 GAME 3

March 22, 2021 • My Town Movers Fieldhouse
UT Martin 64, Illinois State 59

The senior pair of Chelsey Perry and Maddie Waldrop saw their decorated careers end like few others – with a win – as the UT Martin picked up a 64-59 victory over Illinois State in the consolation finals of the WNIT Memphis Regional.

The Skyhawks (22-6) made history with the win, becoming the first team in program history to record to two victories in a single postseason – notching wins over Louisiana (58-48) and Illinois State (64-59) to wrap up a championship campaign. Additionally, UT Martin is the first team in Ohio Valley Conference women's basketball history to record multiple wins in a single postseason.

UT Martin led for nearly 30 minutes of the contest after jumping out to an early advantage, holding a lead as large as 13 points with two minutes left to play in the first quarter. Illinois State did not roll over however, fighting back to not only tie the game but take its first lead with three minutes to play in the third quarter. From there the game would go back and forth in the final 13 minutes of action with six additional ties and four lead changes.

The Redbirds took their final lead with 3:42 to play in the contest before the Skyhawks charged back with a 7-0 run to retake the advantage and assume control down the stretch. With the lead in hand, UT Martin sank four free throws in the final 90 seconds to put the game away and seal the historic victory.

The pair of Waldrop and Perry combined to score 42 of the team's 64 points with Waldrop scoring a game-high 24 points while tallying eight rebounds. Perry joined her teammate in double figures with 18 points and six rebounds.
